

The Treaty of Washington.

We publish this morning, on our fourth page, this important treaty—without doubt the most important treaty ever entered into between this Government and any other foreign power.

The treaty became a part of the supreme law of the land by proclamation of the President on the 4th of July, 1871. The Washington correspondent of the Journal notes some other remarkable coincidences connected with the treaty.

The Tammany Robbers.

The following article in the New York Times on the 19th of last month, fore-shadows the exposures which the telegraph informs us the Times has published of the thieving operations of the Democratic office-holders in New York.

We published on the 8th instant an article from Connelly's (alias Slippery Dick's) own books, showing the frauds which are perpetrated at the expense of the public in relation to the city armories.

To-morrow morning we shall publish a still more important document, also compiled from Connelly's own books. We shall prove, and we challenge Connelly or any other of the city authorities to deny a single fact or figure in our statements.

Our article to-morrow, though of great importance, will be exceeded in interest by a true copy which we shall shortly publish of the money paid on warrants during 1869 and 1870 for the new court house.

ASIATIC CHOLERA.—The fact of the existence of cholera in Poland has been officially acknowledged by the Russian authorities, and the New York Herald suggests strict sanitary observance for New York and other cities.

It is to be hoped that the country will be spared the terrible visitation; but this hope should not induce the authorities in our large cities to overlook the necessary precautions.

THE "NEW DEPARTURE."—It would seem that some of the leading Democratic journals of the country can see nothing in the New Departure calculated to build up or give strength to the party.

It would seem to be the extent of the wisdom of some Democratic journals and Democratic politicians to have their party platform come as near as possible to that of the Republican without being the same—almost alike as two peas, except that the one may have in a black speck made by a fly or something else, while the other has none.

CALIFORNIA.—The news from California is specially cheering to Republicans. While among the rank and file of the Republican party there is unusual harmony and energy, the Democracy is dissatisfied with its ticket, and is agitated by dissensions in various parts of the State, most notably in San Francisco.

SPAIN.—It is predicted that the new Ministry, compelled by the recent crisis in Spain, will soon become unpopular, and ultimately share the fate of its predecessors.

RUSSIA.—On the 24th July, the Czar was at the castle of Ingenheim, in Bavaria, where he was visited by the Emperor of Germany, the two monarchs remaining together during the day.

THE BROOKLYN UNION says that it has the highest authority for saying that a prominent member of the Tammany Ring called upon the principal proprietor of the New York Times, a week or two since, and made a startling offer for the copyright for that paper, and was told that there was not money enough in New York City to buy the Times.

THE DAILY FREELIAN.—This new daily hail from San Francisco, and is published in the interest of the laboring man. It will support the Republican ticket during the pending contest in California, simply because the present attitude of the Republican party is deemed more favorable to the cause of progress and reform than that of the Democratic party.

Two Indians, male and female, suicided last week in the jail at Port Townsend—cut their throats with a penknife.

More About the Tammany Thieves.

The New York Times is just now busily engaged in exposing the thieving operations of the Tammany ring—the ring that has for several years passed controlled New York city and State. The Times boldly arraigns Connelly, the Democratic Controller, and Mayor Hall, as thieves and swindlers, and proposes to prove the allegations by the Controller's own books.

The amount and extent of these downright stealing and swindling operations are enormous, and the Times proposes to furnish evidences, still more glaring if possible, of the robberies committed by these Democratic officials.

By the way, the bell has arrived, and been adjusted on the church house. It is a small bell, but has a beautiful tone, very much like a No. 3 ox bell, and can be heard three hundred yards—in still weather.

Since my last writing some one, supposed to be Indians, entered the house of Speed Revins, three miles from this place on the Albany road, and appropriated to their use almost his entire outfit for housekeeping, consisting of bed clothes, cooking utensils, wearing apparel, etc.

Charles Henry was instantly killed in Martin's mill, at Avoca, a few days ago. He was assisting to arrange a belt, when he became entangled and was carried around the pulley with terrible velocity.

During a storm at Darien on Monday, the wife and three children of Charles E. Zegar were struck by lightning. One of the children died, and the rest will recover.

The defaulting Payment of Lexington, Missouri, named J. H. Northolt, was arrested here to-day, where he has been working as a journeyman tailor under the name of C. C. Neville. He left Missouri in May last, and was traced to this city by one of his sureties.

IMPERTINENT.—The San Jose Guide, speaking of Mrs. Stanton, says: Mrs. Stanton's elocutionary powers are good; she is a learned woman; but her great mistake is—she doesn't curl her hair.

ONE OF THE NEW YORK SUNDAY PAPERS says that of the 142 civilians, who were killed and wounded in the riot of Wednesday, 75 were natives of Ireland and only 10 of the United States.

Bucna Vista Correspondence.

BUCNA VISTA, August 1, 1871. EDITOR REGISTER: Once more I am prepared to donate to your valuable columns a few choice and very important items, dissimilar in no respect to my former highly praiseworthy and very influential productions.

Firstly, to begin with, I will commence by saying that our townsmen rallied en masse last week, to take under advisement the propriety of sending money out of the city limits, probably never again to be enjoyed by us, (the money I mean—$14 being the extravagant demand), with which to purchase

Men, women, and orphan children assembled in one mighty throng to participate in the heated discussion. Some showed signs of being very belified, while others didn't appear to be on it so much. During the fearful conflict it was ascertained that the belified crowd would number two to three, and that it would be worse than murder to buck against them since they had both odds and ends in their favor.

But was the storm of contention and anger yet at an end? Oh, no! Hardly gone. The money had started, the bell rung, and what next? A strong minded lady, mother of twelve orphan children, arose, holding in her hand five bills of divorce, four of her husbands present, and urged, in a subdued but firm tone her claims to the bellweathership.

Resolved, that no woman can be a bellweather and do justice to herself. The meeting adjourned until the first Sunday after harvest to settle all vexed questions.

By the way, the bell has arrived, and been adjusted on the church house. It is a small bell, but has a beautiful tone, very much like a No. 3 ox bell, and can be heard three hundred yards—in still weather.
