SAN FRANCISCO—AGRICULT'

In the Field Again.

TREADWELL & CO.

with the old standard HARVESTING MACHINES so popular with all California farmers, with all the latest improvements, and many new ones for the harvest of '72.

The Wood's Prize Mowers

and Wood's Improved Self-Rake Reapers.

These machines are indisputably THE BEST IN THE WORLD.

As a harvester, the Wood's Improved Prize Mower is confessedly without an equal yet before the country. These machines have been improved since first introduced, until they are now almost entirely a new machine. They are made by Walter A. Wood (the largest manufacturer of Farming Machinery in the world)—a man who keeps "up with the times," and who now builds and sells over twenty-five thousand of the World's Prize Mowers annually. It led the world at the Paris Exposition, and has found no peer since.

The Wood's Improved Prize Mower is especially adapted to Oregon. It has a folded or jointed bar with hand levers, two wheels, a wire seat, and is made almost entirely of malleable iron, hard wood and steel. It is heavy, strong and durable, and though compact and powerful, is of lighter draft than the other machines of equal weight. It is every way just the Mower for Oregon, as every farmer will say who has one. And its price is from $45 to $55 less than that of an inferior machine. Farmers, will you pay that difference? Investigate before you buy, and see if you are getting anything for that extra cost! For it is a profit, as the Mower costs more to build than does Wood's. Send for a pamphlet before buying.

"Buy the Best."

Buy the Wood's Improved Prize Mower!

We offer also the GENUINE HAINE'S HEADERS, from 10 to 15 feet cut, improved by Walter A. Wood, having not only all the advantages of the old Illinois machine, but Wood's improvements, and also Doane's Adjustable Reel.

No other Header has these improvements, and no other parties sell them. They are made especially for this coast, by Wood, at Hoosick Fall, N. Y.

The Kirby Self-Rake Reaper and Mower.

These machines are too well known to need description. Also the "KIRBY CLIPPER MOWER," price $75—the cheapest and for many purposes the best in the market.

THE BISHOPS OF THE M. E. CHURCH.—Bishop Morris, senior bishop of the Methodist Episcopal Church, was born April 24th, 1790, and was consequently on Sunday last eighty-two years of age. He entered the itinerant ministry in the Ohio Conference in 1816. He was elected and ordained bishop in 1830, at the General Conference in Cincinnati. He has not been able to perform full episcopal service for several years past.

Bishop Jones, now senior effective bishop, was born April 27, 1807, and is consequently sixty-five years of age. He entered the itinerant ministry in the Philadelphia Conference in 1830, and was elected and ordained bishop at the General Conference held in New York in 1844. He has constantly been in labors abundant, and gives good promise of rendering the Church many additional years of efficient service.

Bishop Scott was born in 1801, and is now seventy years of age. He joined the Philadelphia Conference in 1829, and was elected and ordained bishop by the General Conference, which met in Boston in 1852. He has performed efficient service, attending all the conferences assigned, including those of the Southwest, until the recent session of the Indiana Conference, when he was suddenly prostrated by severe and repeated nasal hemorrhages. During his entire episcopacy he has failed to attend only three of his conference sessions, and these were the last three assigned him.

Bishop Simpson was born June 10, 1810, and is now nearly sixty-two years of age. He entered the Pittsburgh Conference in 1843, and was elected and ordained bishop at the General Conference which met in Boston in 1852. During a portion of his life he was so prostrated as a result of his severe episcopal and ministerial labors as to be compelled to desist for several weeks from full service, and great anxiety was felt throughout the Church lest his invaluable life might be approaching its close. Rest, however, restored him to comparative health, greatly to the joy of the whole Church.

Bishop Ames was born March 30, 1806, and is now a little over sixty-six years of age. He entered the Illinois Conference in 1830, and along with Bishop Scott, Simpson and Baker was elected and ordained bishop at the General Conference held in Boston in 1852. From the first Bishop Ames has been blessed with a vigorous and powerful physical constitution, which has enabled him to endure successfully the great wear and tear of his multiplied official duties. His thousands of friends will be glad to learn that he comes to the General Conference in apparently good physical condition, as well as in excellent mental cheer.—Daily Christian Advocate

BE SENSIBLE.—Do not be above your business. He who turns up his nose at his work quarrels with his bread and butter. He is a poor smith who is afraid of his own spark; there's some comfort in all trades except clammy sweeping. If sailors give up going to sea because of the wet, if bakers left off baking bread because it is hot, if plowmen would not plow because of cold, and tailors would not make our clothes for fear of pricking their fingers, what a pass we would come to! Nonsense, my fine fellow, there's no shame about any honest calling; don't be afraid of soiling your hands, there's plenty of soap to be had.

All trades are good to good traders. Lucifer matches pay well if you sell enough of them. You cannot get honey if you are frightened at bees, nor plant corn if you are afraid to get mud on your boots. When bars of iron melt under the south wind, when you can dig the fields with toothpicks, blow ships along with a fan, manure the crops with lavender water, and grow plum cakes in flower pots, there will be a fine time for dandies, but until the millennium comes we shall all have a deal to put up with.

A SELF MADE MAN.—Henry Clews, the well known bald headed banker, who always prides himself on being a self made man, during a recent talk with Mr. Travers, had occasion to remark that he was the architect of his own destiny—that he was a self made man. "W-w-what d-did you s-say, Mr. Clews?" asked Mr. Travers. "I say with pride, Mr. Travers, that I am a self-made man—that I made myself—" "Hold, H-henry," interrupted Mr. Travers, as he dropped his Portage, "w-while you were making y-yourself, why d-did-didn't you put some more h-hair on the top of y-your h-head?" "Mr. Clews has since invested seventy-five cents in a wig."

THE NEW YORK TRIBUNE remarks that the latest method of metropolitan thieves is to pick pockets at funerals, where persons are naturally least on their guard against such depredations. A day or two ago, at a funeral uptown, three of the pill-bearers, while carrying the coffin from the house to the hearse, were robbed of their watches in the most adroit and mysterious manner. In some instances, where funerals are large, policemen are stationed at the door of the family residence to prevent the entrance of well-known cut-purses.

An English writer advises young ladies to look favorably upon those engaged in agricultural pursuits, giving as a reason that their mother Eve married a gardener. He forgot to add, however, that the gardener lost his situation in consequence of the match.

As a wife was holding her husband's aching head in her hands, one morning she asked: "Are man and his wife one?" "I suppose so," said the husband. "Then," rejoined the wife, "I came home drunk last night, and ought to be ashamed of myself."
