The following is given as the late policeman's song: "I want to be a policeman, and at the corner stand; a star upon my bosom, a club within my hand. I'll stand and roll my eyeballs, around on every side; I'll walk into each restaurant, and take my oysters fried."

Fun.-The following advertisement appears in the Ottawa Citizen: "Notice.-My name be's Baptiste Janvin; my wife he'll leave my house, and shan't bore me; somebody he'll trust my wife on my name; dat's a loss for you."

The most gallant man we know of is one who refrained from kicking a dog that had bitten him, because it was a female dog. "Confound you!" said he; "if it wasn't for your sex I'd kick your head off!"

When the petition of Mrs. Oliver Dennet, of Portland, President of the Maine Woman Suffrage Association, and 170 other ladies, asking for woman suffrage, came up in the Maine House on Wednesday, Mr. Wilson of Thomaston proposed to refer it to the committee on change of names. This brought up David Baker, the potent chairman of the committee, who reported favorably as follows:

Yes let us meet them at the polls. Though dressed in gown and jacket; if they can stand our sordid souls. We'll try to stand their racket.

GOOD FOR EVIL.-Euclid, a disciple of Socrates, having offended his brother, the latter cried out in rage. "Let me die if I am not revenged on you some time or other." Euclid replied: "And let me die if I do not soften you by my kindness, and make you love me as well as ever."

The best farm in England is kept by a woman, and took the first prize, recently offered by the Royal Agricultural Society. It is a farm of four hundred acres, devoted to pasture, grain and stock. The soil was originally poor, but had been much improved by skillful treatment. Only four horses were kept; yet, such has been the admirable system of management, that they were sufficient for the cultivation necessary for seventy acres of wheat, the same of barley and turnips, besides some oats and beans. The produce during the year realized $15,835.

Some Michigan boys, feeling the need of some wholesome recreation, stuffed a suit of clothes with straw and buried it; killed a couple of chickens, and strewed the blood around the grave, and trampled the ground so that it gave evidence of a fearful struggle. The horrified citizens soon discovered the grave, summoned the Coroner, had a jury impaneled, dug up the body and -adjourned in a hurry.

AIR YOUR BEDS.-Some advocates for excessive neatness have the beds made up immediately after they are vacated. It is not healthy. They need to air a couple of hours. Open the windows as wide as possible, and set open the door also. Unless there is a thorough draught, there is no true ventilation of a sleeping room. The only exception to this rule is during high winds, when the door cannot safely remain open and in very wet and foggy weather.

VACILLATING MEN NOT WANTED.-Horace Mann has said, with regard to workers for reform, that "We want no men who will change like the values of our steeples, with the course of the wind." When once we have made up our minds to effort in any good cause, halting and shifting about should cease, and the whole heart be given to the prosecution of the work. Otherwise, we had far better avoid all pretensions of respect, or concern for it.

Forty Years' Experience have tested the virtues of Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, and the result is that it is the best remedy extant for pulmonary and lung diseases; embracing the whole range from a slight cold to a settled consumption. Were it not for its merits, it would long since have died, and made no sign. 23-5.
