

ABOUT WOOL.—Since it has become more probable that the tariff on wool and woolsens will not be changed at the present session of Congress...

Table listing wool prices for various regions: Ohio and Pennsylvania, Michigan, and Other Western. Columns include type (e.g., Picklock, Choice XX) and price.

In Memoriam. With a death has gently shifted our fraternal circle and suddenly and unexpectedly called from labor here below...

Resolved, That the thanks of this Lodge are most cordially extended to the officers and members of Blue Mountain Lodge No. 13, and Walla Walla Lodge No. 7...

Resolved, That these resolutions be spread upon the Journal of the Lodge, and copies furnished the Albany Register and the Walla Walla Courier...

CONDENSED NEWS.—Pittsburgh employs 80,000 operatives. It costs $20,000 a year to keep a yacht. Yale students can now board at hotels...

It is said that no epidemic, not even the cholera, has, within half a century, been as general or fatal in Philadelphia as the small pox...

Sir Richard Wallace has given 7,000 francs towards the establishment of soup-kitchens for the poor of Paris.

Seven young women in Iowa have started a manufactory of bed-quilts.

More than five hundred orphans are now provided for liberally by the Girard (Philadelphia) bequest.

HUMOROUS.

The best time to cut corn—When it aches. An exchange says there was once a lady who kissed a cow...

What requires more philosophy than taking things as they come? Parting with things as they go.

A gentleman met another on the street, who was ill of consumption, and accosted him thus: "Ah, my friend, you walk slow?"

A lady once entered a stage coach with so much powder on her face that she blew up the driver.

A traveler stopped at a cabaret in France, where the host had two sorts of wine, which he called "first table" and "common table."

A soldier, who was an inveterate joker and punster, having had his nose, left cheek, and a portion of his chin carried away by a shot...

"Did he bring those chickens to your house in a secret way?" queried defendant's attorney.

A Western editor writing on church matters says: "No velvet cushions in our pews; we don't go in for style."

A young man who attended a lecture on the subject, "Are we better than our fathers?" started home saying "I'm going to get the best of mine somehow, any way."

Two Glenn's Falls girls, having but one lover between them, drowned themselves in a graceful but determined manner.

Old maids should always go to the theatre before the rise of the curtain, because then there is a chance of an overture.

An agricultural exchange, who has evidently got at the feet of Greeley, remarks: "A little attention to the boys now, giving them milk punch, water shells, red pepper and other stimulating compounds, will set them to laying like everything."

Fool Mother—"John, do look at that child; it has your watch in its mouth and will swallow it!" John (who is a bachelor brother-in-law and very fond of babies)—"Oh, don't be the least alarmed. I've got hold of the chain. It can't go far." (Tableau.)

Sammy was reading the Bible very attentively when his father came into the room and asked him what he had found that was so interesting.

An illiterate farmer, wishing to enter some animals at an agricultural exhibition, wrote to the Secretary as follows: "Also, enter me for the best fiddle; I am sure of taking the premium."

"Putty-eyed monster," is what appeared in the paper of a Tennessee editor who wrote with respect, "pretty aged minister."

One day the surgeon came to the side of an acute patient in a military hospital, and anxiously inquired how he felt.

Samuel Jackson, President of the University of Pennsylvania, died at his residence on the morning of the 5th, aged eighty-five years.

Half fare arrangements have been made with nearly all the railroads, for attending the Cincinnati Convention.

The Senate appropriations for the California Indian services are $85,000, $10,000 being for the Mission Indians.

Constantinople imports matches from America.

Subscribe for the REGISTER.

DRUGS, ETC.

"They Who Have Nothing for Sale are Farthest from Market"

A. CAROTHERS & CO., WHO KNOW THIS TO BE TRUE.

Are now keeping, and also constantly receiving additions to, The Largest Stock of Goods

USUAL TO THEIR TRADE ABOVE PORTLAND,

And AT SUCH PRICES That

Purchasers Shall be Satisfied.

Besides a Large Stock of DRUGS, CHEMICALS,

PATENT MEDICINES, Paints, Dye Stuffs, and Oils,

They keep Yankee Notions, Confectionery

Finest Tobacco & Cigars WOSTENHOLM'S CUTLER

SPICES, PERFUMERY, (All kinds), TOILET SOAP,

AND Everything

USUALLY OBTAINED IN A STRICTLY

First Class DRUG ESTABLISHMENT.

NO ARTICLE SOLD But what is

Guaranteed To Be JUST AS REPRESENTED,

And Must be Good.

Arctic Soda A. CAROTHERS & CO.

OUR TEMPERANCE COLUMN.

A Remarkable Temperance Lecture. BY ELIZABETH HEYWOOD.

The Rev. Thomas Bainbridge, a pious and useful Methodist preacher of former times, and also a very interesting lecturer on temperance...

"I'll attend to him!" said the landlord in a sure tone. "Then do so at once!" said Mr. B. persistently.

"I will certainly attend to him!" said the landlord. Does Mr. Bainbridge think me a fool?"

Quite satisfied that he would do what was necessary for the poor stupefied victim of his odious traffic, Mr. B. rode on quickly to his appointment.

The startled group rose to their feet, but refused to follow, seeming rooted to the spot by the horror-stricken look and grieved tones of the faithful minister.

"I never forgot that awful lecture in the snow. It ran in my ears till I was nearly distracted; for I felt as if the mercy of God were clean gone from me."

DEAR SIR: I have opened apartments, fitted up with all the enticements of luxury, for the sale of rum, brandy, gin, wine, beer, and all their compounds.

Bring me the father and the mother, and I will plant discord between them, and make them a curse and a reproach to their children.

Bring me the mechanic or the laborer, and his own money, the hard-earned fruits of his toil, shall be made to bring poverty, vice, and ignorance to his once happy home.

Bring me the professed follower of Christ, and I will blight and wither every devotional feeling of his heart. I will corrupt the ministers of religion, and defile the purity of the church.

Bring me, above all, the moral, respectable man. If possible, bring the moderate temperance man; though he may not drink, yet his presence will countenance the pretenses under which our business must be transacted.

FURNITURE.

C. MEALEY, DEALER IN And MANUFACTURER Of FURNITURE

And Cabinet Ware, BEDDING, Etc., Corner of First and Broadalbin Sts., ALBANY, OR.

Particular ATTENTION PAID TO ORDERS OF ALL KINDS IN HIS LINE.

JUST RECEIVED FROM S. F. AND THE EAST, THE LARGEST LOT

or New and Elegant FURNITURE, EVER BROUGHT TO ALBANY!

Come and See It!

MILLINERY, DRESS MAKING.

MILLINERY, DRESS MAKING, LADIES' AND CHILDREN'S FURNISHING HOUSE!

THE UNDERSIGNED HAS OPENED A new stock of millinery goods, trimmings, ribbons, and children's furnishing goods...

Dress Making Department. I guarantee entire satisfaction. Charges Reasonable.

SPECIALTIES: Clothing—Always on hand, ladies' and children's ready-made under clothing, coats, suits, aprons, etc.

Miscellaneous—Lithines and finishing of all grades and qualities, a full assortment of JACONETS, MUSLINS, EMBROIDERIES, LACE, TRIMMINGS, AND ALL OTHER VARIETIES OF GLOVES, HOSE, ETC.

THE GATE IS SO CONSTRUCTED That when the vehicle approaches it the wheels on one side pass over a lever which is connected to the axle by a rod...

No Getting Out of Your Vehicle! No Raising of Latches Nor Pulling of Strings.

THE "LAZY MAN'S GATE," And a "Dead Open and Shut."

THOMAS J. SAFFORD, Having purchased the Right for Linn Co., Oregon,

THE OLD STOVE DEPOT. JOHN BRIGGS, Dealer in

RANGES. COOK, PARLOR AND BOX, STOVES!

FRONT STREET, ALBANY. Dec. 5, 1861. IARD AND HAMB, a splendid lot commencing at 127, by 374 DuRoi