

TO THE FARMERS OF LINN & BENTON COUNTIES.

THE UNDERSIGNED WOULD RESPECTFULLY ANNOUNCE THAT THEY HAVE ENTIRELY REMODELED AND RENOVATED THEIR LARGE, COMMODIOUS AND SUBSTANTIAL

Warehouse, that they have strengthened and fitted to the same, erected new works entire—that they now have two No. 1 Cleaners, with large Elevators complete; have put in new Boilers and Engines, and are now prepared to take in and handle very rapidly and conveniently. Having abundant storage facilities in Portland, parties desiring to store grain with us need have no fears that our warehouse here will be overloaded.

Wheat & Oats

We would also call the attention of the farmers to the fact that our facilities for shipping to a Foreign Market are very complete, and that they will find it to their advantage to call at our office for further information as to our facilities and terms of storage.

C. B. NEWBERRY & CO., W. S. NEWBERRY, Agent. Albany, Aug. 24-31-4.

GEORGE TURRELL KEEPS A LARGE STOCK OF Assorted Merchandise

to suit the market. It would be to the interest of everybody to give him an early call.

Oregon Wooden Ware Man'g. Co., MANUFACTURERS OF BUCKETS, TUBS, PAILS, AND Wooden-Ware!

Works at Oregon City, Oregon.

THE OREGON WOODEN WARE Manufacturing Company, having recently completed their Works at Oregon City with the most approved machinery, embracing the newest patterns and latest patents, imported at great cost from Massachusetts, the ESTABLISHMENT, in all its appointments, will compare favorably with any other in the United States.

The Company are prepared to fill all orders for CEDAR, MAPLE and ASH BUCKETS, TUBS, BUTTER FIRKINS, SALMON KITS, WASHBOARD, Sauttle Bobbins, Broom-handles, &c., &c.

Particular attention is called to our ASH PAILS and BUTTER FIRKINS—an article far superior to any heretofore in market, as causing no unpleasant taste or smell to the contents.

From our superior facilities we are enabled to supply the trade on the most advantageous terms, and by prompt attention and excellent workmanship will merit success in our line.

Dealers are requested to examine our wares before purchasing elsewhere.

Address all communications to J. D. BILES, Agent, Portland, Oregon.

NOTICE.—Any Buckets or Tubs manufactured by us, which do not give complete satisfaction, if returned, will be replaced by new ones, without charge for freight.

J. D. BILES, Agent, Portland, Oregon.

FOR DRESS GOODS, GLOVES, TRIMMINGS, Hosiery, etc., go to Turrell's, First street.

PEOPLE FURNISHING SHOULD CALL and see Turrell's large stock of Carpets, Oil-cloths, Blinds, Rugs, etc., which he is selling very cheap.

GO TO TURRELL'S FOR HARDWARE, Lamps, Lamp-chimneys, etc. He has the Goods to suit you.

A. B. MORRIS, General Commission

FORWARDING MERCHANT.

HAVING LEASED R. CHADLER'S large WAREHOUSE

BUY, SELL, STORE OR FORWARD at foot of Broadway street, on the bank of the Willamette river, I am prepared to store

WHEAT or OATS, in unlimited quantities.

The Highest Market Price Paid in Cash for Wheat and Oats.

Parties wishing to store Grain, can make arrangements to get all the sacks needed, Grain stored and forwarded at lowest rates.

A share of patronage is solicited. A. B. MORRIS. Albany, July 17-46v4

GEORGE TURRELL PAYS THE HIGHEST price for all kinds of Country Produce. Remember the address, Turrell's, First street.

STOVES AND TINWARE.

THE OLD STOVE DEPOT.

JOHN BRIGGS, Dealer in

RANGES.

COOK, PARLOR AND BOX, STOVES!

Of the best patterns.

ALSO: TIN, SHEET IRON AND COPPER WARE.

And the usual assortment of furnishing goods to be obtained in a tin store.

Repairs neatly and promptly executed, on reasonable terms.

Short reckonings make long friends.

FRONT STREET, ALBANY. Dec. 5, 1886-1

Something New in Dentistry.

DR. E. O. SMITH, DENTIST, HAS LOCATED IN ALBANY, and has the new invention in plate work, which consists in inserting teeth in the month without covering the whole roof, as heretofore. It gives the wearer the free use of the tongue to the roof of the month in talking and tasting. It is the Smith & Purvis patent. Teeth extracted without pain. Plates mended, whether broken or divided.

OFFICE—First street, east of Conner's Bank (up stairs), Albany, Oregon. 7v4

NEZ PERCE INDIAN CHIEF SALVE!

For sale by all druggists. Price, 50 Cents per Box. 1m

Paper-hanging, Calcemining, Decorating, &c.

F. M. WADSWORTH will give prompt attention to all orders for Paper-hanging, Calcemining, Decorating, &c., in this city or vicinity. All work executed in the latest style, in the best manner, and at lowest living rates. Orders left at Furniture Warerooms of Chas. Mealey will receive prompt attention. 4v4

A. CAROTHERS & CO., Dealers in

Drugs,

CHEMICALS, OILS, PAINTS, DYES, GLASS, LAMPS, ETC., All the popular

PATENT MEDICINES, FINE CUTLERY, CIGARS, TOBACCO, NOTIONS, PERFUMERY, and Toilet Goods.

Particular care and promptness given Physicians' prescriptions and Family Recipes. A. CAROTHERS & CO. Albany, Oregon-4v5

SEWING MACHINE AGENCY!

THE UNDERSIGNED OFFERS FOR sale to the general public, at his place on First street (late millinery store of Mrs. Briggs), all the latest and most reliable

SEWING MACHINES! Also, keeps on hand machine needles, oil, etc. Repairing of machines done to order. Call and see. F. FARNSWORTH, Agent. Sept. 6, 1879-2m*1

CITY MARKET, FIRST STREET, ALBANY, OREGON.

J. L. HARRIS, PROPRIETOR.

WILL ENDEAVOR TO KEEP CONSTANTLY ON HAND A FULL SUPPLY OF ALL KINDS OF MEATS, Which will be of the very best quality. The highest market price paid for hogs, hogs and sheep. Third door west of Ferry, on south side of First street. J. L. HARRIS. Albany, Dec. 15, 1871-15v4

T. FORLINER, Shedd, Oregon,

Manufacturer of and dealer in HARNESS & SADDLES

A Good Article for a Fair Price. Particular attention paid to REPAIRING. Shedd, August 9-46m3

PACIFIC COAST NEWS.

Thus far this year $3,078,500 00 have been paid in the Custom House for duties at San Francisco.

San Bernardino, Cal., has an O'Connor Democratic Club of sixty-seven members, which will insure his vote larger than Greeley's.

The steam sawmill, seven miles west of Silver City, was totally destroyed by fire not long since.

The first Angora goat ever in Olympia reached that place Monday before last.

Eugene Semple, State Printer, gave the members of the press and the printers of the city of Salem, a grand dinner at the Cheuketa Hotel, on Thursday of last week.

East Portland has seven men who are barbarous enough to whip their wives.

The Pages received $135 each for their services during the Legislative session.

A. H. Jordan, architect of Portland, died suddenly of apoplexy, on Wednesday of last week.

Trinity Church, Portland, has received a new organ which weighs 10,500 pounds. It is 18 feet high, 12 feet wide and 8 feet deep.

Webfoot has begun her weeping spell. Oysters are now shipped from Olympia to Portland.

It is said that a colony of Germans, numbering upwards of a hundred families, are settling up some land at the foot hills of the cascade mountains, eight miles from Foster's.

The Covallis Gazette says "if there is any such thing as a Sunday School revival, we are decidedly of the opinion that such a revival is now in progress among the members of the M. E. Sunday School of this place. The rehearsal last Tuesday evening called out our citizens in numbers almost sufficient to fill the church."

The Corvallis Gazette says Mr. W. W. Kiger has sold his hotel property, the "Kiger House," to Mr. W. Cushman. It is understood that Mr. F. M. Stanton, late of the Oneatta House, Yaquina, has leased it, and will take charge of it.

The Presbyterian church at Corvallis is soon to have a new organ.

The Custom House at Astoria will soon be ready for occupancy.

The San May trial cost the State $13,000.

Mr. J. Paquet has completed his contract for constructing wing-dams at Union bar, near the mouth of Yamhill river.

School statistics of the State for the year ending April 1, 1872, show the following: The total number of persons in the State, over four and under twenty years of age, is 36,512; of these 18,724 are males and 17,788 are females. The average attendance at the schools throughout the State is 12,120. The number of teachers in the State is 198; they were paid the sum of $68,597 32, of which $61,812 09 came from the State and county fund. The total number of legal voters in the State is 16,208.

Mr. Hugh Herren furnishes the particulars of a most extraordinary and unexpected elopement, to the Benton Democrat, which occurred near Monroe, on Friday of last week. It seems a man named Greene Ingraham has been for some time boarding with Mr. Robert Reynolds, who lives 4 miles southeast of Monroe. Ingraham was a widower, while Reynolds was married, about eight or nine months ago, to a young lady of excellent family. On returning home on Friday last after a brief absence, Reynolds discovered that his boarder had flown with the partner of his bosom. The fugitives had flown south, and it is supposed have gone to California. Reynolds' first thought was to follow, overtake and bring back his erring bride, but upon mature reflection, he decided to let both parties have their own way. The woman was quite young, highly respected, and her unfortunate course is a source of deep regret to her parents and friends, who can discover no cause for her action, except a freak of thoughtlessness.

The people of Olympia are pestered by porcine grunTERS. Politics in Washington Territory run high.

Snow fell to the depth of two inches at Hamilton, Nevada, on the 21st ult.

Ninety-eight cargoes of wheat have been cleared from the port of San Francisco this year.

The Grant Invincibles, of San Francisco, paraded on the night of the 25th ult., in full uniform, over 1,000 strong. With brilliant lanterns they made a fine appearance. They wound up with a grand jubilee chorus at Union Hall.

A pear tree in Salem has produced two crops this season.

A young man named Morgan, of Baker City, accidentally shot himself in the arm with a pistol last week. Will recover.

The Greeley-McFaddenites at Olympia have chartered a steamer to canvass the Sound country in.

The managers of the late Fair held at Olympia, cleared $200 after paying all expenses.

Large numbers of Chinamen are arriving almost daily at the Dalles from the interior. They are en route for Portland to go into winter quarters.

The compensation of the Chief Clerks of the late Legislature was $400 each, and their Assistants $300 each.

A correspondent of the Statesman says Ransom Baker, an old resident of Scio, committed suicide recently by hanging himself to a rafter in his own house.

Dallas is to have a barber shop soon.

The Eugene City Journal says it is informed that two of the Rhear boys killed nineteen geese at three shots, a few days ago, and sold them all at fifty cents each.

Among the new postoffices recently established in Montana Territory is one at Camp Baker. Gen. John S. Hammel has been appointed Postmaster.

A drayman at Olympia has a mule which is 17 hands high, weighs 1,443 pounds, draws 6,000 with ease, and can kick with a nine horse-power force.

New houses are going up all over Baker City, and there is great demand for more. Every house that can be occupied at all is full.

Thirty-six guns were fired in Helena, M. T., over the signal triumph of the Republicans in Pennsylvania, Ohio and Nebraska.

Hon. W. W. Bristow has appointed a son of Mr. Sears, of Coast Fork, to the Agricultural College at Corvallis.

The Olympians are expecting a visit from Mrs. Fair.

All the vessels recently arrived at San Francisco have been chartered to load with wheat for England.

Sacramento has a novelty called the "Flying Bakery." It consists of a cooking range drawn about in a nicely painted wagon, on which excellent waffles are baked by two cooks, and sold at a low figure.

Thirty wheat cargoes cleared from San Francisco last month up to the 29th.

One of the candidates for Auditor of King county, W. T., has had to publish a card assuring the people whose support he seeks that he can write a legible hand.

Two young ladies near Olympia were so badly scared the other day by the entrance of a strangely-acting woman into the dwelling, as to result in the total insanity of one of them.

A new saddlery and harness shop has been started at Hillsboro.

Stock in Klamath basin is reported in admirable condition, and the country is rapidly settling up.

During the past summer vast herds of sheep and goats have pastured upon the Sierras at an elevation of 9,000 feet above the sea.

Judge Quint who defended Mrs. Fair in her late trials, has sued her for $3,075 counsel fees, which she refuses to pay. She has not paid her other counsel, Judge Curtis.

Heavy snows in the mountains somewhat retard mining in Utah.

There are indications of an early and heavy winter at Salt Lake.

Three light but distinct shocks of earthquake were felt at Wilmington, Cal., and vicinity on the 28th ult.

Geo. W. Mowe, late State Insurance Commissioner of California, died at Sacramento last Monday.

Brighton Young has obtained authority for starting a National Bank in Salt Lake City. He will be President.

It is said the Mexicans of Arizona are as bad as the Indians.

The grain crops in Montana are reported unprecedented.

Civil war is thought to be imminent among the Chinese in Idaho Territory. Each side is collecting arms and ammunition.

San Juan Island is now a part of Whatcom county according to the desire of Emperor William, and per consequence Whatcom becomes one of the most wealthy, populous and important counties in Washington Territory.

By the decision of Emperor William in the San Juan Island matter, Washington Territory gains about as much land as is embraced in the State of Rhode Island, and an addition to her population of about 300 persons, among them 250 voters.

Ye local of the Oregonian has seen a tomato lately grown in the garden of Senator Corbett, weighing just two pounds.

A demi monde died very suddenly in Portland last Monday. Was taken sick in the morning and died in a few hours.

The Clerks of the late State Senate had not finished up their work up to last Tuesday.

Senator Jas. K. Kelly and Congressman-elect, Jas. G. Wilson, will start for Washington by the next outgoing steamer.

Independence is reported to have 120,000 bushels of wheat in store.

The West Side Railroad trains will commence running to St. Joe next week.

Weekly newspapers cost more in California, by from 100 to 200 per cent, than in the Eastern States. Cause, the high price of labor, and we suppose, the small number of subscribers.

The Railroad excitement in California has not diminished.

San Francisco has laid the foundations for a new City Hall.

An Oregon horse won the Ashcraft cup at the recent Clinton (British Columbia) races.

A Cruel Hoax.

The following grotesquely horrible story is translated from the Paris Figaro:

This day eight days a wedding was celebrated at A—. A merchant's clerk, named Marius Crampin, married a young girl of eighteen, called Anna R—. Anna R— was an orphan from childhood, and had been educated by an old priest dead six months ago. Though she was very attractive and had a dowry of 50,000 francs—a respectable sum for a simple clerk—Crampin was far from jubilant when he left the church. Some of his friends, in fact, on hearing of his marriage, had sneered at the matter in rather a singular manner, without offering any explanations, and had declined being present at the wedding. Besides, when the sacrifice was consummated, Crampin felt tormented by suspicions which before marriage he had repelled with contempt. In order to dispel them he drank deep, and toward midnight he was pretty mellow. It was now time to retire to rest.

The bride went first and extinguished the tapers. Five minutes afterwards Crampin in turn arrived. "Hello!" he exclaimed, stumbling, "my wife pretends to be asleep. We must light the candle again." But just as he was about to strike a light with a match he heard a rustling of curtains, and a man appeared—a man of great height, wrapped in a white shroud that was spotted over with blood, and without a head. He carried a red lantern. Crampin uttered a stifled exclamation, the bride rose hastily, and the two remained spellbound by terror at the frightful spectacle before their eyes; for from the corners of the room emerged three other headless persons, all clothed in white but blood-bespattered winding sheets, each with a red lantern in the one hand, and his head in the other. They stationed themselves in front of the fireplace and saluted the young couple in a ceremonious manner. Then, strange to tell, they spoke. Crampin, in his terror, knew not whether the voice issued from the body or from the head. "Good day to you, citizen Crampin," said one of the headless beings; "I am Joseph Grigois, a client of the wife's great-grandfather."

"Give me thy hand, Crampin," said the other sneeringly, "Madame knows me too. I lost my head in 1838 at the hands of her grandfather." By this time Crampin was down on his knees, and his bride was moaning in a state of distraction from fear. But they were alone in the house, which was situated at the gates of the town, and nobody came near them. The third phantom then advanced.

"Little one," he said in an amiable tone, "thou canst boast of having had a grandfather who did his work admirably. I, too, passed through his hands."

"Good God!" groined Crampin, in despair, "the man without a head talks through his nose." "Step out children," called out the fourth specter, "nuptial ball is about to begin. Forward both!" And the four guillotined persons, taking their place, broke into a dance—a supernatural tango that froze the blood in the veins of the young couple. They leaped up and down, backward and forward, spreading wide their winding sheets like jugglers with their heads. It was frightful, and all the more when suddenly they burst out in chorus and sang some stanzas of a horrible grotesque song.

Then all at once opening the door they disappeared in the dark lobby, after having deposited the four heads on the knees of the bride. "Merciful heavens!" gasped the latter with horror, "the clients of my family?" What family, madame?" yelled Crampin, horrified, in the midst of his terror, by the exclamation. "Forward, give me," supplicated the bride, throwing herself on her knees before him. "Grandpapa was an executioner." The wretched Crampin sprang to his feet and then fell senseless. As soon as he returned to himself, without taking time to pack his trunk, he precipitately left the town and has not been again seen. The investigation of the police into this mysterious affair resulted in the discovery that the four guillotined persons were none others than the friends of Crampin, who had learned, one knows not how, of the unfortunate connections of the bride. Their four heads were four millions.

When you read a book crush the words as you would grapes, and suck their meaning out. It is the only way to get the pure wine of thought from the vintage of literature.