VOLUME V.

ALBANY, OREGON, SEPTEMBER 20, 1872.

NO. 3.

Albany Register.

PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY.

By COLL, VAN CLEVE, IN REGISTER BUILDINGS.

Corner Perry and First Streets,

TERMS-IN ADVANCE.

fine year. Three dollars, six months. Two dollars, single copies. Ten conts.

ADVERTISING RATES.

Transient advertisements, per square of ten times or less, first insertion £; each scubsequent insertion £1. Larger adver-tisements inserted on the most liberal

JOB WORK. Having received new type, stock of col-oced inits, turds, a foor lon jeober, etc., we are prepared to execute all kinds of principal in a better manner, and dry, per sent cheaper than ever before offered in this

Agents for the Register.

Ag ints for the Register.
The following gentlemen are authorized to receive and receint for subscriptions, abortishing etc., for the Braistran.
Huan Smith, Harrishurg.
O. P. Tounkins, Harrishurg.
Pster Hume, Brownsville.
W. R. Kirk, Brownsville.
J. B. Irchae, sein.
T. H. Reynolds, Salem.
L. P. Fisher, San Francisco.
D. P. Porter, Sinc I'l Sinthon, Fleicher & Wells, Bucan Vista, Polk Co Chas, Nickell, Jacksonville.

BUSINESS CARDS.

J. H. MITCHELL, J. N. DOLUH.

MITCHELL & DOLPH, Attorneys and Counselors at Law,

Solicitors in Chancery and Proc-tors in a dulmary. Office over the old post office, Front street, Portland, Oregon.

J. C. POWELL. POWELL & FLINN,

Altorneys and Counselors at Law, A ND SOLECTORS IN CHANCERY L. Collections and conveyances promptly at-rended to.

W. G. JONES, M. D., HOMEOPATHIC PHYSICIAN.

OFFICE ON FIRST STREET, ONE door O west of Broadathin, in Burkhart's two story brick (upstairs, over Geo, Turrell's store, Haspiesee, First house west of the Methodist church, Albany, Or. 1644

D. M. JONES, M. D., PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON,

ALBANY, OREGON.

OFFICE SOUTH SIDE FIRST STREET.
On-stairs, to J. M. Reach's store-house.
Residence Second street, south of the Cartwright warehouse.

374

T. W. HARRIS, M. D.,

Physician and Surgeon, ALBANY, OREGON.

OFFICE ONE DOOR EAST OF TELE-graph office, on First street.
Residence At Mr. A. Hackleman's. 374

DENTISTRY.

DOES ALL WORK IN THE line of his profession in the Lates, Box and most approxed method.

Annesthetic agents used for the painless extraction of teeth, if desired. Particular attention given to the regulation of Children's reeth.

Dental consultations and examinations FREE. Charges moderate. Satisfaction furnanteed in every case. Call at his office and examine specimens of his workmanship. OFFICE-In Parrish Brick Block, up 173-18v4

LEFFEL & MYERS

WaterWheels

SPHERICAL FLUMES,

And Ceneral Mill Machinery.

J. F. BACKENSTO, Agent, Albuny, Oregon

W. H. M'CULLOCH. K. S. DUBOIS. N. S. DU BOIS & CO., HAVE ON HAND AND CONSTANTLY

receiving a large stock of Greeries and Provisions, Wood and willow ware, tobacco, eigars, confectionery, Yunkee notions, etc., etc., wholesale and retail, at lowest intes. Opnosite R. C. Hill & Son's drug store, Albany, Oregon. 3344

ALBANY BOOK STORE. Established in 1856.

E. A. Freeland,

DEALER IN EVERY VARIETY OF miscellaneous books, school books, tiant books, stationery. Books imported to order at short notice. Albany, Dec. 3, 1870.

J. W. Van Den Bergh M. D.,

WORM DOCTOR, SALEM : : : OREGON.

MY long experience in diseases caused by WORMS, cannot be surpassed by any physician in Europe or the United States. Office rooms, Nos. 38 and 30, over the Post Office. [53] Consultations and grammations free of charge. vanying

BUSINESS CARDS.

JOHN CONNER, BANKING

---AND--

Exchange Office,

ALBANY, OREGON.

DEPOSITS RECEIVED SUBJECT TO

Deheck at sight.
Interest allowed on time demosits in coin.
Exchange on Parliand, Sub Francisco, and New York, for sale at lowest rates.
Collections made and promptly years tell.
Reders to H. W. Corbett, Henry Falling,
W. S. Ladd.
Banking hours from 8 A. M. to 4 P. M.
Albany, Feb. 1, 1871-22v3

JOHN SCHMEER,

-- DEALER IN --

Groceries & Provisions.

ALBANY, OREGON.

H AS JUST OPENED HIS NEW GROCER A statistic of the test of the statistic of the statistic

In connection with the store he will keep a Bakery, and will always have on hand a full supply of fresh bread, emekers, &c.

JOHN SCHMEER.

Gar Call and see me.

February 1684v4

MILLINERY, DRESS MAKING,

-AND

LADIES' AND CHILDREN'S

FURNISHING HOUSE!

THE UNDERSIGNED HAS OPENED A new stock of millinery goods, trimmings, ladies' and children's furnishing goods, of all kinds, of the latest and most fishionable styles, which she offers to the ladies of Albany and surrounding country at the lowest rates. In the

Dress Making Department

I guarantee entire satisfaction. Charges liberal.

My determination being to give satisfac-tion in style and quality of work and prices, I ask a share of public patronage. Call at store Opposite A. Carothers & Co.,

First street, Albany, Oregon,
MRS. H. D. GODLEY,
EST Agent for Mrs. Carpenter's CeleBRATED DRESS MODEL. Nov. 4,71-9v4

TURNING - - TURNING.

AM PREPARED TO DO ALL KINDS of turning; keep on hand and make to order rawhide-bottomed charrs, &c. Shon near the Mills and Hoslery, Jefferson, Oregon. Branch short near "Mazmolia Mills," Albany, where orders for chairs, turning, &c., can be left. JOHN M. METZLER. Jefferson, Aug. 2, 1872

Notice.

OREGON & CALIFORNIA RAILROAD
Company, Land Department, Portland Gregon, April 5, 1872. Notice is hereby given, that a vigorous prosecution will be instituted against any and every person who trespasses men any Railread Land, by catting and renoving theber the refron before the same is 1800 GHT of the Company AND PAID FOR.
All vacant Land in orid numbered sections, whether surveyed or insurveyed, within a distance of thirty miles from the line of the road, belows to the Company.

1. R. MOORES,
32v41f Land Agent,

JOE WAGON.

HAVING PURCHASED THE INTER-Delivery Eusliness,

I am prepared to do any and all kinds of jobs, on short notice and with quick dispatch. Terms reasonable, Packages dispatch, Terms reasonable, Packages dispatch, Terms of the city, $27 Look out for the BAY TEAM and JOB WAGON, 20v4

A. N. ARNOLD,

FURS! FURS! FURS!

THE HIGHEST PRICES PAID IN CASH for all kinds of FURS, by BLAIN, YOUNG & CO. Albany, Feb. 9, 73-231(

Sollioquy of H. G.

"I'll sell my soul for fame and pelf And high official station; I'll lay the Tribune on the shelf, And role this mighty nation.

"I'll see that Schurz and both the Blairs Proclaim me as their maker; Or they had better say their prayers And call the undertaker.

'I've had a stumpy row to hoe, But now by flopping over, I'll be a little God below, And sumb the great Jehovah.

"The sinking ship gives up its rats-The corpse its creeping vernin; So I'll just bait those Democrats While toward the shore they're squirmin'.

"They'll swallow crow, and like it, too; My chances then they'll bet on, They'll help me paddle my canoe, And build the throne I'll sit on."

QUINCY, Ill., August 11, 1872.

Clerical Anecdotes.

The following anecdotes have never been in print, at least the first three have not. The last one I beard in Scotland and cannot vouch for. The Scotland and cannot vouch for. The others came under my own personal knowledge.

In the south of New Jersey, some years ago, there traveled over some of the hardest counties, a good, faithful, hardworking brother, named James Moore, or Jimmy Moore, as he was familiary called. He was devoted to the itinerancy. A true loyal Methodist, plain, pointed and sharp in all his preaching and exhortations.

He had been laboring a year on one of his circuits, and before leaving for his new field, he gave his people who dearly loved him, his farewell sermon. At its close he said: "My dear brethren, this is my last address to you. I am going from you and you you. I am going from you and you may never hear the voice of James Moore again."

"Amen?" came loudly from the seat before him. He looked at the man with a little surprise, but thinking it a mistake, went on. "My days on earth will soon be numbered. I am an old man, and you may not only never hear the voice of James Moore, but never see his face ngnin." 'Amen!" was shouted from the same seat, and more vigorously than

There was no mistaking the design now. The preacher looked at the man-he knew him to be a hard, grinding man—stingy and merelless to the poor. He continued his address, "May the Lord bless all of you who have done your duty, who have been kind to the poor, and—"

Pausing and locking the intruder straight in the eye, and pointing to him with his finger.

"May his curse rest on those who have cheated the Lord, and ground the poor under their heels. Say amen to that, brother." The shot told. He was not interrupted again. I went once with Rev. Mark Trefton, the celebrated New England preacher, to hear Albert Barnes deliver a discourse in behalf of the Ameri-cun Sunday School Union. The even-ing was hot, the services long and tiresome, and when the sermon commenced it was about time to go home. Mr. Barnes was annoyed at this, and in commencing said: "My discourse is divided into three parts." He then stated them. "For want of time I shall omit the first, for the same reason I shall be compelled to omit the sec-

oud. At this moment Trafton arose, his tall, splendid form looming up in all its stateliness, and turning to me said: For the same reason I shall omit the third," and walked out of the church In a Pennsylvania town there was an excellent but eccentric elergyman named Ross. He was about taking a collection for some special object, and had pleaded warmly in its behalf, "My brethren," said he, "I want you all to give liberally to-night—none of your pennies or five-cent pieces, but let every man give a quarter, and to set you a good example, I will give the first quarter myself," dropping a twenty-five cent piece into the bus-

After the collection was taken be lifted up the baskets, looked them over carefully, and then remarked, "I see that my quarter is the only one bere; so I shall take it back again," which be did and put in his pocket with evident disgust at their mean-

Old maids are fond of pairs, but cannot endure any reference to dates,

A Cape May Story.

HOW A WOMAN'S LOQUACITY LED TO THE RECOVERY OF A FORTUNE.

Cape May, on the 20th of August, 1869, was partially destroyed by a terrible conflagration. Among the ruined hotels was the Atlantic, and one of its guests at the time was Mr. Charles Rubicau, a Philadelphian, Charles Rubicau, a Philadelphian, who had at that moment stored in his trunk $9,000 in currency, with which he intended to purchase the Diamond Beach Driving Park. The flames wrapped the ill fated building so quickly that Mr. Rubican failed to secure all his effects. During the excitement of the moment he removed one of his trunks which he fondly believed contained the precious bundle, but when he looked to assure himself of its safety, he was dumfounded to discover ty, he was dumfounded to discover that he had picked up the wrong trunk. It may well be imagined that the blow was almost a crushing one, and it was rendered more polgnant by the fact that, at the moment when he was congratulating himself upon its securi-ty, the greedy flames (so he then thought) were devouring the little pile of precious paper. One day, many months after the calamity, and when the Atlantic had spring up more charming from the ashes, its proprie-tor, Mr. Mackin, received a note from tor. Mr. Mackin, received a hote from an old servant, announcing that she had heard all about the $9,000, and that she would at some future time tell all about it. This occlaration surprised Mr. Rubican when he heard of it, and with a fluttering heart he set about reclaiming his fortune that he had looked upon as lost. Detectives Bartholomew and Duke, old Philadelphians, but now in the enuloy of Cape phians, but now in the employ of Cape May city were enlisted, and after a May city were enlisted, and after a weary search succeeded in finding the servant that had given the welcome intelligence, and who had promised to explain "in the future." She informed the detectives that a colored waiter named R. S. Clarke, in the service of the Atlantic Hotel at the time of the conflagration, had saved the trunk from the fire, and she supposed that "that was how he came to get the money." The detectives then instituted a search, for Mr. Clark, and found him at length in the service of the Broadhead House, at the Deiaware Water Gap where on Wednesday be Water Gap where on Wednesday be was found. Clarke openly acknowl-edged that he had received the $9,000, denying, however, that he had stolen it, or of having any intention to steal it, and, to make good his word volunteered to return every penny of it. From his statement, it seems that after the fire he came to the city and bought the house No. 910 Lombard street. This he volunteered to turn over, and This he commenced to turn over, and with some remaining cash, the full amount lost by Mr. Rublean would be restored to him. To day it is said, the necessary papers were made out and the property transferred to Mr. Rubican. Thus was it that Clarke lost a fortune, and that Rubican regained they ain't there. I can eigher clean over to improper fractions, and the teacher says I do it first-rate; but I can't cipher out a girl proper or improper, and you can't either. The only rule in arithmetic that lifts their ease is the double rule of two. They are as full of Old Nick as their skins can hold, and they would die i.' they couldn't torment somebody. When they try to be mean, they are mean as pulsey, they ain't as mean as they let on, except sometimes, and then they are a good deal meaner. The only way to get along with a girl when she comes at you with her nonsense, Is to g ve her ric for tat, and that will flummux her, and when you get a girl flummuxed she is as nice as a new pin. A girl can sow more wild oats in a day than a boy can in a year, but girls get their wild oats sown atter awhile, which boys never do, and then they settle down as piacid as a mud puddle. But I like girls first-rate, and I guess the boys all do, I don't care how many tricks they play on me -and they don't care either. The holty-toltlest girls in the world can't always boil over like a glass of soda. By and by they will get into the traces with somebody they like, and pull as steady as an old stage horse. That is the beauty of them. So let them wave, I say; they will pay for it some day, sewing on buttons and trying to make a decent man out of the feller they have spileed on to, and ten chances to one if they don't get the worst of it.

one through a woman who couldn't keep a secret.—Philadelphia Telegraph.

something new should try new ralgin, beer I

Red Tape in Russin.

One of the celebrities of the Moscow ballet lately called upon a local official, with the request that be would give her the usual formal permission to take a mouth's tour in the provinces for the benefit of her health, retaining for the beneat of her health, retaining her salary during the time of furlough. The man in office received her politicly, and asked for her written petition. "I have no written petition," an-swered the artist; "I had no idea that such a thing was necessary."

"Not necessary, madam? Why, nothing can be done without it!" "What am I to do, then?"

"Here are pens, ink and paper; be so good as to sit down and write while so good as to sit down and write in a life that."

The lady obeyed; the petition was written, signed and folded.

"And now," said the representative of justice, "you have only to deliver."

"To whom?"

"To whom?" repeated the official, with a slight smile at her simplicity. "To me, of course!" And taking the petition which he had himself dictated, he produced his spectacles, wiped them carefully, adjusted them upon his nose, read over the old decrement as thereby his ways. the old document as though it were perfectly new to him, docketed and filed it in due form, and then, turning

The true lidy or gentleman can always be distinguished at the table. It requires inbred gentility to eat in modest and becoming manner, and at the same time exhibit proper respect and, courtesy toward those around you, be-ing mindful even of the feelings of the

One who lives at a boarding-house has many opportunities to witness vulgar eating; and he will often see this indication of III-breeding on the part of those whose dress and general ap-pearance would indicate something better.

The general position of a vulgar eat-The general position of a vulgar eater is to cross his legs under the table or twist them in painful contortions around the legs of his chair, and then humping himself over until his back describes a perfect circle and his chin ranges just above the gravy in his plate, devour the articles of food as if life depended upon getting through in the shortest space of time. He is angry if the servants do not rush forward to writ upon him the moment he sits wait upon him the moment he sits down, and still more so it they forget to pass him any one of the dishes upon the table. It appears to his hungry imagination that he is intentionally slighted, and he manifests his temper by declaring that in the days of his boarding house life he never got into such a house as that, or saw such inattentive, lazy waiters, which benevo-lent remarks cause the latter to slam the dishes around him in a very earnest GRES-RY A DOY.—Girls are the most unaccountable things in the world—except women. Like the dining room door. He blows his worked flea, when you have them, have you start and wish you were the solution of the solution of the solutions of the sol somewhere else. It another, through mistake, takes the sent that he is accustomed to occupy, he causes the innoecht offender to feel perfectly at ease by casting a thunder cloud look at him and remarking, as he flings himself spitefully into another chair, that he wished people knew enough to get

> On the other hand, one who has the feelings of a gentleman born with-in him, will come quietly into the dining room, sit down in any chair that may happen to be vacant, and pleasantly wait until some one has leisure to attend to his wants-and be is never kept long waiting. He says > if you please? to the servants, just as > he would to his equals, for he knows > that they have feelings like other human beings; and if they forget to > hand him anything he wants, he polinely seninds them of the fact. They litely reminds them of the fact. Then he sits upright and eats like a gentle-HIMEIL.

Some people partake of their food in such a selfish, grambling manner that one cannot help thinking of pig-when he sees them "feeding" them-selves; and the difference between Americans and well-bred Europeans in this respect is so striking that we some-times blush for our nationality. Amerleans are always in a harry, and become worried and fretted with everything that hinders them especially when they are hungry: while Euro-peans take life more deliberately and enjoy themselves as they go along.

People who are always wishing for Aquarium that drinks tea, coffee, and