

LOCAL MATTERS.

VOLUME IV.—This number closes volume four of the REGISTER. During the year just passed we have endeavored to publish a paper fully worth the money asked for it—three dollars per annum.

We propose during the coming year to illustrate all the prominent points in the State, through the pages of the REGISTER. We hope in this way to draw a larger share of the attention of the people of the Eastern States than can be done through any other medium.

CONGRATULATE HIM.—We read in one of our exchanges that J. F. Brock, an old and respected citizen of Jersey county, aged 71, led to the altar not long since a blushing bride of 17 summers.

DEATH.—Has been busy among us during the week, taking not only those of mature years, but the young and lovely vines that were just budding into life and turning the love-tendrils around our inmost hearts.

WOOD'S HOUSEHOLD MAGAZINE.—For September, received. The contents of the number before us are rich and varied, vieing in intrinsic excellence with the higher priced magazines.

WHEAT.—There has been quite a large amount of wheat harvested during the past week or two, but we judge the bulk of the grain crop yet remains to be harvested.

PERSONAL.—Rev. C. W. Shaw, pastor of the M. E. Church of this city during the past year, departed for Salem on Wednesday, to attend the Annual Conference, which convened in that city on the 29th inst.

JEFFERSON INSTITUTE.—FALL TERM.—The fall term of Jefferson Institute will open on the first Monday of September next, under charge of Prof. P. G. Taylor. The success of Prof. Taylor as a teacher, not only at Jefferson, but in this city, Harrisburg, and other points, warrants us in saying that the Institute will be in the best of hands, and its patrons can rest assured that their children will advance rapidly under his thorough training.

COUNTY FAIR.—Our mechanics, we believe, will be fully represented at the coming County Fair, by different wares from their shops. We hope that no one will be neglectful of his duty in this matter, but that all will take a pride in contributing liberally to the interest and success of the Fair.

EXTENSIVE LOW.—Fifty cents per bushel, we believe, is all that buyers have yet offered for wheat. At this price we hear of no sales.

BLUEGLASS.—On Saturday night, word came to Fred. Hill, as he lay snugly ensconced between the sheets, sleeping as only a good Christian can, that burglars had gained an entrance into his drug store on First street, and were smashing up things in a terrific manner.

COLLEGIATE INSTITUTE.—The first term of the collegiate year opens on next Monday. The Institute, under the management of President Warren, seconded by an able corps of successful teachers, has achieved a success in the past which recommends it to the patronage of all who desire a thorough and practical education.

FROM HALSEY.—From our correspondent, Mr. H. C. Clement, we learn that, for the week ending Wednesday, August 28th, there had been received and stored in Halsey, eight thousand bushels of wheat, making a total for the season of twenty-two thousand bushels.

TO-MORROW AFTERNOON.—Remember the meeting called for to-morrow afternoon, at the late office of Jas. Elkins, Esq., on Ferry street, to organize the Santiam Canal and Ditch Company.

FINANCIAL.—Gold in New York, 113. Legal tenders, 87 3/4 buying, 89 selling. Wheat quoted in San Francisco at $1 45 1/4 37 1/2 100 lbs. Oats, $1 72 1/4 85 100 lbs.

MEDICAL.—The Medical Society of the Third Judicial District, Oregon, will meet at the Court House in this city, on Monday, September 24, at 1 P. M.

CHICHLING.—A petition to the incoming Legislature, asking for the enactment of a more stringent liquor law, in the hands of Mrs. Dr. Griffin, during the week, has been circulated, meeting with good success as to signatures.

TO SUBSCRIBERS.—Hereafter the counting-room of the REGISTER office will be on the first floor of the REGISTER BUILDING, corner Ferry and First streets, where all of our patrons who wish can obtain their papers.

RICH AND ORNATE.—Those carpenter-adepts, manufactured at Chas. Mealey's, are the very latest in furniture, as well as the handsomest.

OATS.—We hear of no better offer on the part of buyers, for oats, than 22c per bushel.

WEDNESDAY.—We think, was the dullest day we ever experienced in this city. Lonesome is no name for the appearance of our streets.

SCARCE.—Good fresh butter has been scarce for the past week or two.

LOST CABIN.—Mr. Aron McKee, of Camp Polk, called on us Wednesday. He reports everything lovely in his neighborhood. He has a hundred head of cattle for sale, and as soon as he can find a purchaser he intends to "go for" the "lost cabin," confident that he can find it.

DESPERATE AFFRAY at Dallas. THREE MEN SHOT AND TWO CUT WITH KNIVES—THE ATTACKING PARTY WORSTED. Here is the account of a bloody affray, which transpired at Dallas, on 1st Saturday night, as we find it in the Bulletin:

THE ORIGIN OF THE AFFRAY. Some two or three weeks ago a saloon-keeper named T. Glaze became engaged in a quarrel and fight with a farmer named Sol Whitely, who resides near the town. During the fight Whitely was badly beaten by Glaze, and he swore that he would get him as soon as he was able to resume hostilities, and it appears that he felt himself in a condition to reopen the war on Saturday evening.

DECLARATION OF WAR. Whitely had barely been seated when several men came into the saloon, and amongst them was William Whitely, a son of the old gentleman. When these men came in the old man got up and said: "Is there any one here who wants anything out of me? If there is he can have it!"

THE UNDERGROUND WOULD BE RE-SPELLED.—A petition to the incoming Legislature, asking for the enactment of a more stringent liquor law, in the hands of Mrs. Dr. Griffin, during the week, has been circulated, meeting with good success as to signatures.
