AMERICAN BROILER.

The Finest Culinary Invention of the Age.

Embodying in a plain and cheap utensil as simple as a pot or skillet, and weighing less than three pounds—

All the Principles Involved in the Perfect Broiling of Meats,

With the Greatest Conveniences and Advantages of Practical Use, and Doing its Work with a Rapidity more than Double that of any other Broiler!

It affords to the rich and poor alike the FIRST and ONLY relief ever offered from the tedious, troublesome, juice-evaporating, and dyspepsia-producing broiler of the past; from the deadly foe to human health, the FRYING-PAN; and from

Meat-cooking Abominations of all degrees

It renders broiling, heretofore so vexatious, the Quickest and Easiest of all modes of Cooking, and meats broiled by it than by any other mode of cooking them, because it prevents the loss of nutriment by evaporation or otherwise. It sets on top of the stove or range over one of the openings; requires no preparation of fire; no Coke or Charcoal; no pounding of steak; renders tough meat tender by its action; does away with all smoke and smell of grease; broils equally well over Coal or Wood; answers for all sized stove or range openings; and is equally good for Beefsteak, Chicken, Chops, Ham, Fish and Oysters.

More Palatable and Nutritious

It broils steak, over an average fire, in Seven to Eight minutes, and over a very hot fire, within Five minutes. Other meats in proportion, and retains all the Juices and Flavor, which no other broiler does.

65,000 Are Now in Use!

all sold under standing and Unconditional Guarantees, and have given an unanimity of satisfaction unprecedented in the culinary inventions.

We guarantee them, wherever sold, to fulfill the above specifications, and authorise all dealers to do so with their customers. An universal test is invited on these terms; and to any not satisfied after a fair trial, the money will be refunded, with charges both ways.

Each Broiler will have the authorized label attached with the trade mark, "American Broiler," stamped thereon.

This Broiler is also an unequalled Bread-Toaster and Corn-Popper, and a good Coffee-Roaster.

Retail Price only Two Dollars.

Fine Mesh Grate for corn popping and roasting coffee, if desired, 30 cents extra. Liberal discount to the trade.

For sale in San Francisco by the house below named, in half-dozen and dozen packages, at the minimum rates, who will be responsible to the full extent of the above guarantees for all Broilers sold by them.

GREAT LAND SALE!

20,000 ACRES!!

BY ORDER OF THE BOARD OF DIRECtors of the Willamette Valley & Cascade Mountain Wagon Road Company, made December 10, 1870, I will offer at public auction, to the highest bidder, on Monday, the 6th day of February next,

at the office in Albany,

20,000 ACRES OF LAND,

belonging to said Company, and situated in Linn county, Oregon.

Persons desiring to purchase, will be furnished with a description and location of said lands, by applying at the Company's office.

TERMS OF SALE—Cash, one-third of purchase-money in hand at time of sale, remainder in two annual payments, taking promissory notes therefor at 12 per cent. per annum. Purchasers desiring to pay a greater amount than one-third in hand, will have a deduction of ten per cent.

Title to these lands is good, and purchasers, upon partial payment, will receive Company's bond for a deed. Those paying in hand the full amount of purchase price, shall receive their deeds at once. Sale to commence at 10 o'clock A. M. of said day, and continue until all of said lands have been offered for sale.

N. B. All persons residing on any of the Company's lands in this county, are notified to come forward immediately, if they desire to purchase the same, as I shall continue as heretofore to sell at private sale, until the day of sale as above designated. JAMES ELKINS.

AN EDITORIAL BRUTUS.—Hear us for our debts, and get ready, that you may pay; trust us, we have need, as you have long been trusted; acknowledge your indebtedness, and dive into your pockets that you may promptly fork out. If there be any among you—one single patron—that don't owe us something, them to him we say, step aside, consider yourself a gentleman. If the rest wish to know why we dun them, this is our answer: Not that we care about ourselves but our creditors do. Would you rather that we went to gaol, and you go free, then pay your debt and keep us moving? As we agreed, we have worked for you; as we contracted, we have furnished the paper to you; but as you don't pay us, we dun you. Here are agreements for job work, contracts for subscriptions, promises for long credit, and duns for deferred payment.

Who is there so ignorant that he don't take a paper?
If any, he need not speak, for we don't mean him.
Who is there so green that he don't advertise?
If any, let him slide, he ain't the chap either.
Who is there so mean that he don't pay the printer?
If any, let him speak, for he's the man we're after.

CURIOSITIES OF ADVERTISING.—Grief and business have seldom been more thoroughly mixed than in the following obituary advertisement. The residence of the defunct we omit, and the name we have changed, therefore it will not worrit his friends:

"Othneil Sitgreaved, we are sorry to stait, has deceased. He departed this last Mundy. He went 4th without any struggle, and sich is life. He kept a nice store, which his wife now waits on. His virchews wos numerous, and his wife inherits them. We are happy to stait that he never cheeted, speshully in the wate makeral, wich wos always nice and smelt sweat, and his surviving wife is the same way. We niver new him to put sand in his sugar, though he had a big sand-bar in front of his house; nor water his lickers, tho the Ohio River past his door. Piece tu his remanes. He leves 1 wife, 9 children, 1 kow, 4 hoses, a growcer's and other quadrooped's to mourn his loss. But in the langwidge of the poit, his loss is thare eturnal gane."

"I believe, sir," said an angry visitor to a bland editor the other day, "I believe, sir, that you conduct the —— Journal?" The reply was a nod of assent. "I am Mr. Moore, banker in —— (naming a neighbouring town), and you had the audacity to state in your last issue that I had committed suicide in a fit of temporary insanity." The editor was puzzled, but undismayed. "We had the paragraph from our local reporter in your town, and have always found him reliable and accurate." The banker became more angry. "Well, sir, you see that I am alive. Of course you will publish a contradiction and apology in your next number?" "I am afraid, my dear sir, that this would violate our invariable rule—which is, never to admit that we have made a mis-statement. But as you appear greatly annoyed by the paragraph, I am willing to state in to-morrow's paper that the rope broke, and that you are fortunately alive. More than this cannot be done—our rule is never to retract."

SUICIDE.—C. H. Fox, a well known resident of this place, committed suicide on last Wednesday by taking laudanum. He was a kind hearted, generous and upright man, but would occasionally drink liquor. Being exceedingly sensitive in his nature, he could not endure the idea of being disgraced, and as he had been drinking on Tuesday seemed to feel that he could never face his friends again, and determined to take his own life. In the first place, about 12 o'clock Tuesday night, he took a shotgun and went to his room up stairs, and tried several times to accomplish his purpose with the gun, but could not get it to go off. The gun was taken from him and he was taken to the St. Charles Hotel, where he went to bed. Early in the morning he procured two ounces of laudanum and went home—made a request that he should not be called till evening and went up stairs to bed. When supper was ready in the evening, Mr. Dudley went up to wake him, but he seemed to be very hard to rouse. Mr. Dudley became alarmed at this, and called in a physician, but he lived only a few minutes after the physician arrived. But few persons knew of his threats to commit suicide, and supposed that he would abandon the idea when he became sober. The deceased was a native of England, and leaves relatives there.—Eugene Journal, Jan. 28.

A GOOD REMEDY AGAINST INSECTS.—We found it next to impossible last year to protect the young cantelopevines against the persistent attacks of the black gust and the striped bug. Even young radishes, which we had always found before a sure protection, had little or no effect. Eventually soapsuds was applied, which seemed to do the business, both in driving them away and in keeping them away. It should be applied several times, and always after a rain has washed off the effects of the previous sprinkling. Whale-oil soap is the best for this purpose, using about one pound to four gallons of water. This soap can be obtained at the agricultural stores generally, as well as at some of the drug and grocery stores. We see that other remedies are suggested, and among them one in an English journal, that the common elder-bush scattered among the vines will keep off all bugs usually infesting them. But we do not believe it. Try the whale-oil soapsuds, and if this substance cannot be obtained, use the common soap in larger proportion.—Germantown Telegraph.
