CINCINNATI, October I, 1869.

Messrs. J. N. HARRIS & CO.—Gents: About one year ago I took a cold which sattled on my lungs. A violent cough was the consequence, which increased with severity. I expectorated large quantities of phlogra and matter. During the last winter I became so much reduced that I was confined to my bed. The disease was attended with cold chills and night-sweats. A diurrhea set in. My friends thought I was in the last stages of consumption, and could not possibly get well: I was recommended to try Allen's Lung Balsam

PATENT BUCKLE .- Among the list of patents issued for the week ending May 9th, we notice that Mr. John F. Martin, of Harrisburg, bas received a patent for a buckle.

FINGER AMPUTATED .- Mr Walter Monteith. has been suffering for some days with crysipelas, which attacked him in the left hand. On Thursday Dr. Tate amputated the index finger of said left hand, since when the patient has suffered less pain, and it is to be hoped will soon recover entirely.

Sonaville.-We learn from Mr. High Smead that Sodaville is up and doing. The huge soda spring, from which the village derives its name, retains its former celebrity for health-giving properties, attracting a large number of people thither. The spring and its surroundings are being improved, so that its waters may be "cultivated" to the greatest advantage, and additional attractiveness lent to the scene. We are under obligations to Mr. Smead for a bottle of the spring- water, which makes a pleasant and palatable beverage.

A PREDICTION.-Wiseacres bereabou's assert it all down, making harvesting a heavy matter that the Spring of 1871 resembled precisely the indeed. Spring of 1861, in the matter of rainfall, cool semblance, they predict that we are to be visited the newest and latest. war that shall almost entirely annihilate the Brownsville on first page.

MAMMOTH STOCK .- Messers. W. H. Kuhn & Co. have just received a mammoth stock of hardware, comprising everything needed in their line, together with a large number of novelties never before brought to this market. This enterprising firm are determined to keep pace with the needs and demands of our citize"s as they are increased by presperity and wealth, and therefore everything useful or ornamental, demanded by frugality or luxurious taste, in their line of goods, will be found at their establishment. A minute survey of the many articles on sale at Kuhn & Co.'s vill convince you of the above facts.

A NEW PLAN TO AVOID TAXATION .- In conversation recently with a number of gentlemen, the subject being taxation, one of the number remarked that, up at --- (mentioning the name of a thriving town in Oregon), the citizens paid no taxes, as they had bit upon a plan to carry on the municipal government without levying a tax. Whenever the city's exchequer was empty and funds were needed for any purpose, the first gentleman from the country caught within the city limits, was induced in some manner to take part in a "ruction," gotten up, of course, for his special benefit, whereupon he was immediately arrested by the authorities and fined heavily, thus killing treasury to supply the needs of the corporation, and instilling into the mind of the country gentleman a reverence for the strict and impartial manner in which the corporation laws were enforced !

WHEAT PROSPECT IN LINE-After carefully ounty is about this : Spring wheat generally at this writing never gave better promise of an abundant harvest, in some sections it even being prethis and harvest, of any former year. Full grain | them, and that they may be induced to stop with has not fared so well. While some farm rs have us. plowed up all of their fall sown wheat, others have a fair showing for a half crop, and still others claim that their fall crop will average with other yield, generally, an average crop. But the loss, if any, sustained in the fall wheat, will be fully made up in the extra yield of spring.

Those having orchards should, for the next few weeks, watch them closely, if they wish to save their orebards.

WM. DAVIDSON'S MAP OF PURTLAND .- In the last issue of the New Northwest we get the following in relation to Mr. Wm. Davidson's map and sketch of Portland, and as it expresses our views entirely we give it in full:

entirely we give it in full:

Wm. Davidson, the irrepressable, indefatigable, enterprising and reliable real estate dealer, No. 64 Front street, has just completed a pocket map of the city of Portland, which is, in our judgment, the most perfect map of the city extant. Accompanying the map is a concise and comprehensive sketch, from which the immigrant can learn much in a short compass. In alluding to the commercial advantages of the city, Mr. Davidson says: "Portland, as the centre of a vast and prosperous manufacturing interest, at no very diatact day, has been greatly overlooked. Be abundant is the water and so rapid is the fall that it can be carried by canal for upwards of fifteen miles, taken from the falls at Oregon City, and the entire distance can be made available by the use of the turbine water wheel and other modern inventions, and not even Lowell, the Sheffield of New England and the wealthiest manufacturing city of the Union, can compare in extent and vastness with the unlimited water power that can be furnished for the various manufacturing interests of this commercial emporium of the State."
