LOCAL MATTERS.

THE CITY ELECTION.

Republican Elect the Mayor, Recorder, Treasurer, Marshal, and four of the six Councilmen.

The city election, held on Monday last, passed off quietly, although there was more feeling, and our Democratic friends made more strenuous exertions to elect at least a portion of their tickets, than at the Presidential election.

Table listing election results for Mayor, Recorder, Treasurer, Marshal, and Councilmen, including names like M. F. Brown, Coll. Van Cleave, J. R. Haven, and C. C. Kuhn.

Democrats in Italics; Republicans in Roman. Total vote of city, 269.

PROCEEDINGS OF COUNTY COURT.—December Term—Judge Tandy presiding.

Bernard Hunt vs. Aleck Kollar and John Popper—Sheriff's sale confirmed.

J. T. Gilmore vs. Geo. W. Settle: action to recover personal property (a horse seized by defendant as constable)—jury trial; verdict for plaintiff.

R. and L. Cheadle vs. William Phipps; motion for leave of Court to issue execution—motion granted.

In Probate.—In the matter of the estate of Richard Evans, dec'd.; order granted to sell the personal property of the estate of said deceased.

Estate of William Farrier, dec'd.; report of sale of real estate; ordered that the sale be vacated and that the property be resold.

Estate of J. P. Hogue, dec'd.; report of sale of personal property—sale confirmed.

Eli B. Moore, dec'd.; application to sell real estate; Jas. Washburn appointed guardian ad litem for minor heirs; order to sell 240 acres of real estate.

Estate of John Robbett, dec'd.; Hiram Smith, administrator with will annexed, filed report of sale of personal property—sale confirmed.

Estate of Caroline Lytle, dec'd.; petition to sell real estate filed; second day of March term, 1873, set for hearing the same, and ordered that citation issue to heirs to appear at that time.

John A. Smith, dec'd.; last will and testament of deceased admitted to probate; L. C. Rice, executor, filed bonds in sum of $20,000; John Isou, Alexander Brandon and Joseph Harrison were appointed appraisers to appraise the estate of said dec'd.

Busy Day.—Monday was the busiest day we have seen in the city for a long time—in interest and excitement it doubled the count of November 3d. Our Democratic candidates had carriages running to bring in the old and feeble, the halt and blind, and they "wrasseled" energetically for votes, but all to no avail—the fiat had gone forth, and the banner of Democracy has been lowered, and victory is with the Republican party.

CHANGE OF TIME.—A new timetable went into effect on the O. & C. Railroad on Tuesday. Hereafter passenger trains will arrive at this city at 12.15 P. M.; freight trains, going north, 8.55 A. M., going south, 3.25 P. M.

BUYING PRICES.—Butter commands 30c per lb; eggs, 24c per dozen; dried apples, 6 1/2c per lb; dried plums, 16c per lb; dried beans, 3 1/2c per lb; potatoes, 37 1/2c per bushel.

WOOLEN FACTORY.—Now that the completion of the Santiam Canal to this city, early in the coming summer, is an established fact, the query suggests itself to every citizen who is looking to the future of our city, "what enterprise shall be inaugurated to make the Canal a paying investment, and at the same time conduce to the growth of the city and the general welfare of its people?" We are led to believe that there is no one interest that will so completely "fill the bill" as that of a woolen manufactory. This being granted, our first aim should be to secure, at as early a time as practicable, such an interest. This brings us to the point: Mr. L. E. Pratt, a gentleman for sometime connected with the Salem woolen mills as Superintendent, and every way qualified to inaugurate and successfully manage such an institution, during the present week, visited this city, Lebanon and Brownsville, in search of the most eligible point to establish a woolen mill. He states that if the citizens of this city want such an institution erected in Albany, he is willing to aid, with capital and experience, such undertaking. A mill, the equal in size and machinery, to the late Oregon City mill, can be erected for about $60,000. The investment of this amount of money in such an enterprise would be of more value to the general interests and wants of Albany, than the investment of double the amount in any other enterprise that can be mentioned. If our citizens will take the necessary interest in this matter, the securing sufficient capital to insure the early erection of a woolen factory, thus creating a market for wool as our own doors, can very easily be accomplished. If, however, the matter creates no interest, and no exertion is made in this direction, there is danger that inducements may be offered elsewhere that will deprive us, at least at this time, of the establishment in this city of so desirable an industry.

DEDICATION OF TRINITY CHURCH.—This church building is situated near Knox's Bate, four or five miles from this city, and was dedicated to the worship of God according to the ritual of the Methodist Episcopal Church, Sunday before last, by Rev. Stephen Bowers, of Salem, assisted by the pastor, Rev. J. H. Rook. The building is a tastefully-constructed frame, 40x28 feet in size, containing a vestibule, and surmounted by a belfry and spire. It was built mainly by a membership of eleven women and five men, at a cost of from twelve to fourteen hundred dollars. It is furnished with comfortable seats, stove, carpeted aisles and beautiful lamps, and instead of the old time pulpit, it has a platform elevated some nine inches, upon which is placed a stand for Bible and hymn book. This church edifice is a credit to the taste and generosity of the Methodists in that community, and much credit is especially due the popular pastor, Rev. Mr. Rook, for his untiring efforts, as engineer of the enterprise from beginning to completion. This is the second enterprise of this character he has been instrumental in completing on that circuit.

FOR DARRERS.—Mrs. J. L. Harriss and family, accompanied by the mother of Mrs. Harsh, took the noon train en route for Dallas, Wagon county, on Tuesday. Mrs. Harsh has been in poor health for some time, and her husband thought a change in a dryer and clearer atmosphere would prove beneficial in restoring her to good health, in which hope their many friends in this county heartily unite.

PORK PACKING.—Messrs. J. B. Heron and Wm. Westlake have secured the large building on the bank of the Willamette, just above the Froman Warehouse, and have engaged in the business of pork packing. Farmers will always obtain the highest market price in cash for their pork, at this establishment, and our citizens can obtain "square ribs" and "backbones" to their heart's content.

FOR THE HOLIDAYS.—A. C. Eggson will soon be in receipt of a full assortment of goods especially for holiday gifts. In the meantime for desirable groceries, etc., call at his store.

JOLLIFICATION OVER THE CITY ELECTION.—A grand jubilee and jollification, regardless of noise, expense and politics, was held in this municipal hall last Tuesday evening, over the result of the city election the day previous. Party lines, it is true, had been strictly drawn, the contest at the polls had been warmly contested, more animation had been displayed probably than was seen in the late Presidential contest, but the feeling on both sides, we believe, was not one of animosity, but rather one of generous emulation, holding itself ready to accept cheerfully the result of the vote at the ballot box. The Republicans got away with everything except two Aldermen, and of course they could "rejoice," and so they raised some cash, purchased some powder, and so on, and sent out a hand-bill inviting the "other side" to flock to the Court House and "be merry." Music by Albany's unsurpassed brass band, luggerous bonfire, and the tremendous wood-ripping roar of a couple of anvils, used for cannon, brought a smiling crowd of ladies and gentlemen to the Court House, and David Froman, Esq., was called upon to give dignity to the occasion by taking the "Cheer." Mr. Froman did it, and then various persons were called out and made speeches, music by the band being thrown in between them. Messrs. Hinman, Cartwright, Settlement, Elkins, Mealey and Brown shot of their mouths more or less, and the audience applauded to the echo. Mr. Hamon took an eloquent oratorical swoop from the American flag to ancient Troy, and then lit on the Recorder's office, making good hits en route. Mr. Elkins expressed his gratification, at the flattering expression of confidence given to him by his fellow citizens at the polls, and said, while he would labor diligently for the interests of the city, the Santiam Ditch would not be neglected. Mr. Cartwright made a few very pertinent suggestions to Albanians who find fault with Magsbals. Mr. Settlement thought he could do some things better than make a speech (applause) and one of them was to take care of the city's funds. Mr. Mealey thought he should be pitied rather than complimented, as he had been Alderman before. Between that office for one year and the small-pox, he believed he would choose the latter. General Brown being called for, said it was the first time in his life he ever knew a corpse to be called upon to preach its own funeral. He submitted, however, and after bestowing a compliment on the ticket elected, took his seat. The audience then dispersed, and after a few more anvil guns were fired, peace once more reigned in Albany.

THE RESULT.—The result of the election on Monday is as gratifying as it was unexpected. We hoped that we might elect a portion of the ticket, but that we should "get away" with all the offices was too much of a good thing to hope for. The selection made, we believe, gives more general satisfaction than any ticket selected for years. We speak more especially of the Recorder, Treasurer, Marshal and Councilmen, the latter representing the very best men of both parties in the city. We hope that the expectations of the people, in their election, may be more than realized, and that through wise counsels and careful guard and watch of the interests committed to their charge for the twelve-month to come, Albany may make marked progress in growth and prosperity.

ALBANY.—One fine engraving of this city has at last been completed, and will reach us by to-day's steamer. It will appear in next week's issue of the REGISTER. Again we request those wishing extra copies of the REGISTER of next week, to leave their orders to-day or to-morrow, as after that time it will be too late.

DEATH.—The little daughter of Mr. Hart, agent O. & C. R. R. at this place, died on Saturday evening and was buried on Sunday. The family have the sympathy of the entire community in their deep affliction.

TRAGEDY.—Just as we go to press we learn that Mr. J. Alpha's young boy fell off the bed, the fall breaking his neck.

WHEAT.—This article commands from 90 to 95c per bushel in this city.

HARRISBURG CORRESPONDENCE.

HARRISBURG, Dec. 4th, 1872.

ED. REGISTER.—Our city election on the 2d inst., passed off quietly, without any political strife whatever. There were, however, two tickets in the field—whisky and anti-whisky. It was thought by the friends of each ticket, that the contest would be close, until about noon, when the champion of the whisky ticket seemed "to drop his feathers," and all was "quiet on the Potomac." This champion was heard to remark, late in the evening, that it was illegal for a man to vote unless he was elbowed up to the polls by —. The following result shows a complete victory of the anti-ticket, by five to one:

Mayor, J. Stites; Recorder, J. S. Grimes; Marshal, W. Knott; Treasurer, G. W. Brandenburg; Councilmen, L. Douglas, W. C. Davis, B. R. Holt, Job White, S. R. Woodbury and L. F. Shipley.

The late rains have raised the river to good boating stage, but it is of but little consequence to the people of Harrisburg, as we have had but one boat to this place since the completion of the railroad.

School opened very favorably this week, in charge of Rev. W. Bishop.

The young ladies of this place are getting up a leap-year party for this evening, at which we presume they will act the gentlemen? to perfection; but we will give you a full report next week.

JUBILEE.—A grand jubilee was given by Mr. J. E. Smith to his colored brethren of this city on Thanksgiving night, at his residence, on Second street, at which skyrockets were fired, speeches made, all winding up with a splendid supper, such as only Smith can cook. It was a pleasant occasion to all the partakers, nothing transpiring to mar the pleasures of the evening.

J. F. MCCOY.—Attention is called to the card of Mr. J. F. McCoy in this issue. Mr. McCoy is an enterprising, liberal gentleman, and has few equals in putting up fine saddles, harness, etc. Call at his shop and examine his excellent goods, and the low prices at which he offers them.

STOCKHOLDERS.—In the Beaver Coal Mining Company, at Lebanon, are directed to a notice in this issue, requesting all who have not paid their assessments on the shares represented by them, to come forward at once and do so, lest said assessments cause the selling of the stock.

LOST.—On Saturday evening, November 10th, either at the Court House or on the street, a gold pen and holder. Any person finding the same, is requested to return it to Dr. Geo. W. Gray, who will pay a liberal reward therefor.

The value of property in Linn county, as found on the assessment rolls in the office of the Secretary of State is $4,040,130, and increase of $2,655 over last year. The total value of the property in the State as assessed is $37,173,428.77, an increase of $2,438,909.02 over last year.

PERSONAL.—Mr. J. F. Backensto started for the mountains on Thursday morning. Mr. Adams, who is canvassing for his historic map of the world—the completest thing we ever saw of the kind—called on us Thursday.

CASH PAID FOR PORK, EGGS, WHEAT AND OATS, by Wheeler, at Shedd, Dry Goods, Clothing, etc., etc., sold at prices to correspond with the times, by the same accommodating dealer.

AN EXTRA.—Train passed over the O. & C. Railroad, going South, on Tuesday night, carrying a company of soldiers to the front, to take a hand in the Modoc Indian war.

RETURNED.—Mr. Farusworth, sewing machine agent, has returned, and is now ready to receive orders for the "Victor," Banner, Home Shuttle, or any other machine.

NEW COMERS.—Three families, from Iowa, arrived in this city on the noon train, Wednesday.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

Gold in New York 112 1/2. Legal tenders 83 1/2 @ 80 1/2 c.

Wheat in Liverpool—Average, 12s. @ 12s 6d; club, 12s 8d @ 13s.

Quotations in San Francisco on the 3d were: Wheat, choice, $1 70 @ 1 75; barley, $1 30 @ 1 55; oats, $2 @ 2 15 @ 100 lbs.

During the week as high as 65c per bushel has been paid for wheat, but one firm, however, so far as we have been able to learn, paying that figure, the general price being 60c.

The Bulletin argues that as the surplus wheat in the East is much larger this season than ever before known, and that the same is true of Canada, unless there shall spring up a sudden demand, at high rates, in England, there is little hope of an advance in the price here.

PETERS' MUSICAL MONTHLY completes its Tenth Volume with the December number, and it is doing Mr. Peters but simple justice to state that his excellent magazine is improving with age. It was good years ago, when it first made its appearance, and it has been steadily improving until the present time, when it can only be pronounced perfect, and indispensable to every lover of music. The December number, price 30 cents, contains three Ballads, a Christmas Song, an Anthem, a Four-hundred Piece, as played at Theodore Thomas' Orchestral Concerts, and three splendid Piano Pieces, any single piece being worth in sheet-music form more than Mr. Peters asks for the entire lot. Giving so much really good music for such a small sum, it is no wonder that Peters' Musical Monthly has hosts of friends among our music loving people. Those who have seen it will, of course, renew their subscription for the coming year; others, less fortunate, should send the Publisher, J. L. Peters, 509 Broadway, New York, $1, and secure the last four numbers as sample copies, or $3, for a year's subscription.

ELECTION.—The annual election of seven Directors, for the Linn County Agricultural Association, will occur on the 2d of January, 1873. See notice.

COLDS.—This is the general complaint, now-a-days, caused by the many and sudden changes in the weather.

NEW GOODS.—An invoice of new goods received at Blain, Young & Co.'s during the week—some new and attractive styles.

A WOLF DANCE.—An interesting reminiscence of early times, written for the REGISTER, will appear next week. Write often.

CRANBERRIES.—A fine lot of Eastern, to be had at Blain, Young & Co's.

THANKS.—We are indebted to Judge Tandy for County Court proceedings.

HOW TO GET A FIRST-CLASS SEWING MACHINE.—Any lady securing fifty subscribers for the REGISTER, sending names and money to this office, will receive for her trouble a splendid "Victor" Sewing Machine. The machines will be delivered to her at this office, or carefully packed and shipped to any address she may select. The Finkle & Lyon Victor sewing machine is one of the very best manufactured. For forty subscribers a Home Shuttle machine will be given. Any lady wishing to earn a sewing machine on such easy terms, by applying to this office, will be furnished with extra copies of the paper, illustrated circulars, etc., free of charge. Here is a chance to get a useful and ornamental article with very little trouble.

PERAMBULATORS.—For a full stock of the latest and gayest in Perambulators, go to Chas. Mealey's Furniture Warehouse, corner Broadalbin and First streets, where you can buy anything in the line of furniture, etc., either Eastern or home manufacture, cheaper than the cheapest.
