

LOCAL MATTERS.

WEATHER RECORD—For the month of January last, kept by J. R. Smith:

Table with columns: Jan. Morn. N.Y., N.Y., Temp., Wthr., Wd. Rows 1-31 showing daily weather and temperature data.

Mean temperature for the month 40 degs. Highest temperature on the 11th and 12th, 52 degs. Lowest on the 18th and 21st, 22 degs.

ROBERT—THIEF CAUGHT.—About three o'clock on Friday morning of last week a thief entered the bar-room of the St. Charles Hotel, and abstracted from the clothing of Jake Brenner, son of the proprietor of the Hotel, two watches, a derringier, two purses, and some jewelry, and from the person of an employe of the house, who slept in an adjoining room, a cork-screw and a half-dollar.

PROFESSOR ROGERS' LECTURES.—The lectures by Professor Rogers, which were delivered in the Methodist church last Saturday and Sunday evenings, were both interesting and profitable.

NEW BUSINESS HOUSE.—Messrs. Cartwright, Westlake & Morris have purchased ground on the northeast corner of First and Ellsworth streets, and intend erecting a large agricultural warehouse thereon.

CHANGED PROPRIETORS.—The Froman Buildings, Soap Works, etc., lately purchased by C. M. Cartwright, has obtained an addition in the way of proprietors, Messrs. Cyrus Westlake and A. B. Morris having bought equal interests therein.

POISONOUS.—We read in the Yreka Journal of one George Cronwell (son of the old man), who has been suffering from a painful eruption and swelling of the neck, caused by wearing paper collars.

NEW FURNITURE.—Messrs. E. D. Whitlow & Co., have opened a furniture store in this city, three doors below J. Conner's Bank—see their advertisement elsewhere.

CORVALLIS TEMPERANCE MEETING.—On last Friday evening a mass Temperance meeting was held in Corvallis, at which speeches were delivered by the G. W. U. T., Jacob Stizel, and the G. W. S., and editor of the GOOD TEMPLAR, M. C. George, and others.

LEBANON AND VICINITY.—We call the attention of the citizens of Lebanon and vicinity to the advertisement of Jas. L. Cowan elsewhere in this issue. Mr. Cowan has purchased the interest of A. Cowan & Co. in the general merchandise business in Lebanon, and will endeavor to accommodate all old customers as well as new with a good assortment of goods.

VENISON.—Messrs. Jason Wheeler, Abe Hackleman, Martin Prine and Dr. Alexander returned from the mountains the first of the week reporting a splendid hunt, the only drawback being the excessive dry weather out there.

SPLENDID BEEF.—On Thursday, J. L. Harris bought fourteen head of the fattest and finest looking beef-cattle that have appeared in this market for a long time, for which he paid nine cents per pound net.

SNOW STORM.—A snow storm prevailed nearly the entire day on Sunday, and Sunday night was bitter cold—the coldest night of the winter.

BUCKEYES.—The way E. E. Miner & Co. are getting red of their new invoice of Buckeye Sewing Machines, is astonishing the natives.

LOST.—Between this city and Corvallis, on Thursday, February 1st, 1872, a gentleman's gray shawl. The person finding and returning said shawl to this office will be suitably rewarded.

BUSY.—Our lawyers have been very busy "getting up papers" for several days past, and we expect some poor devil will get skinned to the bone, soon.

CUTLERY.—A. Carothers & Co. have a good assortment of superior pocket cutlery, stationery, pens, ink and envelopes, in addition to their huge stock of drugs, paints, oils and Artie soda.

SCHOOL EXHIBITION.—A school exhibition, free to all, is to be given at the Harrisburg Academy in the latter part of next month. It will prove an interesting occasion.

PERSONAL.—John Farrel arrived from San Francisco on Tuesday. He is to take charge of Hurd & Co.'s mill above Eugene.

COMPANY.—Two thieves now occupy our ten thousand dollar jail, and as they will be company for one another, a break out is not apprehended for a few days.

Albany, Oregon, boasts of the champion temperance man. He has signed the pledge ninety times.—Bulletin.

BOYS.—On the 14th inst., to the wife of Mr. A. B. Morris, a boy. Just what they wanted.

A CRYING EVIL.—The manner in which the city street lamps are managed is an absolute aggravation. Part of the time the lamps from Ferry to Ellsworth streets, (two blocks) are lighted, and part of the time only as far as Broadalbin street (one block), leaving the very portion of the city where the light is most needed (Dixie) in total darkness.

NO DANGER.—A gentleman just down from Harrisburg informs us that the railroad bridge at that point is all right, all reports to the contrary notwithstanding.

FURS.—Messrs. Blain, Young & Co. offer to purchase all kinds of furs, for which they will pay the highest market price in cash.

A SUCCESS.—Mrs. Dunwain lectured at Harrisburg on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, in the Academy, to crowded houses. She lectures at Jefferson this evening.

MORTUARY.—Two deaths reported near Harrisburg during the week—one a Mrs. Clover, verging on eighty years of age, and Mrs. Scribner, also very old.

TEMPERANCE MEETING.—A public temperance meeting will be held at Good Templar Hall in this city, on next Tuesday evening. All are invited.

VISITORS.—Quite a number of lawyers, nearly all of whom are retained in the great Foster-Monteth suit, have visited our city this week.

STORM.—We were visited by a heavy rain storm on Wednesday night, followed by beautiful weather on Thursday.

WOODSHEDS.—The O. & C. Railroad Co. have recently erected at this place two wood-sheds, 31½x100 feet in size.

A HOAX.—The report that Douglas has been "ball and chained" by the Sheriff, is contradicted.

RISE.—Late heavy rains have sent the Willamette up again.

Financial and Commercial. Gold in New York, 109½. Legal Tenders, 90½ @ 91½.

TABLE TALK.—Pleasant conversation at the table while eating is conducive to health and pleasure. This eat-and-run habit kills more people than any one realizes.

Here brains, bone, muscle, blood and life are coined into money, money, money! Nobody amounts to anything without money, and health and comfort are sacrificed to obtain it.

Inferior lawyers sometimes bring reproach upon their noble profession by insinuating witnesses, and it is then comforting to see them disagreeably rebuked.

"Old Betsy" writes us from Connecticut to say that "free love" is a mighty nice doctrine for a fresh, lively man or woman, but for a person who is all worn out by hard work it don't amount to much.

A Louisville girl came blushing in to the parlor the other night and told her father, when he noticed her bloom, that she had been enjoying unseasonable happiness.

A LARGE VOLUME would not contain the mass of testimony which has accumulated in favor of Wilder's Balsam of Wild Cherry as a safe, efficient and reliable remedy in curing congested colds and pulmonary disease.

Beauty is more commended than imitated. NEW TO-DAY. FURS! FURS! FURS!
