"Faith, I'm glad to hear yees say so," replied Paddy, "for the fast ones I got here were chickens."

A clergymna writes to the New York Times as follows;

It may be of use and satisfaction to you to know the following political facts: On the question of Grant vs. Greeley. I have taken a deal of trouble to find out the sentiments of a large number of these men with whom I am acquainted, living in New York, New Jersey and Connecticut, and nearly every one is pronounced in his sentiments for Grant.

The South Bend (Indiana) Tribone tells this:

NATIONAL REPUBLICAN PLAT-

Adopted by the National Republican Convention at Philadelphia, June 6th, 1872.

The Republican party of the United States assembled in National Convention in the city of Philadelphia, on the 5th and 6th days of June, 1872, again declares its faith and appeals to its history and automices its position upon the questions before the country.

First—During cleven years of su-premacy it has accepted with grand conrage the solemn duties of the time. It suppressed a gigantic rebellion; emancipated 4.000,000 slaves; decreed the e-pai citizenship of all and estab-lished universal suffrage. Exhibiting imparalleled neagmanimity, it crimi-ally punished no man for political of-fenses, and warmly welcomed all who neaved their lovality by obeying the fenses, and warmly welcomed an who proved their loyalty by obeying the laws and dealing justly with their neighbors. It has steadily decreased with a firm hand, the resultant disor-orders of a great war, and initiated a wise policy towards the Indians. The Pacific Railroad, and similar vast enterprises, have been generously aided and successfully conducted. The pubthe lands are freely given to actual set-tlers; inmigration is protected, en-couraged, and the full acknowledge-ment of the naturalized citizen's rights has been secured from European pow-ers. The national currency has im-proved in regulation and the national ereilit has been sustained under extra-ordinary burdens, and new bonds have been negotiated at lower rates. The revenues have been carefully collected and honestly applied. Despite the an-nual large reductions from the rates of taxation the public debt has been reduced during Grant's presidency at the rate of one handred million dollars per rate of one hundred million dollars per year. A great financial crisis has been avoided and peace and plenty prevail throngont the land. Menacing foreign difficulties have been peacefully and honorably compromised, and the honor and power of the nation has been kept high throughout the world. This glorious record of the past is the party's best pledge for the future. We believe the people will not entrust the Government to any party or combina-

Government to any party or combina-tion of men composed of those who chiefly have resisted every step in this beneficial progress. Second—Complete liberty and exact equality in the enjoyment of all civil, political and public rights should be established and effectually maintained throughout the Union, by efficient and appropriate State and Federal legislation. Neither the law or its administration should admit of any discrimination in respect to, citizens, by reason ation in respect to citizens, by reason of race, creed, color, or previous con-dition of servitude.

Third-The amendments to the National Constitution should be cordially tional Constitution should be cordially sistained, because they are right; not merely tolerated because they are law; should be carried out accord-ing to their spirit by appropriate legislation, the enforcement of which can be safely trusted only to the party that secured the amendments. Fourth—The National Government should seek to maintain an honorable peace with all nations, protecting its citizens everywhere and sympathizing with all people who strive for greater

Fifth—Any system of civil service under which the subordinate positions of the Government are considered as of the Government are considered as rewards for mere party zeal, is fatally demoralizing, and we therefore favor a reform of the system by laws which shall abolish the evils of patronage and make honesty, efficiency and fidelity essential qualifications for public posi-tion, without practically creating a life tenure of office.

Sixth-We are opposed to further grants of the public lands to corporations and monopolies, and demand that the national domain shall be set spart for the free use of the people.

Seventh—The annual revenue, after paying the current expenditures, should furnish a moderate balance for the reduction of the principal of the debt; and revenue, except so much as may be received from a tax on tobac-co and liquors, ought to be rated by duties on importations, the scale of which should be so adjusted as to aid in securing remunerative wages to la-borers and to promote the industries, growth and prosperity of the whole

Eighth—We hold in undying honor the soldiers and sailors whose valor saved the Union. Their pensions are a sacred debt of the nation, and wid-ows and orphans of those who died for their country are entitled to the care of the Government and the gratitude of the people. We favor such addi-tional legislation as will extend the bounty of the Government to all our soldiers and sallors who were honorably discharged, and who in time of duty became disabled, without regard to the length of their service or the cause of such discharge.

Ninth—The doctrine of Great Britain and other European Powers conain and other European Powers con-cerning allegiance "once a subject al-ways a subject," having at last, through the efforts of the Republican party, been abandoned, and the Ameri-can idea of the right of the individual to transfer his allegiance having been accepted by the European nation, it is the duty of our Government to guard with jealous care the rights of adopted citizens against the assumptions of uncitizens against the assumptions of un-authorized claims by their former governments; and we urge the continued and careful encouragement and protection of voluntary immigration.

Tenth—The franking privilege ought to be abolished and a way prepared for a reduction in the rates of po-tage.

Eleventh—Among the questions is that which which press for attention is that which concerns the relation of capital and labor, and the Republican party re-cognizes the duty of so shaping legis-lation as to secure full protection and ample field for capital, and for la-bor, which creates for capital the larg-est opportunities, and a just share of mutual profits of those two great serv-ants of civilization.

ants of civilization.

Twelft:,—we hold that Congress and the President have only fulfilled an important duty in a measure for the suppression of violent and treasonable organizations in certain of the lately rebellious regions, and for the protection of the ballot-box; and, of the nation.

Thirteenth—We denounce repudiation of the national debt, in any form or disguise, as a national crime. We witness with pride the reduction of the principal of the debt and of the rates of interest upon the balance, and we confidently expect that our excellent currency will be perfected by the specify resumption of the specie payment.

passe to respect the rights reserved by the people to themselves as carefully as the powers delegated by them to the State and Territorial governments. It disapproves of any resort to uncon-stitutional laws for the purpose of re-moving evils by interference with rights not surrendered by the people to either the State or the National Covernment.

Government.

Seventeenth—It is the duty of the General Government to adopt such measures as will fend to encourage.

Eighteenth-We believe that the modest patriotism, the earnestness modest parriorism, the earnestness of purpose, somel judgment, practical wisdom, incorruptible integrity, and illustrious services of U. S. Grant, have commended him to the heart of the American people, and that with him at our head we start to-day on a new march to victory.

Fourteenth—The regular Republican party is mindful of its obligation to the loyal women of America for their noble devotion to the cause of freedom. Their admission to usefulness is received with satisfaction, and the honest demands of any class of citzens for additional rights should be treated with respectful consideration.

Fifteenth—We heartly approve of the action of Congress in relation to the rebellions States, and rejoice in the growth of peace and fraternal feeling throughout the land.

Sixteenth—The Republican party proposes to respect the rights reserved by the people to themselves, as carefully

This gate is simple in its construction, loth of from and wood work, and not likely roget out of order. If a neat, cheap gate is desired, it may be made light, with three cross bars of weed and one-fourth inch wire, nearly curved at the top, the lower end highly the bottom bar, which is the style of a factory made gate. The gates are now in practical use in several of the countles around san Francisco, and planty of testimonianis can be given.
