SOMETHING NEW.

THE

WALTER A. WOOD

Mowing & Reaping Machines,

FOR

THE COMING HARVEST.

C. B. COMSTOCK & CO., SPRINGVILLE & ALBANY, OREGON, Sole Agents for Oregon & Washington Territory.

W. S. NEWBURY, Traveling & General Agent, ALBANY, OREGON.

THESE JUSTLY POPULAR MACHINES ARE NOW IN GENERAL use in Russia, Prussia, Austria, Bavaria, France, Spain, England, and North and South America, in fact throughout the whole civilized world, and have been awarded the FIRST PREMIUMS at every fair, both in Europe and America, since the Worlds Fair at Paris in 1867, since which time many valuable improvements have been made.

The New One & Two-Horse Double-Geared Jointed Flexible Bar Mowers, never clog. They are the WONDER OF THE AGE for Strength, Beauty, Facility and LIGHTNESS OF DRAFT.

THE SELF-RAKING REAPER, with Mowing Attachment, is the most complete and desirable Reaper, either in Europe or America, and is a COMPLETE REAPER and a COMPLETE MOWER, being two separate machines.

WE CLAIM

FOR THE WOOD'S MACHINES

That they are the LIGHTEST TRACT, the QUICKEST and BEST MOTION, as well as the MOST DURABLE. That they leave the BEHINDS IN THE BEST SHAPE, and are the EASIEST HANDLED of any Mowing and Reaping Machine either in Europe or America.

We warrant the Wood's Machines to be as Represented.

A full assortment of EXTRAS constantly kept at all our Agencies.

WE ALSO HAVE THE AGENCY OF THE

HAINES' HEADERS,

with the WOOD IMPROVEMENT, which renders it one of the BEST HEADERS extant. If you buy a Header, be sure you get the HAINES with Woods' Late Improvements, as they were only added in 1871.

PACIFIC COAST NEWS.

Crops in Benton county are reported in a splendid condition.

Eighty thousand hop poles were lately shipped from Olympia to San Francisco.

Klickitat Postoffice has been changed to Goldenale, and Wm. Miller appointed Postmaster.

The camp-meeting for the Lebanon and Seio charge will be held on the Lebanon camp-ground, commencing June 13th.

A Montana town has a band of Vigilantes who propose to give all rogues a taste of lynch law. Horse thieves will be made a specialty.

Mr. A. Olinger, living five miles south of Salem, was very severely injured by the falling of a log which he was loading upon his wagon last week.

A doctor named Dean has been convicted at Walla Walla of selling liquor to Indians and sentenced to the penitentiary for one year.

One-third of the recent locations of swamp lands in Lane county are lands settled upon and improved by homestead and pre-emption claimants.

The Good Templars of Dallas and surrounding towns have agreed to celebrate the 4th of July, at the Dixie camp ground.

Rev. G. H. Hines has resigned the pastorate of the Oregon City M. E. Church, in consequence of ill health.

M. S. Hart convicted of fraud, at Portland, moves for a new trial.

The Willow Creek mines are reported as paying well. Several thousand men are at work.

Harrison, Paulk & Co., are now working their coal mine, on North Umpqua, somewhat extensively. The coal is of an excellent quality.

Douglas county had a colts' revolver sensation last week, in which Zeke Smith figured conspicuously. He afterwards figured to the tune of $50 and costs, before a justice of the peace.

The Roseburg Plaindealer says: The sound of the hammer and saw is now heard in every quarter of the town. Several new buildings are being erected.

The Vancouver Register says: "We have just learned that Gen. T. J. McKinney, has been superceded as Superintendent of Indian Affairs in the Territory, and that R. H. Milroy has been appointed to the place."

The following business was transacted at the Land Office in Vancouver during the month of May. Original homestead entries, 1,720 acres; final homesteads, 320 acres; pre-emption, 1,800 acres; donation certificates, 800 acres; land sold at private entry, 550 acres.

The protection of the Arizona settlers from Indian aggression costs annually nearly seven hundred dollars a head for every resident in that terrified Territory. The question is whether it wouldn't be cheaper in the long run, as well as pleasanter for all parties concerned, to remove the white settlers somewhere else, and allow them a small income on condition of their staying away from Arizona.

We learn that Rev. Mr. Hoberg of the M. E. Church, member of the Conference Camp Ground Committee, has consummated arrangements with Mr. Holladay in respect to a Conference Camp Ground at Canby, Clackamas county. Mr. Holladay has donated a large tract of land to this purpose on the most satisfactory terms. The situation is a delightful one, and the liberality of Mr. H. in this matter is notably worthy.

The Salem Mercury says: A private dispatch received in Salem from Hon. A. B. Meacham, contains the sad news of the death of his brother, Mr. Harvey Meacham. The dispatch states that Mr. M. was killed by a falling tree at Lee's Encampment, in Blue Mountains, May 29th. No further particulars have been learned.

A Detroit man turned up in Salt Lake City the other day, inquiring about mining stock in which he invested years ago, and found to his surprise, that it was worth about two million dollars.

A recently discovered silver ledge on Goose Lake yields ore that assays $65 per ton.

Robert H. Milroy of Indiana has been appointed Superintendent of Indian Affairs of Washington Territory.

Portland has a live seal.

On Wednesday of last week, a column of smoke was seen to rise from the summit of Mount Hood, says the Oregonian.

"Wrestling Joe," is going back to Missouri.

From the Oregonian we clip the following: "The iron work for the light house tower soon to be erected at Cape Foulweather is all completed. This work was turned out at the Oregon Iron Works in this city. It includes not only the iron used about the base of the tower—the platform, brackets, braces and railings—but also the iron stairway reaching from the ground to within a few feet of the top, where the revolving lantern is to be placed. This flight of stairs, on a direct line is about 81 feet in length, and winds spirally from one side of the inside wall to the other. There are five sections of the stairs, four of which complete a half circle. The workmanship displayed in the manner in which each separate piece of casting is formed and put together will compare with any work of the kind we have seen on the coast. All this iron work is now ready for shipment. The entire cost of the work, as it now stands, is $9,722."

Small pox has disappeared from the Siletz Indian Reservation.

Elk meat at Baker City sells for ten and twelve cents per pound.

Lane county has 2,877 children between four and twenty years of age.

Union county has 1,046 children.

The County Clerk of Marion county issued fifteen marriage licenses in the month of July.

Indians are proving about Oregon City and the Mayer don't like it.

O. A. Brown has been collecting the Indians from Eugene. City who belong to the Siletz reservation.

It is thought that Yamhill will be reached this summer by the west side railroad.

On Friday of last week, Willie Noble, youngest son of Orin Noble of Lane county, about nine years old, in attempting to get over a fence with his gun, discharged its contents into his head, killing him instantly. He was in sight of his mother at the time.

Delegate Garfield is reported dangerously ill at Washington City.

The Columbia at Vancouver is seventeen feet above low water mark.

Two Chinamen collided with knives on Eagle Creek a few days ago. One of them has quit mining. His friends "smak a shaft" and put him in it.

Oats were 60 cents a bushel and hay $15 a ton in Salem last week.

From the Salem Statesman we learn that a special train to carry Attorney General Williams to Aurora from Portland, being off of time, in its progress ran into a hand car standing on the track, belonging to some section hands, tossing it completely over the smoke stack. This circumstance did not slacken the speed of the train a particle.

Small pox is reported in Portland.

A Roseburg Butterfly was caught trying to carry off a man's overcoat, and was jugged for it, last week.

Zeke Smith, of Myrtle Creek, was recently fined fifty dollars and costs, for striking Hans Weaver over the head with a revolver, says Roseburg Plaindealer.

The Republican says a deer caused considerable excitement in Dallas on last Friday by running through the streets.

A youth at Vancouver was fined $10 and bound over to keep the peace for one year, the other day, because he gave his old father a thrashing.

From the Oregonian we learn that Peter Roberts, son of Mr. A. Roberts, clothier, of Portland, while going with three others in a sail boat to Milwaukee, last Sunday morning, was capsized and drowned. His comrades were rescued.

The Idaho World of May 23d says: "A fatal accident occurred in a mining claim near Pioneer City last Thursday, resulting in the death of a young man named Patrick McGuinness. A mass, probably several tons of the bedrock, caved on him, covering him almost entirely up, and inflicting such serious internal injuries as to cause death about half an hour afterwards."

At Oakland, June 1st, in a fight between Geo. Harris and a man named Rulan, the former was cut with a butcher knife in five different places in the face and left arm—the main artery and muscles being cut off. Harris is in a critical condition.

There is to be a meeting held on the Ellendale Camp Ground, Polk county, commencing Friday, June 28th, at 11 A. M., under the auspices of the Dalles Circuit M. E. Church.

At a political meeting at Ashland, last week, Mr. Fay objected to some remarks made by Mr. Neil in his speech, and drew his derringer. There being a number of men between them, the fight was postponed.

A four mule team and wagon loaded with flour backed off the ferryboat at McMinnville, last week, and scarcely were the mules saved from drowning. The flour was spoiled one-half.

Benjamin Smith, foreigner, was killed at North Bend mill, Coos county, last week. Supposed to have been caught in the machinery.

Whisky caused two men at McMinnville, last week, to break each other's heads, and two to be bound over for assault with dangerous weapons.

The terminus fever has broken out at Mukilton, W. T.

No movement towards celebrating the Fourth of July has yet been made in San Francisco.

The citizens of Union county are about to take steps to organize an Agricultural Society.

A new town has been laid out at Point Elliott, W. T.

Mrs. Carrie Young is lecturing to the people of Idaho on the question of temperance.

Two women voted last Monday in Polk county.

The bottom of the reservoir of the Salem Water Company "busted" on Monday; so did the Democracy of Oregon.

The General Conference of the M. E. Church, now in session at Brooklyn, N. Y., has favored the erection of a Book Depository at Portland. It proposes to donate $8,000 to purchase ground, and $4,000 towards a building to be constructed on it, leaving the city of Portland to raise an equal amount towards the building. Books will be furnished, which will require a total outlay on the part of the Conference of some $30,000.

The following particulars are reported concerning the death of Mr. Harvey Meacham, brother of Hon. A. B. Meacham: Mr. A. B. Meacham and his brother Harvey, were in the timber engaged in building a fence, working a short distance apart. Mr. Meacham cut down a large tree, which, as it fell, struck a dead tree, standing but a little distance from where he was at work, with such force that it fell, striking Harvey upon the top of the head, fracturing the skull. He did not move or speak after he was hit, and remained unconscious up to the time of his death, which occurred in about three hours after the accident happened.
