LOCAL AFFAIRS

SINGING-Mr. Prentis, of Salem, wishes it generally understood that he will give a "big sing" at the Court House this (Saturday) evening, and invites the public generally, especially lovers of music, to attend.

Houck have purchased the lot on corner of Baker and First streets, and have already commenced the erection of a brewery thereon.

the lecture was rather slim.

HURRIED.-We moved into the new building erected for the REGISTER office, on the corner of Ferry and First streets. on Saturday last, and we have been busy ever since trying to get our office in shape, and it has rather "crowded the mourners" to get out this issue. We will be all right in a few days, however. In the meantime we invite our friends to call in and see us.

GREAT LAND SALE .- Next Monday Jas. Elkins, Esq., will offer for sale, at public auction, at the office of the Company in this city, 20,000 acres of land. ing itself in our midst with alarming rabelonging to the Willamette Valley & pidity. We see to-day places prospering Cascade Mt. Wagon Road Company, embracing a large variety of tillable, grazing and timbered land. An opportunity will be offered by this sale to persons of small means to secure homesteads at small outlays of cash. The sale will be continued from day to day until all is EXPRESS AGENT .- John Conner, Esq. having refused longer to act as agent for Wells, Fargo & Co. in this city, as it interferred with his business, Mr. N. Baum was selected as their future agent in this city. Mr. B. entered upon his duties on the 1st inst., and being an accommodating gentleman will doubtless prove acceptable to our people.

CONCERT FOR BENEFIT OF THE U. P. CHURCH.-The Vieuxtemps Brothers will give a grand vocal concert, on Tuesday evening next, for the benefit of the U. P. Church. A splendid bill will be presented, and as the cause is a good one, we hope to see the church crowded to overflowing on next Tuesday evening, the place and occasion of the concert. Our citizens are already fully posted asto the merits of the Vieuxtemps Brothers, and no eulogium from us is neces-

CHANGE .- Mr. Daniel Clark, of Salem, having purchased the meat market lately owned by Mr. Sears, in this city, proposes to furnish our citizens with all kinds of meats of as good quality and at as low rates as can be obtained elsewhere, and asks a share of public patronage. Read his card in this morning's REGISTER, and then call at his market.

Sr. VALENTINE'S DAY .- Ten more days will usher in St. Valentine's day, a day set apart and generally taken advantage of by the young people to send love missives, "funecdotes," etc., to each other. We suppose the day will be properly observed by the young people of this city, and that comic or sentimental valentines will be on hand for their accommodation at one or both of the book
