SEWING MACHINES.

THE CELEBRATED, Buck Eye Sewing Machine.

Price $45; without table, $25.

Eight reasons why the Buckeye Sewing Machine is superior to all others:

1. It is the simplest shuttle machine made.
2. It has less wearing parts.
3. It has no small springs or compound cranks.
4. It is better adapted to a large range of work without change.
5. It has less pieces of machinery.
6. It is less liable to break needles than any other machine.
7. The shuttle will wear longer than the shuttle in any other machine.
8. That it has the best feeding device, which will never wear out, get out of order, break needles, feed unevenly, slip on starched goods or pucker the seam so that one part of the fabric will come out shorter than the other, which all other feeds are liable to do. It makes every stitch of an equal length. It is stronger than other feeds. We can take a strong piece of cloth, and put one end in our machine and the other end in any other machine, and guarantee that our machine will take the cloth from the other, in consequence of the superior strength of the feed.

It is the only feed strong enough to feed thick sole leather, sewing on shoe soles. No soaping the cloth or any other aid is required.

It has no complicated machinery, and therefore is not liable to get out of order. It has a beautiful movement, making nearly two thousand stitches per minute. The Buckeye Sewing Machine makes the lock stitch, the same as the Howe, Wilson, Singer, and Florence, alike on both sides. We offer a premium of one hundred dollars for any machine on this coast that will make a stronger or more elastic stitch than the Buckeye. For full particulars address, MINEE & PEARSON, Gen. Agents, Albany, Oregon.

CITY AND COUNTY.

SOURD ON HIM.—A remark about the reduction of our city debt under the late Republican administration, in the REGISTER of January 6th, ruffles the temper of the "oldest Democratic paper in the State," and it belches furiously thereat. We stated then, and we reiterate it, that we claim no special credit for the Republican City Council for reducing the city expenses and the city debt—they did their duty, that is all. And we are still of the opinion that if the present City Council conducts the financial affairs of the city as judiciously and honestly as did the last, the close of the year will show us out of debt and a large surplus in the treasury. And we believe it is their intention to accomplish this very end.

CHANGE.—Walter Ketchum has purchased the interest of N. Wright in the planing mill of Althouse & Co. We wish the new firm renewed success and prosperity.

GO FOR HIM.—Probably the best abused people in the world are those who are known under the cognomen of mothers-in-law. If a married man commits a crime against society, no matter how heinous, his mother-in-law is at once charged with being the cause. Story writers fill up their allotted time in this life in depicting their moral turpitude, ingratitude, and highly unjust conduct generally. And now to cap the climax comes one of those half-starved, long haired, ill dressed, melancholly looking humpbacked poets, and puts in his chin music to the same tune. He deserves the direst fate at the hands of some "cur'd false front and spectacle" mother-in-law, and he richly deserves it. He shoots his mouth off thus:

HIS WIFE'S MOTHER.
He stood on his head on the wild sea-shore
And danced on his hands a jig;
In all his emotions, as never before,
A madly hilarious gig.

And why? In the vessel which left the bay
His mother-in-law had sailed
To a tropical country some distance away,
Where tigers and serpents prevailed.

He knew she had gone to recruit her health
And doctor her moping cough,
But waggled himself a profusion of wealth
That something would carry her off.

Oh, now he might look for a quiet life,
And even be happy yet,
Though owning no end of neurological
And up to his collar in debt.

For she of the spees and curled false front,
And black alpaca robe,
Must pick out a sailor to suffer the brunt
Of her next daily trial of job.

He watched while the vessel ent the sea,
And jumpshly sped and downed,
And tho't if already she quaitish could be
He'd consider the edifice crowned.

He'd borne the old lady through thick and thin,
Till she'd lectured him out of breath;
And now as he gazed at the ship she was in
He howled for her violent death.

Till over the azure horizon's edge,
The bark had retired from view,
When he leaped to the crest of a chalky ledge,
And pranced like a kangaroo.

And many a brilliant pearl he sent
Over the waves which had made him free
Then cut a last caper ostentat, and went
Turning sou'wards his homeward to sea.
