FAILER TO CONNECT .- Owing to the sickness of two of the Councilmen, Messrs. John B. Monwith and D. Beach, and the absence from the city of another, Mr. L. Cheadle, there was no meeting of the City Council on Tuesday evening. There being no meeting, the bids for building city hall and engine house were not acted upon.

CHANGE OF FIRM .- The old and reliable firm of Russel & Ferry, Real Estate Brokers, Portland, has been changedto Russell, Ferry & Woodward, by the admittance into it of the latter gentleman. We are advised that the firm will carry on business on a more enlarged scale, having greatly increased their facilities by the change. Suc-

PROGRESS IN ART .- Mesers. Winter & Paxton. of the Picture Gallery on First street, of late have drowned worth a cent. not only far surpassed anything bitherto produced hereabouts in the art photographic, but now propose to execute, if possible, still better work by the introduction of later styles, such as the "Heliograph," etc. When it comes to excellent work, Winter & Paxton are decidedly upon

RECEIVED .- Stitzel & Upton's Real Estate Circular, for the current month, is on our table. Aside from a large map of the State of Oregon, which covers the entire fourth page of the journal, and which will prove of great value to strangers, there is a well written article on the advantages possessed by Portland as a point for the investment of capital. The general inducements offered by other portions of the State to emigrants are also

LIBRARY LECTURE.-We learn that Rev. C. C. Stratton, of Salem, has been secured by the Library Association of this city, and will deliver the next lecture for the benefit of said society, at the M. E. Church on the evening of the 30th instant. Mr. S. has a fine reputation as a speaker, and will doubtless fill the bill on the occasion to the satisfaction of all who attend.

APPLES .- In speaking of the "strong suit" of Webfoot, apples, the Farmer speaks by the card, as follows: We notice that several varieties of apples in market are small, and are losing some of their best qualities. The Swaar and Genneting are scarcely half their proper size. We must manure our orchards and take care of them if we would keep the fruit up to the proper standard.

This was considered "dirt cheap," and the parties purchasing have lenced by this invention, two horses being all that

INFORMATION WANTED .- Parties are at xious to learn the present residence of a Miss Elizabeth Clifton. At least that was her maiden name. When last heard from she was residing in Salem. Oregon, some six or eight years since. Since then report has it that she married and went to the States-probably to Missouri. Any information with regard to her whereabouts, will be thankfully received by either As. H. Baltimore or J. S. Dickson. Address either of the above named gentlemen at Albany, Linn county, Oregon. There is a considerable amount of money awa ting her order. Oregon and Missouri journals will confer a favor by giging the substance of the above, publicity.

CONFIDENCE MEN .- Referring to the doings of the confidence men, the Advocate speaks of an instance which took place in Linn County several years ago : "A most excellent man confiding in a years ago: "A most excellent man confiding in a stranger, executed a general warranty deed to a valuable farm, receiving in exchange nothing but the stranger's note of hand with a mortgage to secure the payment. Of course the payment was never made, and only by a due course of law could the farm be redeemed, which was done at an expense of about one hundred dollars. We learn the East seems to be a failure. Here is another from reliable parties that others are in danger of being imposed on in this same manner, in other counties of this valley. The confidence man, who gets possession of a farm in this way for sinety days or longer, has two chances of making money without the risk of losing a dollar. The one is to cut down all the timber he can and disposs of it at reduced rates, and the other, to get the piace at an advanced figure in ease of a gias in its value. If there be no rise in its value at the set of ninety days, or a prolonged time. at the end of minety days, or a prolonged time, the more gages is compelled to foreclose at the usual expense of lawyers' fees, etc. That a bold, had man may seek to buy land in this way is not surprising; but that any man of good judgment should sell in this manner may well strike us with autonishment."

Read The Following:

It affords me much pleasure to give you, in these few lines, a very sincere testimonial for the Plano Fortes of your manefacture. We have new used the "Patent Arion Pianos" in our Conservatories for a year, and have had a fair opportunity of testing their durability during that the The Pianos have been played upon almost constantly, from morning till night, and a Piano must indeed be a good one when it will bear such constant use without showing signs of defection. As for remaining in tune, it out rivals any Piano known to me.

Their peculiar sweetness of tone in the treble, (as compared to other Pianos with the erdinary metal agrafe arrangement? It so striking that I have had pupils remark, while taking their leasons, that although they had at home what they supposed to be one of the best makes of Planos, still the treble was very wirey toned compared with the "ARION."
