

LOCAL MATTERS.

SUNDAY AT THE CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH.—We had the pleasure of attending an appropriate entertainment given by the Congregational Sabbath School in this city last Sunday evening.

HIGH WATER.—The heavy rains of last week sent the Willamette up looming. On Tuesday at this point it was some inches higher than it has been since the great flood of 1912.

ERODELPHIAN SOCIETY.—The Erodelphian Society of the Albany Collegiate Institute, composed entirely of young ladies, propose to give a free entertainment at the College, on Thursday evening next—February 29.

DEMOCRATIC CLUB MEETING.—Last Saturday evening Democracy hereabouts was invited to attend the Club meeting at the Court House, and hear ex-Senator Nesmith spin some of his yarns, but as the little joker failed to connect, J. J. Whitney, Esq., was put up.

A WARNING TO TOBACCO USERS.—A Virginia woman has just died at the age of one hundred and eighteen years. Tobacco is given as the cause of her early demise.

SHORT HANDED.—Wm. Mansfield, one of our typos, having been kept from his "case" by sickness during the week, and another having gone to Salem, left us short-handed.

TWO FEET HIGHER.—An old settler who resides near the Santiam, says that river was two feet higher the forepart of the present week than it was in '62.

OVERWHELMING.—The Statesman says twelve persons joined the Good Templars of that city on Last Saturday night, and to-morrow night the rest of the city will unite with the Order.

MOVING.—The flood in the river was taken as a good time to move, by some one, as his barn went down the river on Sunday, the other buildings to follow later.

POSTPONED.—The time for instituting an Encampment of the I. O. O. F. in this city has been postponed until the 1st of March next—Friday.

Arrested.—As I was wending my way to visit the sick in the upper part of the city, on Tuesday afternoon, I chanced to see a gentleman crossing the street to meet me, exhibiting unusual dexterity and haste.

Let all who dwell in this Free land, Guard well the approach of one, 'till an' Cleve With unrelenting grasp the Beach Where Fanning breezes bend the tops of the commanding fir Alt trees!

THIEF ARRESTED.—It will be remembered that we mentioned the robbery committed at the brewery on corner of Baker and first streets, last week.

Articles stolen were a pair of blankets, pipe, pistol and watch, all of which belonged to the brewer, Mr. Bellinger. A part of the articles were found on his person, others among the Indians at the racherie where he was arrested, and the watch at the Jeweler's, where Indian John, to whom Ladarett, had given or sold it, had taken it for repairs.

OCHOCHO.—As various rumors have reached us with regard to the severity of the weather in Ochocho, we are glad to see from the Statesman of the 20th, that all rumors of loss of stock in that valley by extreme cold, etc., are pronounced unfounded.

OVERLAND TRAVEL.—Late telegrams state that the weather has moderated along the route and that travel has been resumed over the Pacific railroad.

EXHIBITION.—A grand exhibition at Santiam Academy, Lebanon, transpires to-morrow, Saturday, evening. As the occasion will be a most interesting one, doubtless the house will be crowded, despite the weather.

IS LUCK.—Rev. C. W. Shaw, pastor of the M. E. Church, was presented with an entire new suit of clothes, on Tuesday, by some of his friends and parishioners, as a special mark of their regard and esteem.

FLUCTUATING.—Markets rather unsettled at present, and will be, probably, until the weather tones down. Butter has sold at from 35 to 50c per pound as to quality; eggs at from 20 to 25c per dozen.

GOSE FROM OUR GAZE.—One of our boys, Gid. Taylor, left us for Salem on Wednesday, where he proposes to learn telegraphy.

HIGH.—The Willamette is falling, but is still high enough for all practical purposes. Weather continues stormy.

A FIT.—A young man fell down in a fit, Wednesday morning, on First street. He was picked up and cared for by friends.

SOMETHING NEW.—M. Pearson says he will soon import a new-fangled sewing machine from Brownsville—he is bent on making the business lively.

AROUND.—The pleasant young man who dispenses corn and banion slayer, etc., visited our city during the week. We feel better from the visit.

NEW HALL.—There is some talk of erecting a new hall on corner of Ferry and Second streets.

How to Secure Long Life. Dr. Dio Lewis recommends that all who would secure clean, fresh skin, bright eyes, active limbs, a quick brain and a cheerful, pleasant temper, and thus enjoy a long life, should live about as follows:

Breakfast.—Oat meal porridge, with milk and sugar. Or Graham mush, with a little good syrup. Or, cracked wheat, with milk and butter.

Dinner.—Beef or mutton, roasted or stewed, with any vegetables you may like (though tomatoes should be used very sparingly); good bread and butter, and close the meal with a glass of lemonade.

There is no rule in regard to diet about which I am so fixed in my convictions, as that nothing should be eaten after dinner, and I think that the dinner should be taken early in the day; not later, if it can be so managed, than two o'clock.

Hundreds of persons have come to me with indigestion in some of its many forms, and have experienced such relief in a single week from omitting the supper, that I have, for a number of years, depended upon this point in the diet as the best item in my prescription for indigestion.

Manage your stomach as above, and at the end of ten years you will look back upon those table habits as the source of great advantages and happiness.

For thirty years I have been a constant and careful observer of those who have no hobbies about diet, and in the light of my own experience and those long observations, I assure you the table of habits I have advised, are vital to your health and happiness.

The journal from which the above was extracted adds: We will add for the satisfaction of our readers, that Dr. Lewis, who here intimates that he practices what he preaches, presents in his own person about as fine an example of genial good health and wide-awake alertness as one ever meets.

A FRIGHTFUL DEATH.—A little girl, six years of age, met with a horrible death at Huguenot, N. Y. The mother of the child, hearing screams, rushed to the sitting-room and discovered the little girl enveloped in flames, and an English bull dog tearing her burning garments off her with his paws and teeth.

Charles Matthews, going to an eating-house for lunch, heard, as he entered and sat down, seven orders given in quick succession by a throng of customers. One called for a basin of oatmeal soup, two for mock-turtle soup, three for pea soup and one for bouillon.

The plague at Buenos Ayres has written the doom of that city, as plainly as though it had been swept by fire like Sodom and Gomorrah. Of its 180,000 inhabitants, 60,000 fell before the awful scourge.

Every fog knows how often he has been a rogue; but every rogue does not know how often he has been a fool.

About 300 Indians still inhabit the everglades of Florida, and spend most of their time in getting over drunk.

A LARGE VOLUME would not contain the mass of testimony which has accumulated in favor of Winter's Balsam of Wild Cherry as a safe, efficient and reliable remedy in curing coughs, colds and pulmonary disease.
