MARRIAGE.—The reception of three newly printed cards, tied with white satin ribbon, inform us of the marriage of Mr. Thomas M. Gale and Miss Clara A. Cook, of Eugene City.

We are certain of the opinion that Thomas M. never did a more praiseworthy action, and in common with their numerous friends we wish Mr. and Mrs. Gale a pleasant and prosperous voyage through life, and hope that any little gales that may chance to cross their line of life, may only add strength to the love and duty they owe each to the other.

GOLD DISCOVERIES.—A day or two since Mr. Jas. L. Cowan, of Lebanon, while in this city exhibited specimens of gold taken from new gold discoveries on the headwaters of the Santiam. These diggings are some forty miles from Lebanon, and are termed "bank diggings," and are very deep. It is said that parties making the discovery have kept the matter as quiet as possible, while they put in the time in developing and testing their worth. They claim to have averaged $4 or $5 per day with a rocker, and that the dirt gets better as they approach bedrock. We hope that this favorable report may prove even less than the reality, and that the new diggings may prove extensive and paying. We intend to await further developments before going to the front, however.

SUNDAY SCHOOL PICNIC.—There will be a Sunday School Picnic three miles north of Halsey, on the 18th of May next, embracing the Harrisburg, Halsey and Brownsville Sunday Schools. We extend to all lovers of the Sunday School cause a cordial invitation to meet with us, as it will be a free picnic. We expect speeches from Dr. S. H. Marsh, of Pacific University, Forest Grove, Prof. Rodgers, of Salem, and Rev. Mr. Shaw, of Albany. Let all come with their baskets full, their hearts light, and we will have a pleasant time.

S. K. RAYMOND, E. W. DIXON, A. E. ELLIS, Supts. of Schools.

PARADE AND PICNIC.—The grand May Festival and Picnic to be given by Albany English Co., No. 1, at the Fair Grounds one mile from this city, takes place to-morrow, and doubtless will be an occasion of general hilarity among the old as well as the young of the city. Following is the badge to be worn by the different departments of the Albany public schools, on the occasion: Prof. Folia's pupils wear red; Miss Gird's class; Miss Newman's, green; Mrs. Irving's, pink. Girls to wear 3/4 inches round the waist, and the boys' boys on the left lapel of the coat.

MACHINES FOR THE HARVEST.—We call attention to the new double-column advertisement in this issue of the REGISTER of Messrs. C. B. Comstock & Co. These gentlemen have on hand for the coming harvest the Wood Reaping and Mowing machines, reputed the very best machine now offered to the public. They are also agents for Haines' Headers, as improved by Walter A. Wood last year. Farmers in casting about for the best labor-saving machinery, should give these gentlemen a call, at their warehouse, foot of Ellsworth street.

BLAIN, YOUNG & CO.—Seeing the necessity of keeping up a full line of new goods to satisfy the demand, would call special notice to their excellent stock of clothing, boots and shoes, hats, latest style of dress goods. Also, a general assortment of dress goods, notions, groceries, hardware and crockery, selected especially for this market. They have got them to sell, and they would respectfully ask buyers to give them a call.

SINGER SEWING MACHINES.—S. H. Claughton, Esq., is agent for the sale of the Singer Sewing machine in Linn county, as will be seen by reference to an advertisement elsewhere in this issue. This machine has a reputation equal, if not superior, to any machine in the world, and parties wishing to purchase a machine should examine the Singer by all means. They can be seen in this city at the drug store of A. Crothers & Co., First street.

SPEAKING.—Messrs. Wilson and Burnett speak at Corvallis to-morrow at one o'clock P. M.; at Newport on Monday, May 6th; Dallas, Wednesday, May 8th; McMinnville, Thursday, May 9th, and at Hillsboro, Saturday, May 11th. At Newport the speaking will commence at 11 o'clock A. M.; at the other places at 1 o'clock P. M.

MATCH GAME OF CROQUET.—A great feature at the picnic on the Fairgrounds to-morrow, will be a double match game of croquet, in which eight gentlemen and eight ladies will exhibit their proficiency and skill in this popular game. The game will open about one o'clock P. M., and of course everybody will want to see it.

ARCTIC SODA.—Messrs. A. Crothers & Co. have their splendid soda fountain in full operation, and will take pleasure in waiting on all who wish a glass of this delicious beverage. They have procured the necessary machinery, and next week will commence putting up soda in bottles, when they can supply families and dealers with soda of the best quality in any quantity desired.

COMPLIMENTARY.—We have been favored with complimentary tickets to the Good Templar's entertainment on Tuesday evening next. To be certainly we'll go.

THE METHODIST CONCERT.—The concert in the M. E. Church last Friday evening, under the supervision of the chorister of the Sunday School, Mr. Clement, was not very largely patronized, though an average audience was present. The exercises consisted of solos, duets, quartets, recitations, declamations and dialogues. Miss Alice Griffin presided at the piano, and performed her part with usual grace and ability. The opening piece, a solo, entitled, "Remember the Poor," was well sung. A recitation, entitled, "A receipt about voices," by Emma Clue, had been committed with care, and was fairly spoken. A duette, "The Messenger Bird," was excellent in execution, though the words were not distinguishable. A dialogue, subject, "A New Scholar," had a good moral, and the parts were very well sustained. Duette, "The Lark and Watch," was gooder than good—fine. A declamation, by Nel Gird, subject, "set in Gold," was an excellent piece, clearly and earnestly spoken. A solo, duette and chorus, entitled "Golden Land," was discussed. "The child's Pleading," recitation, by Amy Parker, was spoken with care, but too low. A solo and chorus, "The Little Old Log Cabin in the Lane," was very nice. A duette, Griffin sang the leading part charmingly. Duette, "Honey Dale Gospel," was well executed in every character—sorry we did not get the names of the performers. Duette, "Far Away," was good. A recitation, entitled, "Open the Shutters and Let in the Sun," gave excellent satisfaction. We failed to get the name of the speaker. "All at Home"—parade—was a solo sung; also a solo by Annie Griffin, entitled, "My Boy Across the Sea." The entertainment closed by an original address by Dea McCord, subject, "Little Girl's Address." Dea deserves praise for the excellent manner in which she acquitted herself in this.

PERSONAL.—Hon. J. C. Cartwright, ex-Lieut. States District Attorney, was in the city on Monday. He is now a resident of Klamath, W. T. Boston, Saltmarsh, Esq., arrived home on Tuesday from a trip to Jackson county. Reports money rather tight in Southern Oregon. Jas. Ellis has returned to his home in Ochoco valley. Messrs. Jas. Tins and W. H. McCulloch have gone to the country on a trading expedition. We wish them success upon success.

W. R. McCord and family start for their new home in Seattle, W. T., in a few days. He is a good boy, and we are sorry to part with him. Kind fortune attend him.

Frank Radford threw himself in sight on Wednesday. He is selling goods of goods fearfully cheap out into Lebanon.

M. Pearson is going to Portland—probably to go into business there.

A Judge Crauer is reported slowly convalescing, but still very weak and nervous. It will be some time before he will be able to attend to business.

S. A. Clarke, Esq., was in town on Monday. Looks better than for years.

F. A. Colley, agent for A. L. Bancroft & Co., called on us Wednesday.

WOOD'S HOUSEHOLD MAGAZINE.—Under the editorial management of Gail Hamilton, has more than doubled its subscription list during the past four months. The May number contains: "Migration, Colonization, Homes," by Horace Greeley; "Miss Hannah Adams," by James Parton; "Home-Field Discoveries," by Gail Hamilton; "Lavender Anderson," by Thomas K. Beecher; "Longevity," by Dr. Dr. Lewis; "Reminiscences of Rev. Dr. Bethune," by A. A. Willis, D. D., etc. Every woman should read Gail Hamilton's editorial, in which she says: "It will never do to trust men with a liberty which they will abuse. The best of them, men who may be respectable and even distinguished as jurists, doctors, merchants, mechanics, are, in domestic matters, but children of a larger growth. They must be trained. They may be allowed liberty, but they must not be allowed to take it without permission." The Household is a first-class original Magazine, published at one dollar a year, by S. S. Wood & Co., Newburg, N. Y. A specimen copy mailed free to any address.

TEACHERS AND PARENTS.—Should provide their children with the School Festival, a quarterly magazine devoted to new matter and exercises for school exhibitions and public days. It is a live, fresh thing, that has long been needed by all teachers and pupils, and is conducted by the same Mr. Sewell who founded and so long edited the Little Corporal, assisted by Mrs. Shale and other able writers. The April No. has just reached us, containing a beautiful "May Queen" coronation exercise and many other choicest things. Write for it to the publisher, Alfred L. Sewell, Chicago, Ill. Price seventy-five cents a year; single or sample copy, twenty cts. Premiums to clubs.

RECEIVED.—A charming piece of poetry was received last week—undoubtedly original—but by some mishap it has like the Dutchman's chickens, turned up missing just as we want it. Better luck next time.

BACKED SQUARE OUT.—Hon. John R. McClure visited the city on Monday, for the express purpose of making arrangements with his Democratic opponent for the Governorship, Mr. B. A. W. Cundiff, for canvassing the county during the present month. The Hon. John R. called on Shortie—Cundiff, we mean—and proposed to let him set his own time and place when he would discuss county matters—particularly the ten thousand dollar bonded jail controversy—but Shortie—Cundiff wasn't on it; said he didn't want to be shackled; the office didn't pay; that this matter of the ten thousand dollar brick-brouched county jail had already cost him more trouble than it come to—it had made a skating rink on the top of his head, etc., etc., simply backing square out of the canvass, knowing that he could not go before the people of this county with his record and the record of the Democratic county officials, with the Hon. John R. to show him and then up in their true colors, without incurring disastrous and overwhelming defeat. Democracy trot out its best stumps in Linn county, in the hope that the old lamontine and haberdash in the absence of all principle will again win for them a victory; but these towers of strength go back on their first love, and the poor old rotting carcass is left to stink and stink, and stink and stink, like a rotten mackerel in the sun, with little so poor as to do it every once in a while. How have the mighty fallen! Cundiff is the motto of Hon. John R. McClure, and if Mr. Cundiff or any of the lesser lights on the Democratic county ticket will not meet him in debate, he will proceed to canvass alone, showing up the vast corruption of the Democratic party in this county in a light which will make it tremble in its shoes. If Cundiff don't come out and make the canvass, we shall be compelled to withdraw him.

HANDSOME SPAN.—Mr. Wm. Gird, of this city, drives a handsome span of high-gopping bays—Rishmen stock. They make a nice showy carriage team, and as they are for sale, here's a chance for somebody to get a pair of horses they will be proud to hold the reins over. G'lang.
