

Albany Register.

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

ENTERTAINMENT.—The Good Templars of this city will give an entertainment at their hall in this city, on Tuesday evening of next week.

NOTE.—By examining the stocks in Albany, we find the finest and most select stock of dry goods, clothing, boots, shoes and gents' goods at Kline & Co's.

RELIGIOUS.—The Congregational Church will be reopened for the usual services on Sunday next.

LETTERS.—Dr. Bourne, of San Francisco, lectured at the Court House, on Monday and Tuesday evenings on the subject of health.

PARAGRAPHS.—Roads dry but awful rough—will be smoother. Grass plentiful and stock lively through the valley—prospects for good feed.

There is more or less bustle among the milliners and dress-makers. Striped clothes and plug hats are the latest things out.

Plain white talk, veils over straw bonnets, are what's the matter with Hannah.

A. C. Layton is putting up a building on the corner of Broadalbin and First streets, to be used as a grocery store.

Mart V. Brown acted as Chaplain to a Chinese funeral, while in Portland last week, says the Dispatch. Glad to hear of brother Mart's promotion.

Caterpillars are doing much damage to orchards in this vicinity. Our usual supply of fruit will be considerably diminished by them. It is feared.

Hacks and carriages will be running through the day, on Saturday, from the city to the Fair grounds, so that those who wish to ride can do so, and return at their leisure.

That foot soda at A. Carothers & Co's is rollicking these warm days. Our schools are all well attended, and you see no little little roosters on the streets crowling at devils during school hours.

Fish don't bite worth a cent these days—they ain't on it. Boswell Alsop Whitfield Cudiff, otherwise Shortie, Democratic Candidate for Coroner of Linn county, is badly demoralized—McLure is on his track.

Vegetables of all kinds scarce in this market—expect an invoice from California on the next steamer. Willamette river is running very light, owing to the long dry spell—haven't had any rain for four days!

Eggs twenty-five cents; butter twenty-five cents; two glasses of soda twenty-five cents.

It is said that poor Woodhull died from excess of blood! From present appearance the city will be deserted to-morrow—everybody gone to the Edgemoor picnic.

Congregational church opens to-morrow for regular religious exercises. Don't forget the Good Templars' Festival on Tuesday night. A rich treat is offered.

The most accommodating institution in the city is A. N. Arnold's Express—it's always ready and willing. These warm days our wool don't disintegrate so fast as formerly. Customs.

Should Judge Craver's health allow, it is expected that he will take the stump for Democracy, while Mr. M. C. George will expound Republican principles at the next places in this county, prior to the third day of June. Streets are getting dusty—bring on the hose.

New good—at J. M. Beech's store—showy and attractive dress goods, clothing, crockery, groceries, etc. Go and see.

The Congregational church has been receiving a general overhauling and painting, and looks decidedly improved thereby.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.—FURN OF LIFE.—Armed with this great medicine, the fiery ordeal is passed through and the sufferer once more restored to the possession of undiminished health.

It is asserted in ecclesiastical circles at Rome that it is the intention of the Pope to shortly summon the Ecumenical Council to reconvene in that city for the purpose of deciding the question of the transfer of the Papal seat.

An Irish recruit was asked by his officer: "What's your height?" To which Pat replied: "The man that measured me told me it was five-foot ten, or ten-foot five, I am not exactly sure which."

It was the editor of the Andrew Pickens who said that his pig had no ear marks except a short tail.

The Boston Commonwealth sympathized that a political party was never raised on the basis of personal dislikes and disappointments.

Mr. Stephen Case, who recently died in Jackson county, Michigan, was 101 years, 11 months and 10 days old—the oldest man in the county of Jackson.

It is stated that the merchants at Lone Pine, Cal., are quarreling among themselves as to the disposition of the funds sent for the relief of the sufferers.

A little ten year old girl in Portland, last Saturday, returned a muff, which she had stolen six weeks before, to its owner, stating, as a reason, that "it made her feel so bad that she had to bring it back."

The decision of the Supreme Court of the United States that the manner of drawing petit jurors in Utah since September 20, 1870, was illegal, resulted in the releasing of four hundred prisoners, twenty-four of whom were incarcerated for murder.

It is stated that the wealth of San Francisco is increasing through the incorporation of new mining companies at the rate of $13,000,000 daily.

The Supreme Court of Florida has decided that Acting Governor Day is the legal Executive, and that ex-Governor Reed must stand by the decision of the Court whenever it is invoked.

The educational report of Commissioner Eaton states that American teachers can be found in almost every country on the globe, including China and Japan.

Work on the new Methodist church at Salem has suspended. Mutton sheep are $4 per head in Yamhill county.

Travel on the West Side railroad has increased of late. The Pennsylvania railroad controls twenty-three others.

A number of distinguished German medical surgeons have come to the conclusion that in cases of decapitation the head retains consciousness for several hours after leaving the trunk, and suffers intense torment during that time.

TAKEN DOWN.—The Territorial Enterprise thus relates how the klucks were taken out of a highly-connected young man of that city: "A few days since a number of wags in this city informed a young man who is very good-looking—and has the misfortune to have found it out—that a certain young lady had been greatly smitten by his manly beauty."

Old lady to her niece: "Good gracious, Matilda, but it's cold. My teeth are actually chattering." Loving niece: "Well, don't let them chatter too much, or they may tell where you bought 'em."

An intelligent German, on his first visit to an American church, had a contribution box with a hole in the top presented to him, and whispered to the collector: "I don't got mein babers, but can't vote."

The private fortune of Queen Victoria is $200,000,000.

A Kentucky etomologist has kept two vigorous musketoes under an inverted tumbler for six months without food, and they remain in a healthy condition.

Mr. Stephen Case, who recently died in Jackson county, Michigan, was 101 years, 11 months and 10 days old—the oldest man in the county of Jackson.

Mr. Stephen Case, who recently died in Jackson county, Michigan, was 101 years, 11 months and 10 days old—the oldest man in the county of Jackson.

Subscribe for the Register.

A dispatch to St. Louis from Muskegee, Indian Territory, says a man was tried for murder at Sal-aquash and acquitted, whereupon a relative of the murdered man shot the defendant dead and then the Judge on the bench.

Gen. Walker, Superintendent of the Census, has issued the Statistics of Wealth, Taxation and Public Indebtedness, forming part of the Census of 1870.

Professor Morse leaves an estate of half a million, all bequeathed to his wife, except one-eighth to pay his indebtedness.

In the Massachusetts House, recently, a bill to take from cities and towns the right to authorize the sale of malt liquors was rejected.

Consul General Sickles has written a letter to the New York World demanding retraction or apology for certain offensive criticisms, or a libel suit.

A shock of earthquake was felt at Memphis, Tenn., on the morning of the 20th, continuing two minutes and creating some alarm.

A large freight train of ox-wagons reached Helena on the 10th of April which had been seven months on the way from Coriane, a distance of 427 miles.

The Governor has vetoed the New York City charter. It is thought the House will sustain the veto.

Thirty-nine dogs were killed in Portland during the month of April by the Poundmaster.

The Grand Army of the Republic will celebrate Memorial Day in Portland, May 30th.

John Kenting, of Redensburg, Montana, had his leg smashed by being thrown from his carriage.

An exchange says there was once a lady who kissed a cow. "Pshaw! that's nothing. There are lots of young ladies round here who kiss calves."

A Chicago lady dropped one of her eye-brows in the church pew, and dreadfully frightened a young man sitting next to her.

A man having a spite at a sausage-maker, rushed into his shop when crowded with customers, threw a large dead cat upon the counter, and said: "That makes nineteen! We'll settle when you're not so busy!"

A Western publisher lately gave notice that he intended to spend fifty dollars for "a new head" for his paper.

The Great Falls Journal hears of one of the gentlemen of that town who gave up tobacco on New Year's Day, chewed gum for two weeks, candy for a month, and now fights the world, the flesh and a quill toothpick.

Seth Green has sent a lot of speckled trout's eggs West, believers in Geese are preparing to set them under hens.

A Philadelphia lady of three score and ten on receiving an offer of marriage superciliously referred the octogenarian who made the offer to her father, and that gentleman, aged 90, graciously gave his consent and danced at the wedding.

A dismal modern prophet informs the public that a period of about forty-two years, during which the slain of the Lord shall cover the earth in hundreds of millions, will commence on the 10th day of next November.

A Kentucky etomologist has kept two vigorous musketoes under an inverted tumbler for six months without food, and they remain in a healthy condition.

Mr. Stephen Case, who recently died in Jackson county, Michigan, was 101 years, 11 months and 10 days old—the oldest man in the county of Jackson.

FURNITURE. DRUGS, ETC. MILLINERY, DRESS MAKING. C. MEALEY, DEALER IN FURNITURE. And MANUFACTURER Of FURNITURE. And Cabinet Ware, BEDDING, Etc., Corner of First and Broadalbin Sts., ALBANY, OR. Particular ATTENTION PAID TO ORDERS OF ALL KINDS IN HIS LINE. JUST RECEIVED FROM S. F. AND THE EAST, THE LARGEST LOT of New and Elegant FURNITURE, EVER BROUGHT TO ALBANY! Come and See it!

DRUGS, ETC. A. CAROTHERS & CO., WHO KNOW THIS TO BE TRUE, Are now keeping, and also constantly receiving additions to, The Largest Stock of Goods USUAL TO THEIR TRADE ABOVE PORTLAND, AT SUCH PRICES That Purchasers Shall be Satisfied. Besides a Large Stock of DRUGS, CHEMICALS, PATENT MEDICINES, Paints, Eye Stuffs, and Oils, They keep Yankee Notions, Confectionery, Finest Tobacco & Cigars, WESTENHOLM'S CULLER SPICES, PERFUMERY, TOILET SOAP, Everything USUALLY OBTAINED IN A STRICTLY First Class DRUG ESTABLISHMENT. NO ARTICLE SOLD But what is Guaranteed To Be JUST AS REPRESENTED, And Must be Good. Arctic Soda. A. CAROTHERS & CO.

MILLINERY, DRESS MAKING, LADIES' AND CHILDREN'S FURNISHING HOUSE! THE UNDERSIGNED HAS OPENED A new stock of millinery goods, trimmings, ladies' and children's furnishings, goods of all kinds, of the latest and most fashionable styles, which she offers to the ladies of Albany and surrounding country at the lowest rates. Dress Making Department. I guarantee entire satisfaction. Charges liberal. SPECIALTIES: Clothing. Always on hand, ladies' and children's ready-made under clothing, cloaks, suits, aprons, etc. Dress Trimmings. An extensive variety of silk, satin, cotton and woolen dress trimmings, always in store. Clothing. Heavy-weather cashmere and waterproof cloth, of the best quality. Furs. Etc. Ladies' and children's complete sets of furs and sweaters, of latest styles. Childrens. Latest styles constantly on hand at low figures. Millineries. Findings and findings of all grades and qualities, a full assortment. JACONETS, MUSLINS, TAMBOURINES, HATER LINEN, ETC. AND ALL OTHER SORTS OF GLOVES, HOSIERY, ETC. My department better by five-sixths than in style and quality of work and price. Ask a share of public patronage. Call at store. Opposite A. Carothers & Co., First street, Albany, Oregon. MUST BE OGDEN. AT SUCH PRICES PATENT GATE, ETC. Self-Opening and Self-Closing GATE. PATENTED BY JOHN BRIGGS, June 4, 1867. THE GATE IS SO CONSTRUCTED THAT when the vehicle approaches it, the wheels of the carriage raise a lever which is connected to the gate, lifting it as it passes over it, so that you and the carriage pass over it without any effort, the gate being raised by the wheels of the carriage, so that you and the carriage pass over it without any effort. No Getting Out of Your Vehicle! No Raising of Latches Nor Pulling of Strings. Except the "whistles" of your team. It is often said: "THE LAZY MAN'S GATE." And a "Dead Open and Shut." This gate is made of the construction, the best material used in iron, and is not likely to get out of order. If a team, heavy cart or wagon, all heavy loads, with three heavy bars of wood and one-fourth inch wire, which is raised at the top, the lower end has its own bottom bar, which is the style of a heavy made gate. The gates are now in use in several of the counties of Oregon, and plenty of testimonials can be given. THOMAS J. SAFFORD, Having just received the Right for Linn Co., Oregon. Has now on hand, and will manufacture the above described gate. Whenever it has been used it has received the highest testimonials, as the large number of certificates from prominent farmers in all parts of the country, now in my hands, will testify. CARRIAGES AND WAGONS, Of All Descriptions, On hand and manufactured to order. Blacksmithing and Repairing. Have to order at lowest reasonable rates. Shop foot of Perry street, opposite the Beach, Monmouth & Co's. dooring mill. THOMAS J. SAFFORD, Albany, Oct. 29, 1874. STOVES AND TINWARE. THE OLD STOVE DEPOT. JOHN BRIGGS, Dealer in RANGES. COOK, PARLOR AND BOX STOVES! Of the best patterns. ALSO: TIN, SHEET IRON AND COPPER WARE. And the usual assortment of furnishing goods to be obtained in a tin store. Repairs neatly and promptly executed, on reasonable terms. Short reckonings make long friends. FRONT STREET, ALBANY. Dec. 5, 1884.