

The Germans Engaging the Liberal Republican Movement.

Our Democratic contemporaries are quite elated over the thought that the Germans of the country are giving in their adhesion to the Liberal Republican movement as engineered by Carl Schurz.

Another of Grover's "Mistakes" Rectified.

The following telegraphic correspondence entirely contradicts the telegram recently sent by Mr. Gilroy from Washington.

PORTLAND, March 6, 1872. Hon. GEO. H. WILLIAMS:—Telegrams here announce that the State title to swamp lands near Klamath Lake has been confirmed.

WORTH KNOWING, IF CORRECT. —To burn Kerosene with safety, take an ordinary lamp and fill it as nearly as possible with wick.

Blaise Berrin has been sentenced to one year's imprisonment in the penitentiary, by Judge Denny, of Portland, for selling liquor to Indians.

The San Francisco Chamber of Commerce has adopted a resolution asking Congress to raise the Japanese Mission to first class.

Seen Through Jaundiced Eyes.

The Salem Mercury says it is becoming more apparent every day that the Republicans of the country look upon Grant's re-nomination as an unpleasant though inevitable necessity.

After the Erie Riots.

The Erie Ring of New York has been overthrown. Gould, President of the Erie Railroad, was requested by nine Directors to convene a meeting for the purpose of consulting the general interests, financial and otherwise, of the company.

The latest sensation rumor in Portland in regard to the remains in the box purchased at the "old horse sale," is that the corpse is that of a woman.

Chicago is overrun by a vile class of rowdies and desperadoes. On the 10th Sergeant Buckley, of the city police, while attempting to protect the people on the streets, was beaten until he became insensible, by a member of this class.

Minister Schenck was visiting Edinburgh, Scotland, on the 7th.

A Transparent Inconsistency.

The report of the Investigating Commission appointed by the last Legislature, lately issued, may most of it be put down as a diarrhoea of very thin gabble.

A Singular Equipage at the Polar Sea.

A young man of wealth, good looks and social position, a Frenchman, of New Orleans, by the name of M. Pavy, has recently arrived in San Francisco en route for the open Polar sea.

All Read.

The Postmaster General, by circular, requests all persons in addressing letters to be particular to write on the county, as well as the name of the town and State.

National Banks.

We commend this brief article on National Banks to the attention of those who can appreciate what it is to have a safe and sound bank currency.

Three or four national banks failing in New York does not seem to have any effect on the financial affairs of the country.

When we recollect the large amount of broken bank bills always in circulation by constant failures of the old State banks, we are pleased to know that the losses in that direction are stopped.

At the trial of Mayor Hall of New York, now under way, unusual interest was created on the 7th by the appearance of Garvey, plasterer, as witness for the prosecution.

Paul Morphy, formerly known as the champion American chess player, is to play a game with a prominent St. Louisian, blind-folded.

The National Republican Convention meets in Philadelphia, on Wednesday, June 5th, 1872.

Democratic Economy.

Another evidence of the vaunted economy of the Democratic party, is afforded by the Investigating Commission appointed by the late Democratic Legislature of the State of Oregon.

Democratic Revelations in New York.

In Harvey's statement in the Hall case on the 8th, he said that claims paid him were neither just nor honest; that they fraudulently seized large sums of money, a portion of which went to Tweed, to be used for political purposes.

All Read.

The Postmaster General, by circular, requests all persons in addressing letters to be particular to write on the county, as well as the name of the town and State.

National Banks.

We commend this brief article on National Banks to the attention of those who can appreciate what it is to have a safe and sound bank currency.

Three or four national banks failing in New York does not seem to have any effect on the financial affairs of the country.

When we recollect the large amount of broken bank bills always in circulation by constant failures of the old State banks, we are pleased to know that the losses in that direction are stopped.

At the trial of Mayor Hall of New York, now under way, unusual interest was created on the 7th by the appearance of Garvey, plasterer, as witness for the prosecution.

Paul Morphy, formerly known as the champion American chess player, is to play a game with a prominent St. Louisian, blind-folded.

The National Republican Convention meets in Philadelphia, on Wednesday, June 5th, 1872.

W. H. Cooke, of the voucher notoriety, is on his return to the United States, and it is believed that he will turn States' evidence.

From Washington we learn that the criminal suits begun in Utah will not be abandoned.

Henry Landers, of Douglas county, Illinois, a violent man, was shot three times, probably fatal, by his son aged 21.

A horrible murder of a wife and three children by the husband, Leonard Maynard, was committed near Dayton, Ohio, lately.

It is understood in New York in the Hall case, that chairmaker Ingersol, plumber Keiser, Hemesy, Cook and Woodworth will turn States' evidence.

There are said to be five bushels of testimony collected against Tweed, and that but very little of the evidence against the Ring has been published.

David Dudley Field, of New York, in his testimony before the Judiciary Committee on the 9th, is reported to have denounced Attorney General Barlow as a malicious, stupefied scoundrel.

W. F. G. Shanks, city editor of the New York Tribune, was assaulted on the evening of the 8th in his office by Joel Falcon, son-in-law of ex-Controller Connolly, who was angered at an article in the Tribune. A warrant was issued for his arrest.

At a recent mass meeting at Quebec, the administration of Canadian affairs was strongly denounced, and annexation to the United States advocated by speakers.

It is reported that the President has intimated to U. S. Attorney Bates, of Utah, that his resignation would be accepted, but that his friends urge him to decline and await his removal, so that the reasons may be made public.

On the morning of the 8th inst. the house of Captain James Bryant, of Machias, Maine, was destroyed by fire. The Captain, his wife and two grand-daughters were burned to death.

Rhode Island allows its legislators four cents mileage, and the member who lives the farthest away from the State-house thus draws eighty cents each day for walking down and back.

Col. Forney, on the 9th, at the installation of the new Collector of the port of Philadelphia, strongly advocated the nomination of Grant.

The editors of the Richmond, Va., Whig and Enquirer were arrested on the 6th, to prevent a hostile meeting, and put under bonds to keep the peace.

The old Board of officers for the Union Pacific Railroad was re-elected in Boston on the 6th, except Tom Scott, Thompson, Corneigie and Dennison, who were replaced by Horace F. Clark, August Schell, James A. Parker and Gideon Dexter. Clark was chosen President, Duff, Vice President, and Collins Treasurer.

The Carpet and Yarn mill of the Wilton Manufacturing Company, of Welton, N. H., burned on the 6th. Loss, $75,000, partly insured.

The following is Greeley's note declining to have his name affixed to the call for the Philadelphia Convention:

"Friend Chandler, please not attach my name to the call for the National Convention. I stayed away from your meeting on purpose to keep a position of independence. If we have trustworthy assurances of reform from the White House, all right; but I'm not inclined to help our Leets and Stockings to another half million of plunder."

Three cars of the express line from Buffalo to New York on the Central railroad were thrown from the tracks on the morning of the 7th. Some twelve or fourteen passengers were injured. One car caught fire, but was extinguished with snow.

$300,000 worth of steamboats were burned in Cincinnati on the night of the 6th.

The President went to Philadelphia on the 7th—was to return on Monday.

It was reported in New York on the 7th that goods for the Chicago sufferers had been lost or stolen through general order stores of the Custom House of that city.

New York has twenty-one cities of over 10,000 inhabitants each. Pennsylvania and Massachusetts fifteen each; Ohio thirteen.

Ex-Governor Wm. Dennison, of Ohio, has been proposed as a candidate for Vice President, and will be supported by the Ohio delegation.

The St. Louis Railway Register advocates the project of cutting a canal between the Missouri and Mississippi rivers, near Portage des Sioux, in order to turn the former stream against the Illinois limestone bluffs, and thus save the harbor of St. Louis from destruction.

Rock Island, Illinois, is to have a large manufactory for toys.

The Warden of the Missouri State Penitentiary was indicted lately for whipping a convict. Right.

At Washington the Senate bill for the erection of public buildings at St. Louis and Little Rock, Arkansas, has passed.

Mrs. A. P. Barker spoke at Cooper Institute on the evening of the 7th against the free love doctrines of her sister Woodhull. She said she believed her sister insane. She denounced Theodore Tilton, and pronounced his biography of Woodhull a slander against her family.

FOREIGN NEWS.

The Queen of England presented her groom, John Brown, with a gold Medal, and granted him an annuity of £2,000 for his promptness in arresting O'Conner, who recently made an assault upon her Majesty.

Another Ministerial crisis is expected in France, as a conflict between the Assembly and Government is close at hand.

Admiral J. Palode Parabe is the newly appointed Ambassador from Spain to Washington.

In a recent speech of Bismarck in the upper House of the District at Berlin, he expressed fear of the disloyal influences of the Catholic clergy, and insisted on a clause in the school inspection bill providing for the introduction of the German language in Polish schools.

Queen Victoria's private fortune is £5,000,000, and her annual income £385,000.

The Queen of England will leave for Germany on the 28th inst., and return on the 16th of April.

The Board of Directors of the French Atlantic Cable Company on the 7th inst., resolved to lay another cable to America, which will be under the management of the present Company.

Shocks of earthquake were felt in Kiel and all through central Germany on the night of the 6th.

The Medical Commission of London, Eng., found O'Conner, the assailant of the Queen, sane, but an enthusiastic Fenian. He said he used an unloaded pistol because he only wanted to frighten the Queen to sign his document.

News from Mexico represent that the rebels have retired from San Luis Potosi towards Zaca-teca. Gen. Rocha with 13,000 men is pursuing them, and they have been defeated in other places. Their Generals are quarreling with each other, and their commands are quarreled. Juarez has over $2,000,000 in the treasury.

A little girl was heard to say she was a boy, "so she could swear when she dropped her books in the mud."