SARTIAN MINES.—Unob Jerry Driggs exhibited to us on Wednesday, specimens of gold obtained from Dry Gulch, in the Santiam Mining District. The gold is coarse, some of the pieces eighing as high as fifty cents each. Several attempts were made by Uncle Jerry and party to "go down" to the bedrock, all of which failed.
Uncle Jerry is firmly of the belief that whoever attempts and succeeds in getting down to the bedattempts and succeeds in getting down to the bed-rock in Dry Gulch, will strike it rich as cream. The dirt, from the grass-roots down as far as they sunk prospect holes, contained particles of gold, and would pay, he thinks, from two to three dollars per day to the hand.
