

The Albany Register.

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 17, 1870.

Subscribers finding an X after their name will understand that their subscription expires with that number, and they are invited to renew their subscription. Terms—$1 per annum, in advance; six months, $2; three months, $1.

LOCAL AFFAIRS.

S. F. MARKETS.—Flour unchanged. Wheat—Ordinary, $1 95; choice, firm at $2 12 1/2 @ 15 @ 100 lbs. Oats—good to fair, $1 37 1/2; choice, $1 50 @ 1 60. Potatoes, $1 37 1/2 @ 1 70.

FIRST FREIGHT OVER THE O. & C. RAILROAD.—Messrs. E. Cartwright and J. H. Foster have the honor of shipping the first freight over the Oregon & California Railroad from this point. Mr. Cartwright shipping seven car loads of flour and pork, on Thursday. The freight for the latter firm was hauled by teams from the Magnolia Mills to where the railroad crosses First street. Until the rails are laid to the Magnolia Mills, (taking in all the mills, etc., on the river front, from the Froman Buildings in the eastern suburbs, to the Magnolia Mills, on the Calipoola, in the western), the Railroad Co. propose to haul freight to their depot without extra charge.

NURSERY.—Mr. Henry W. Settlement brought into our office on Tuesday a specimen of Illinois sheklark hickory nuts, and also some large crab apples, grown in his nursery from seed obtained in Illinois. He also brought us a box of the finest apples we have seen in the State—perfect beauties, and they taste as well as they look. Mr. Settlement is one of the oldest pomologists in the State, and his extensive nursery, some six miles from this city, contains all the varieties of fruit and ornamental trees, current, rose and blackberry bushes, grape vines, etc., that will flourish in our soil, besides black and white walnut, hickory nut, pecan and other nut bearing trees. Persons wishing any variety of nut or fruit bearing trees, should make application to him, and they will be satisfied at reasonable rates.

ALMANAC.—The publisher has kindly forwarded us McCormick's Almanac for 1871. It contains valuable and useful statistics relative to this State, and the Territories of Washington and Idaho, together with a mass of information to be obtained only through long and laborious research. It should be in the hands of every Oregonian. Published by S. J. McCormick, Portland, Oregon. For sale by E. A. Freeland, Albany.

ALBANY BOOK STORE.—Mr. E. A. Freeland has received a new and elegant assortment of blank books, scrap books, the largest ever brought to the city, together with some very tastefully bound volumes, especially adapted for Christmas and New Year presents. His assortment of stationery, gold and steel pens, envelopes, etc., are superior to anything hitherto brought to our city, which he is offering at the most tempting prices. Go and see.

WRIST BROKEN.—Last Saturday, Mr. Simpson, one of the employees at the Froman Buildings, while "trucking" wheat, fell and dislocated his wrist. An examination by Dr. Rice showed that some of the metacarpal bones were broken. Under the doctor's treatment Mr. Simpson expects to be all right in a few days.

EFFECTS OF THE SHOOTING.—We learn from the Portland papers that Mr. C. G. Smith, who was accidentally shot by a railroad hand, in the bar-room of the St. Charles hotel in this city, on Thursday of last week, has submitted to the amputation of the wounded limb (left leg), and is now in a fair way to recover.

BAD FOOT.—A son of F. T. Smith, living some seven miles from this city, while chopping wood, cut his foot with the ax. About a week after the accident, he sent for Dr. Rice, who found that, as no attention had been paid to the wound, erysipelas had set in, and young Smith will have a close shave if he preserves those feet.

ZOOLOGICAL.—An Indiana journal boastingly states that Mr. Garrett Clawson, an old resident of eighty, shoots squirrel without spectacles! A great many years have flown since we passed through Indiana, and therefore we are not prepared to dispute this grave assertion; but we are prepared to say positively that the Oregon squirrel never dons spectacles!

LIVERY.—Messrs. Montgomery & Bartz have some of the newest and latest style buggies and carriages, with match teams, for hire, in Webfootdown. For a slap-up span of horses and gay rig generally, go to their stables, corner of Washington and Second streets.

He who would be business king.
Must keep good team and steady driver!
which they do. See card.

SEWING MACHINES.—When looking around for suitable presents for Christmas and New Year, remember that the most useful thing you can purchase, and one which will be appreciated greatest by the ladies, is a good sewing machine. Messrs. Blain, Young & Co. have several kinds, from which you can choose to suit yourself.

LARGE HOOS.—Messrs. Beach & Monteith have been slaughtering some fine porkers during the week. We noticed among a lot of thirty or forty strung up, one that would weigh between five and six hundred, and several that would weigh from three fifty to four hundred.

Talk about the "hum of business," but if you want to behold a live city, with all her Sunday clothes on and her people shushing around "peert like," intent on doing something for themselves and country, trot up and see us. Next season will see whole rows of frame building torn down, and in their places stately bricks will rise; numerous fine dwellings will be erected; a first-class brick hotel; streets and alleys will be improved, and miles of sidewalk constructed. Albany will be the liveliest city in Oregon next season.

FESTIVAL.—A supper and Festival will be given by the ladies of the United Presbyterian Church, on the evening of Thursday, December 22d. Contributions to the supper thankfully received. All are invited.

HILTBADIEL & CO.—Have received a large stock of toys, candies, etc., especially for holidays, and those who wish to fill the hearts of the little ones with joy, should go there and lay out a little cash in purchasing some of them.

COMPLIMENTARY.—A "compliment ary" from Mr. C. A. Cutting, landlord of the "Chemeketa Hotel," the splendid building just erected in Salem, informs us that the opening ceremonies will transpire on the evening of December 26th. Won't we be there, neither.

NEAR.—Our old friend J. B. Sprenger has fitted up the neatest little place in the city, on First street, where the thirsty can find the very best of drinkables, &c. As long as men will indulge in the flowing bowl, they should endeavor to get the best. The "green seal" Jake sent us was not.

OMITTED.—We omitted the card of Messrs. Harris & Co. last week for want of room. However, they have not omitted, nor will they, to furnish nice cuts of beef steak, pork and mutton chops, sausage, etc., to all who call on them.

There was in the neighborhood of one hundred and fifty persons present at the Union Sociable, held at Mr. J. Barrows' residence, on Thursday night—by far the largest gathering of the season. And a more affable and pleasant lot of people we never "struck."

MARKETS.—Wheat has advanced to $2 15 per hundred in San Francisco. This advance seems to be the result of the actual wants of those countries which buy their largest supplies from us, and not the result of speculation.

John Metzler, Esq., is on the "turn"—in fact he excels in the biz. At present he is busy turning sticks in a chair, and he makes a nice job of it, neither. If you want a neat, durable, handy chair, call at John's shop.

Growlers, who stubbornly deny that the railroad improvement to this city is or will be of any benefit to the citizens generally, and especially to the poor man, should contrast the present busy winter season, when all men who will work are employed, with previous winter seasons, when there was scarcely such a thing as a "day's work" to be obtained, and ask some four year old boy the reason of this new life and activity. And when he has been fully posted, let him go and get another—smoke, and kiss his own want of foresight (luck, he'll term it), in not investing in real estate a year ago.

We received the President's message on Thursday evening, too late for this issue. It is just such a paper as the people expected of our able and patriotic President—plain, practical and to the point. It meets with general approbation.

THANKS.—Our thanks are due Senator Williams for a number of valuable public documents.

Mr. J. C. Mendenhall, our active real estate agent, is constantly making sales of valuable improved real estate in Linn and adjoining counties. Those looking for real estate should call on him at once.

Our Brownsville friends will find Mr. A. Wheeler prepared with a choice selection of goods suitable for the holidays, which he will transfer to their keeping at a bed-rock price. Go for his store.

Recently while Mrs. Louisa Calavan was returning home from Seio, as we learn from the News, going at a pretty brisk pace, the horse on which the young lady rode fell, throwing her to the ground and rolling over her, spraining her back severely. She will recover.

In the municipal election in Seio resulted in a tie vote between Messrs. Thorp and Irvine, candidates for the Mayoralty. The News says Mr. Irvine will contest the election on the ground of illegal voting.

It is rumored that they have a cure of small pox at Soda Springs, and another at Lebanon. The News is our authority for saying the disease has "quit" the limits of Seio city.

The fine locomotive, Cackamas, brought up the Paymaster's coach on Thursday.

Local Paragraphs.
Butter is quoted at 30 @ 37 1/2c—weak. Ice formed a quarter of an inch thick on Wednesday night, in this city.
Rumor has it that one of our prominent citizens takes a fair daughter of Eve to the altar to-morrow.

Small pox still prevails in Salem to a "limited extent."

Mrs. Daniway goes to San Francisco on the next ocean steamer.

The citizens of Seio are agitating the question of the purchase of a church bell. Our buyers are still offering but 80c for wheat.

Potatoes are worth $1 @ 1.25 per bushel in our markets.

Steamers plow the mighty Willamette without let or hindrance at present.

For interesting news in relation to the Chinese rebellion, see outside.

Hiltabedel & Co. have received a fine lot of potatoes—a scarce article of late.

Eggs have declined to 30c per dozen, since our last.

The O. & C. Railroad is now ready to receive freight for Portland and way points.

Regular passenger trains will commence running from this city to Portland next Wednesday. Whooror!

A "runaway match" on Tuesday night caused some outgushing. "Love laughs at locks," &c!

A "switch" has been built from the O. & C. Railroad depot to the Froman Buildings.

The new City Council don their official raiment and war paint next month.

Sam'l Simpson, Esq., of the Corvallis Gazette, and Judge Oleneal, were in the city on Friday.

Mr. Gradwohl has gone below to lay in a new stock of groceries, stores, tinware, &c.

Business brisk during the week, and smiling faces more numerous than usual.

The frame of the passenger depot is up and the roof on. The delay in receiving lumber has retarded operations.

The sociable at Mr. J. Barrows', on Thursday evening, was the most pleasant gathering of the season.

Read the new cards in this issue. The men who advertise are the most liberal dealers.

Some cool weather, the present week, mornings and evenings, but hardly cool enough for overcoats and so forth—and yet we are in the "dead" of winter.

One day last week Wm. Rice, the telegraph operator at this point, was stunned and almost thrown from his seat, by a stray stroke of lightning.

Mr. J. W. Webber has been reconstructing his bathing arrangements, and is now ready to accommodate the "unwashed" public at all times.

E. W. Pike will remove his fine stock of books, musical instruments, toys, &c., to the room now occupied by Carothers & Co., in a few days.

The Railroad Company propose "toting" freight at as low figures as the Willamette boats. Competition is the life of trade.

Our new office will soon be ready for occupation. When finished, it will be the neatest and most convenient office on the coast of Oregon—bet your life.

From a friend we learn that business in Harrisburg is "bully." A large amount of pork will be put up at that point this winter.

The O. & C. Railroad Co. have reached this city with their telegraph line. It is understood that Billy Thurman will have charge at the depot.

The City Council have ordered a new sidewalk to be built, from a point near Mayor Stanard's to the railroad depot. Good!

The ball supper on the evening of the 26th will be gotten up by mine host of the St. Charles, which is a sufficient guarantee that it will be just the thing.

It is rumored that Ben Holladay intends giving the citizens of Albany a free ride to Portland and back on an early day. That's just like Ben.

Everybody in want of neat bill-heads, cards, envelopes, ball tickets, etc., plain or in colors, order their work at the Houghton job office. We're on it, is shy.

Carothers & Co., druggists, have rented J. H. Foster & Co's brick on First street, where they will move their elegant stock of drugs, medicines, etc., in a few days.

Don't forget the supper and festival at the U. P. Church next Thursday night. The ladies having the matter in charge never fail to get up an interesting and enjoyable occasion.

From the Portland Enquirer we learn that a little child of E. C. Holden, formerly of this burg, had an arm broken recently by falling out of bed.

Remember that Henry W. Settlement is not only a large stock of apple, pear, plum, and other fruit trees, vines and shrubs, but he has also about 1,500 hickory trees—just what you want.

The "Original Negro Minstrel Troupe," consisting of five colored gentlemen, gave performances in this city on Wednesday and Thursday nights, to fair houses. They are fair performers, and those who attended got their money's worth of "laugh."

We understand that the continuance of the "switch" up the river from the Froman Buildings, along the river front to the Magnolia Mills, depends entirely upon the terms on which the right of way can be secured.

We learn that Mrs. Delazon Smith, who went East some three months since, for her health, has not been as much benefited by the change as herself and many friends had hoped. She will return to Albany early the coming Spring.

Jas. Elkins, Esq., has been appointed deputy agent for the O. & C. Railroad at this city. The appointment could not have been "struck" a better or more accommodating gentleman.

HARRISBURG.—From High. Smith, Esq., we learn that business is good in Harrisburg, the only drawback being the lack of transportation facilities. Moore, Smith & Co. have upwards of 100,000 bushels of wheat in their mills, and they will "construct" some 20,000 barrels of flour. Part of the mill machinery being out of order, they are manufacturing but 800 barrels of flour per week, for the present. The same firm have fattened 500 hogs during the past season.

Smith, Brasfield & Co., merchants, have purchased upwards of 1,000 head of fattened hogs, and will sugar cure hams and shoulders during the Winter therefrom. J. Levi & Bro., merchants, have also purchased about the same number of hogs, and will also go into the sugar curing business immediately.

Smith, Brasfield & Co. have sold $45,000 worth of dry goods and groceries during the year just closing. The municipal election transpired on the 5th, with the following result: Mayor, Jas. W. Brasfield (Rep.); Recorder, Isaac S. Mansfield (Dem.); Marshal, Levi Douglass (Dem.); Treasurer, Geo. Brandenburg (Dem.); Councilmen, Hiram Smith, Geo. H. Churchill and Samuel Nixon, Republicans; D. R. Holt, F. M. Kountz and T. J. Stites, Democrats.

Party lines were not drawn, and no special interest taken in the election. A ball is to be given at the Merchant's Hotel on the evening of the 23d—next Friday. All the warehouses are full to overflowing of produce awaiting shipment; the Harrisburg mill is so full of wheat and flour that unless transportation facilities are afforded soon, the mill will be compelled to suspend operations, having no room. The expected rise in the Willamette by the last of the present month, enabling steamers to reach Harrisburg, carrying away the surplus produce, not having been realized, the people are anxiously awaiting the completion of the O. & C. Railroad to the 100 mile stake, when they will be enabled to ship, by teaming about five and a half miles.

Prof. W. R. Bishop, Principal of the Harrisburg Academy, has a large and prosperous school of some one hundred and ten scholars. He is assisted in his school duties by Prof. J. C. Snodgrass.

Mr. O'Neil, of Eugene, supercedes Applegate, as Surveyor General.

MARRIED.
In this city, Dec. 13, 1870, at the residence of A. N. Arnold, by the City Recorder, Mr. N. Sprenger and Miss Mary J. Murray, all of Albany.

DIED.
Dec. 10, of consumption, Elizabeth Carville Jackson, in the 17th year of her age.

NEW TO-DAY.
