Albany Begister,

MAN MARRIED TO A MAN.-One of the most remarkable divorce cases on record has been begun, and the Macoupin County Circuit Court. The parties have lived together for seventeen years, known to the world as husband and wife. The reputed husband now files a bill, alleging the so-called marriage to have taken place in Macoupin county in 1855, and praying for a divorce on the ground that the person to whom he was then formally married is not a woman, although previous to and at the time of said reputed marriage he was induced to believe the person aforesaid to be a woman. If the allegations of the bill and outside parties are true, the trial will show the extraordinay case of two men having lived together for this long period of time, in the character of husband and wife, an instance, in other words, in which a natural cunuch has been able to personate the female character, and such as to go through the solemn external forms of marriage, and then to continue for many years to deceive neighbors, and even intimate friends, as to his real sex. The complaint alleges that his ignorance of the laws of this country, he being a German, and the advice of supposed competent parties, prevented him from filing a bill for release long ago from the bondage of this pseudo-marriage. As the parties have accumulated considerable property, it will be a point of great interest for the Court to decide upon its equitable divisiou, in case of a dissolution of the curious co-partnership .- St. Louis Democrat.

HE CAN PICK OUT A KNAVE,-"Eli Perkins" gets off a good one on Governor Hoffman. At Saratoga, the other day, the Governor was laboring with a Democratic banker who wouldn't swallow Greeley. The banker protested Horace was a big overgrown child.

" But," interrupted the Governor, "I think Mr. Greeley is a pretty good judge of men. I think he can pick out an honest man or a knave as quick as any one. I-"

"Why, there is just where he is always the biggest fool," continued Mr. Beekman.

" Never mind," said the Governor, "I would take his opinion on a man to be true quicker than I would take any man's in the country."

" You would?" said Mr Beekman, feeling in a side pocket. "Yes, I would," said the Governor firmly.

"Well, here is a little slip where he calls you a mountebank and a corrupt, dishonest and swindling Democratic villain," said Mr. Beekman, as he handed an old Tribune editorial to the Governor.

The Governor read it over twice, then looked as if he was trying to see straight through Mr. Beekman, a row of carriages and a two-foot brick partition - then slammed down his hat and went up stairs.

WHIPPING DOES NO GOOD .-Nervous children suffer untold agonies from fear when put to bed alone. No tongue can tell the horrors of a lonesome room to such children. A little delicate boy, whom his parents were drilling to sleep alone, used to cry violently every night, and his father would come in and whip him. He mistook his pertinacity for obstinacy, and he thought it his duty to conquer the child's will. One night he said:

"Why do you always scream so. when you know you will be punished?"

"Oh, father, father!" said the little fellow, "I don't mind you whipping me, if you only stay with

The father's eyes were opened from that moment. He saw that a human being could not be governed by dead rules, like a plant or
