LOCAL MATTERS.

REPUBLICAN CITY CONVENTION.

The Republicans of the city of Albany are requested to meet in Convention, at the Court House, on Saturday evening, November 30th, 1872, for the purpose of putting in nomination candidates for the offices of—

Mayor,
Recorder,
Marshal,
Treasurer,

and six Councilmen, to serve the city during the coming year. By resolution, all parties who voted for Grant at the late Presidential election, are invited to participate in the Convention.

By order of
CITY CENTRAL COM.

VINEGAR WORKS.—At the upper end of First street, in close proximity to Magnolia Flouring Mills, in a two story frame building, Mr. W. J. Hiltabedel, something over a year ago, commenced the manufacture of pure cider vinegar. By a close study and strict adherence to known facts in the science of chemistry, and aided by what Mr. H. calls an "acetifier," an invention of his own, requiring months of study, he has succeeded in making as fine an article of pure cider vinegar as was ever manufactured; and when we say pure cider vinegar, we mean an article that is made from the juice of the apple, without the aid of any drug whatever. There are a thousand gallons or more of splendid vinegar at the factory now ready for market, and from ten to fifteen thousand gallons of cider almost ready for "business." As this is a home enterprise, we hope our citizens will extend to it a liberal patronage, as we are satisfied they cannot get a better article, and the price is the same at which inferior articles are sold; and by patronizing a home institution they retain an amount of money that would otherwise go to foster some bloated outside monopoly.

CONTRADICTED.—The paragraph printed in the REGISTER last week, to the effect that the demand for wheat in San Francisco was greater than the supply, and that an early and considerable advance in the price might be expected in consequence, is all knocked in the head by a Portland paper, which pronounces the item "bosh," unprofitable, etc. It was always thus. Some people can't bear to see others happy. Naturally of a cross-grained disposition, they delight in nothing more than to make other people miserable. "There never was a rose without its thorn," as Smeltzer used to say. We only wish the contrary was invested all his surplus change in a bet on Missouri, even up—that's all.

A CHANCE.—Any lady securing fifty subscribers for the REGISTER, sending names and money to this office, will receive for her trouble a splendid "Victor" Sewing Machine for her trouble. The machine will be delivered to her at this office, or carefully packed and shipped to any address she may select. The Finkle & Lyon Victor sewing machine is one of the very best manufactured. For forty subscribers a Home Shuttle machine will be given. Any lady wishing to earn a sewing machine on such easy terms, by applying to this office, will be furnished with extra copies of the paper, illustrated circulars, etc. free of charge. Here is a chance to get a useful and ornamental article with very little trouble.

DEEP SNOW.—Messrs. Chas. Mealey, Farrel and others, who arrived from a two weeks hunt in the mountains a few days since, report the snow five feet deep in the Cascades, and still storming when they left. They report deer as being very plentiful. While at Buck Mountain they heard a rumor that Abe Hackleman was in the mountains beyond Fish Lake, with a band of cattle.

RETURN THEM.—Parties having in their possession any book or books belonging to Albany Collegiate Institute Library, are requested to hand them in at once.

THANKSGIVING.—A union service will be held on the day appointed for national thanksgiving, Thursday, Nov. 28th, in the Congregational Church of this city, at 11 o'clock A. M. Sermon by Rev. S. G. Irvine. "It is a good thing to give thanks unto the Lord." There will be no service at the Congregational Church on Sunday next.

CONVENTION.—See the call of Republican Central Committee for a convention of the citizens of this city, on Saturday evening, November 30th, at the Court House, for the purpose of putting in nomination candidates for the various city offices there enumerated. A full attendance of citizens is asked.

THE FUNERAL.—Of Miss Libbie Woodward will take place in the M. E. Church, at 3 o'clock P. M., on next Sabbath, Nov. 24. The music will be conducted by Prof. Warren and his school, for which account the tune has been changed from 11 A. M., to 3 P. M.

PORTLAND AD.—Mr. W. Asbenheim, commission merchant and dealer in all kinds of game, poultry, etc., Portland, presents his card in this issue, and asks the patronage of our people. Men who hang out their sign in a newspaper will do to "tie" to always.

BAUM.—Nathan Baum throws himself in sight this week, with a fine stock of boots, shoes, clothing, etc. Having good business sense he seeks the true channel of wealth by advertising what he has for sale, and inviting the people to call and see him.

QUERY ANSWERED.—The local of the Statesman asks: "Who knows what to do with his nose this kind of weather?" We would kindly suggest to him that he heighten the color of his, just the least nite, and it will then make a very good sign over a gin mill!

PERAMBULATORS.—For a full stock of the latest and gayest in Perambulators, go to Chas. Mealey's Furniture Warehouse, corner Broodalbin and First streets, where you can buy anything in the line of furniture, etc., either Eastern or home manufacture, cheaper than the cheapest. 10w4

A. C. INSTITUTE.—First term closes Friday, November 30th. Examination of classes begins on Monday morning, November 27th. All friends of education are cordially invited to be present. The patrons of the Institute are certainly expected. The second term begins on Monday, December 2d. All who expect to attend during the winter, should be present at the opening, that they may be properly classified.

BEAUTIFUL.—We saw at the gallery of Mr. Paxton, on Thursday, one of the hand-omest pictures—the likeness of a little child of one of our prominent citizens—that we ever saw anywhere. The picture is perfect, seemingly impossible to be improved upon. As a photographer, Mr. Paxton has few equals anywhere, and he never was better prepared to execute fine work than at the present.

SHEDD.—This promising village, named in honor of one of the sterling farmers of Linn county, now contains a large warehouse, two stores, blacksmith shop, harness shop, church and several dwellings, and affords a good and convenient market for the produce of one of the finest farming regions in Oregon.

BOOTS AND SHOES.—N. Baum has just received a large and new stock of the best kind of BOOTS and SHOES, and will sell them, with his large stock of clothing, cheaper than any other house in the city. Give him a call before you purchase elsewhere, and you will save money. 9tf

WORK ON THE CANAL.—Owing to the rough weather work was suspended on the Santiam Canal on Thursday of last week. The weather improving, however, Mr. Morris commenced work again on Wednesday, and says that he will continue, rain or shine, until the work is finished, as he has secured a full complement of "wet weather" hands.

FIRE—Loss $300.—About half past ten o'clock on Monday morning, a fire was discovered in the residence of Mr. W. R. Cannon, on northwest corner of Second and Broodalbin streets. In a few minutes after the alarm was given, our Onesters were on the ground, and soon had two streams playing on the fire. The furniture, etc., was all removed from the building in good time, but in such a careless manner as to materially interfere with its future usefulness. The fire was soon put out, the whole premises being deluged with water. It is estimated that the repairs to that building will cost between five and six hundred dollars.

Another.—On Tuesday evening our citizens were startled by the cry of "fire!" The alarm was caused from the breaking or explosion of a coal oil lamp in the kitchen of the St. Charles Hotel. No great damage was sustained, we believe, beyond a big scare.

EDITH O'GORMAN.—This lady lectured at Parrish Hall in this city, on Monday and Tuesday evenings, to full houses. She is one of the best women orators we ever listened to. She claims to have been a Sister of Charity, to have lived in a nunnery for several years, and is therefore fully competent to tell of the inner workings of such institutions. So far as her experience goes, she seems to have "soured" on catholicism, and wherever she goes, she makes "Rome howl" by the "reflections" she casts upon nunneries, etc., under Catholic rule. She lectured at Eugene on Wednesday night. She is a talented little woman, and creates a sensation wherever she goes.

SCARCITY OF FEED.—From statements made to the Statesman, and from other quarters, it is believed there is a great scarcity of feed for cattle all through Eastern Oregon. Snow is reported as having fallen in Oclaco valley and the ranges beyond; that the weather is unusually cold and grass short. If these reports prove true, and the winter prove a hard one, the cattle interest will suffer very largely. We hope for the best.

TERRIBLE.—Two members of the Board of Equalization, Curry and Whiteaker, were in Salem on Wednesday, awaiting the arrival of the third member, Col. Gates, to commence business. Thereupon the Statesman pathetically remarks: "The 'ex-Guvs.'" have a heavy responsibility resting upon their shoulders just at present, and were it not that they are sustained by a liberal salary, there might be danger of their sinking beneath the load!

FROM FISH LAKE.—Mr. Bart. Wishard returned from Fish Lake last Wednesday. He reports that the snow on the other side of the pass is some two and a half feet deep. He traveled through snow for a distance of eighteen miles. He was four days making the trip, seventy miles.

NEW LANDLORD.—Rumor has it that Mr. N. S. Du Bois, grocer of this city, is soon to take charge of the St. Charles Hotel as landlord. Du Bois knows how to keep a hotel.

PARAGRAMLETS.—Friend DuBoise still monopolizes his share of rheumatism.

It is reported that ten thousand bushels of wheat have been purchased in this city during the week, for which from 57½ to 60c per bushel was paid. A fine assortment of boots and shoes at Blain Young & Co's.

The fine instruments lately received by Dr. Gray, together with new invoices of material for dental work, give him enlarged facilities for the execution of superior work, for which he has gained an enviable reputation.

From present appearances thanksgiving tables will not be graced by a great many turkeys, at least in this prairie.

The extreme dullness that pervades business circles is caused by the lack of trade!

There was an attendance of ninety students during the term ending Nov. 29th, at Albany Collegiate Institute.

Lee Burkhardt's new residence is about completed. It is a handsome as well as handy residence.

Navigation above the Dalles, on the Columbia river, is reported closed for the season.

Dr. Ballard, of Lebanon, was in the city on Wednesday.

Prof. Aulrey, Edith O'Gorman's agent, was hauled up before the Recorder and asked to pay a lecture license, exacted by the city, of $5 per night, on Wednesday. He paid the bill, amounting in all to $12, but grumbled thereat.

Weather has been generally pleasant during the week—cool, sharp nights, with warm, sunny days.

Mr. William Peters will soon have on hand a number of fine side and end spring hacks, thoroughbraces, etc., home manufacture, which he will sell as low as the lowest.

If you want the latest thing in furs, warm and handsome, go to Blain, Young, & Co's.

The O. S. N. Co. refuse to receipt for freight on the Columbia river above the Dalles.

The engraving of this city, expected to be ready for this issue, is not yet out of the hands of the engraver. As soon as it is ready it will appear in the REGISTER. It is a large work, and takes time. In the mean time all who wish extra copies can send in their orders, accompanied by the cash, and they will be filled as soon as the engraving appears. Price—12½¢ per single copy, or ten copies for $1.

As soon as full official returns for all the counties come in we shall publish them. Grant carries the State by a majority of not far from 3,500.

Mrs. J. L. Harris has been prostrated by disease, preventing her from attempting to go to the Dalles the first of the week, as intended, seeking to benefit her health by the change.

Mrs. Godley may be prevented from going to Walla Walla the present winter, by the early closing of the Columbia river, but she is still willing to sell her fine stock of millinery, etc., to a cash customer, at a bargain, and take the chances.

The first "cullid passon" on record—Joseph Scout, of many colors.

The latest wooden wedding—Henry Block and Amanda Board.

Fire on Monday, at the residence of W. R. Cannon; on Tuesday, at St. Charles Hotel.

Edith O'Gorman had good houses on Monday and Tuesday nights.

TO BE CLOSED.—Mr. A. B. Paxton, desiring to take a little recreation, after a long and busy summer, will be absent from the city, after the 30th inst., to the 9th or 10th of December, during which time the gallery will be closed. 12w2
