THE

WALTER A. WOOD

Mowing & Reaping Machines, FOR THE COMING HARVEST.

C. B. COMSTOCK & CO., SPRINGVILLE & ALBANY, OREGON, Sole Agents for Oregon & Washington Territory.

W. S. NEWBURY,

Traveling & General Agent, ALBANY, OREGON.

THESE JUSTLY POPULAR MACHINES ARE NOW IN GENERAL use in Russia, Prussia, Austria, France, Spain, England, and North and South America, in fact throughout the whole civilized world, and have been awarded the FIRST PRIZES at every fair, both in Europe and America, since the World's Fair at Paris in 1875, since which time many valuable improvements have been made.

The New One & Two-Horse Double-Geared Jointed Flexible Bar Mowers, never cut. They are the WONDER OF THE AGE for Strength, Beauty, Capacity and LIGHTNESS OF DRAFT.

THE SELF-RAKING REAPER,

with Mowing Attachment, is the most complete and desirable Reaper, either in Europe or America, and is COMPLETE REAPER and a COMPLETE MOWER, being two separate machines.

WE CLAIM FOR THE WOOD'S MACHINES

That they are the LIGHTEST DRAFT, the QUEEREST and BEST MOTION, as well as the MOST DURABLE. That they have the BUNDLES IN THE BEST SHAPE, and are the EASIEST HANDLED of any Mowing and Reaping Machine either in Europe or America.

We warrant the Wood's Machines to be as REpresented.

A full assortment of EXTRAS constantly kept at all our Agencies.

WE ALSO HAVE THE AGENCY OF THE HAINES' HEADERS, with the WOOD IMPROVEMENT, which renders it one of the BEST HEADERS extant. If you buy a Header, be sure you get the HAINES with Wood's late Improvements, as they were only added in 1871.

SEND FOR DESCRIPTIVE BOOK.

The Puget Sound Courier tells of a distressful and almost fatal accident occurring at Seattle on Saturday last. Mrs. Young, wife of A. B. Young, Esq., came very near losing her life in the following shocking manner: She was doing some work about the house that required her to step upon a box in the vicinity of which was located and projecting a large meat hook. The box being unsteady it tipped over and threw her, and as she fell her neck caught on the hook in the region of the jugular vein, and inflicted a severe but it is hoped not a mortal wound. It is said that the hook penetrated her neck, glancing upward, parallel with the vein, tearing and breaking through the flesh as she fell to the floor, and making a terrible and ghastly wound.

The Puget Sound Courier says it is rumored that the Secretary of the Interior has written to the directors of the N.P.R.R. Co. informing them that as soon as they complete the railroad to the waters of the Sound at any point, that will be regarded as their choice of place for a terminus, and they will be precluded thereby from holding government lands any farther beyond such point. In consequence of this, it is said that the company intend to carry their line all the way to Bellingham Bay before they attempt directly to approach the waters of the Sound anywhere. After this is done, they will begin first to attend to the building of the branch roads at different points, connecting their main line with the little towns and harbors where such branch lines may be needed and where they will prove profitable.
