

BUSINESS CARDS.

A. C. LAYTON, DEALER IN Groceries, Provisions, Etc., ALBANY, OREGON.

WILL STRIVE TO KEEP THE BEST of goods in my line, and sell at the lowest living rates. Call and see me.

At North Browesville, KIRK, HUME & CO., ARE STILL SELLING

DRY GOODS, CLOTHING, BOOTS, SHOES, HARDWARE, GROCERIES, NOTIONS, ETC., ETC.,

of which they keep on hand a full stock, and are able to sell at lowest rates, as usual, for Cash or Produce.

MITCHELL & DOLPH, Attorneys and Counselors at Law, SOLICITORS IN CHANCERY AND PROBATE.

POWELL & FLINN, Attorneys and Counselors at Law, AND SOLICITORS IN CHANCERY (L. A. Flinn notary public, Albany, Oregon).

W. G. JONES, M. D., HOMEOPATHIC PHYSICIAN, ALBANY, OREGON.

D. H. JONES, M. D., PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON, ALBANY, OREGON.

OFFICE—SOUTH SIDE FIRST STREET, up stairs, in J. M. Beach's store-house.

T. W. HARRIS, M. D., Physician and Surgeon, ALBANY, OREGON.

OFFICE—OVER TURRELLS STORE, First street, Residence—Third-st., one door west of Methodist church.

DENTISTRY.

GEO. W. GRAY, D. D. S., DOES ALL WORK IN THE line of his profession in the latest, best and most approved method.

LEFFEL & MYERS' Water Wheels, SPHERICAL FLUMES, And General Mill Machinery.

N. S. DU BOIS & CO., HAVE ON HAND AND CONSTANTLY receiving a large stock of Groceries and Provisions.

ALBANY BOOK STORE, Established in 1856.

E. A. Freeland, DEALER IN EVERY VARIETY OF miscellaneous books, school books, blank books, stationery.

GO TO TURRELLS FOR GENTS' Clothing and Gent's Furnishing Goods of all descriptions.

The Eyes! The Ears! DR. T. L. GOLDEN, Oculist—At Aurist, Albany, Oregon.

BLEEN IS A of the noted thalidic doctor, who has had experience in treating various diseases to which the eye and ear are subject.

The Flows, W. Star, Florida, of all kinds and sizes. The largest stock ever offered in California.

PACIFIC COAST NEWS.

The funeral of Father Waller at Salem last Friday was largely attended.

The Corvallis Gazette was delayed last week because of sickness in the editor's family.

Eggs are 75 cents a dozen at Walla Walla.

Olympia had a full time on Christmas.

Ike Bowman, of the Idaho World, fell down on the sidewalk in Idaho City, one day last week, and broke his arm.

In San Francisco, on the 22d ult., Jo. Fazen bit off Thomas Clark's nose. Fazen was arrested for mayhem.

The Rev. Mr. Weeks has a flourishing church and Sabbath-school established on San Juan Island, which is well attended.

Miss Speake, of Olympia, who was taken to the Insane Asylum at Steilacoom about two months ago a raving maniac, has returned home happily restored to mental health.

The Boise Statesman of the 19th says "flour is getting short at that place and is selling at $9 per barrel, with very little in the market."

The railroad question is agitating the people of Idaho.

The Supreme Court of Washington Territory made the following appointments of United States Commissioners: Wm. H. Andrews, of Walla Walla; H. M. Newton, of Yakima county, and Joseph H. Houghton, of Olympia.

Walter S. Kitchen has been held to appear before the U. S. District Court for Oregon on a charge of robbing the mail at Yantis Station, on the Boise road.

Several Indians holding claims in Whatcom county, W. T., have built houses, fenced lands, have stock, and are holding claims like other settlers.

A purse of $27 was contributed of "the sinners' mite" to the Rev. Wm. McPheeters at the Christmas tree festival in Olympia.

From Salt Lake, Dec. 27th, comes this: About 2.30 this afternoon an avalanche 600 feet wide and 12 feet deep, came down, crossing the stage road and carrying away from eight to ten teams and teamsters, backing them 1,500 feet across Cottonwood Creek.

A correspondent from Linkville relates a sad episode of the Modoc

Indian butchery of the settlers. He states that one of the victims of the bloody carnage was Richard Carvigan, who was killed on the Boddy place.

Capt. Isaac W. Smith, Engineer of the Locks, has been presented with a gold watch on behalf of the workmen and other friends.

From Visalia, Cal., Dec. 24, comes this: James McCreery, a desperado, killed Charles Alen, about 5 o'clock this afternoon. He was arrested within a few minutes by the officers in an out-house to which he had fled, armed to the teeth.

Over $100,000 have been expended in buildings in Olympia and Tumwater this year.

A stranger at Astoria, while passing by Arrigoni's Hotel, fell through a hole in the wharf and narrowly escaped drowning.

The new Custom House and Post Office at Astoria will soon be completed. It is a much needed improvement.

Public meetings are being held in Wyoming on the subject of breaking up that Territory and parceling it out among the surrounding States and Territories.

It is thought the sum of $20,000 will be appropriated by Congress to go on with the building of the Territorial Penitentiary at Steilacoom.

A change is announced in two of the officers of the Oregon Central Railroad, (West Side.) A. de Pourtales is the Vice President and Jos. Gaston, Secretary.

The Statesman says Monday the Governor signed Commissions which were countersigned the day following, and sent to the parties concerned as follows: A. Noltner, Notary Public at Oregon City—re-appointed. A. C. Jones, Notary Public at Albany—re-appointed.

The Jacksonville Sentinel gives a rumor that the Modocs have killed a herder near Langell valley, and two other men not identified.

may be true, as no time is given, it is possible it may have been done at the same time the other murders were committed, as that valley was not searched for several days after the battle.

The rumor that deer have the epizootic is denied by hunters.

During last year 83 steamships arrived in Portland, and 79 departed.

Below Cathlamet last Saturday, a man, name not given, was killed by the falling of a tree.

The election of officers for the ensuing year, is as follows according to the Oregonian: Captain, Jos. R. Wiley; 1st Lieutenant, John Storan; 2d Lieutenant, T. Malloy; 1st Sergeant, W. H. Courtney; 2d Sergeant, J. J. Barrett; 3d Sergeant, Paul Kingston; 4th Sergeant, Owen Kinney.

In Nevada near Virginia City on the 30th ult., a Piute Indian named Buffalo Bill, while drunk, went to his camp, obtained a revolver and shot and killed another Indian, whereupon the Piutes formed a vigilance committee, seized the criminal, tied him hand and foot, beat out his brains and cut his throat.

All the Consular flags were at half-mast in San Francisco last Tuesday, out of respect to the late King Kamehameha.

The gold coinage in San Francisco during last year was $16,000,000; silver, $16,380,600.

A correspondent of the Bulletin writing from the North Yamhill, Dec. 31st, says that last Sunday Mr. J. Torrence went into his pantry for the purpose of taking a lunch, there being a plate of cold boiled beef standing on one of the shelves.

Tons of turkeys, chickens, ducks and geese were cast into the San Francisco bay on the 25th ult., the market having been overstocked.

Olympia has a female dentist. Hay is $20 per ton at Olympia. Olympia has ten saloons and one Good Templar's Lodge.

A petition to Congress asking for an appropriation of $25,000 for the improvement of Yamhill river is being circulated, says the Bulletin.

Mormons hate the Federal officials among them with a perfect hatred.

They are already beginning to look around in Washington Territory for the candidate who will be the next Delegate to Congress.

Two livery stable keepers at Walla Walla, having contracted debts to the amount of from $7,000 to $8,000, then decamped for Boise.

A Tenbrook has been appointed postmaster of Hot Springs postoffice, Jackson county.

Woodpiles at Jacksonville have a way of going off speedily.

The Plaindealer, of Roseburg, has again been appointed litigant organ of Douglas county.

Marion county has lost some $50 Merino sheep by dogs lately.

W. G. Boyes, proprietor of the Boyes Hotel at Halsey, died on Sunday last. The disease of which he died baffled the skill of the physician.

G. F. Rice, an old and prominent citizen of Visalia, Cal., was shot in the bowels, it was thought fatally, on the 28th ult., by Erastus Weiesner.

Baker City is talking of building three wells and purchasing a fire engine to protect against the "devouring element."

It is rumored that the earthquake shook the spectacles from the nose of a somewhat distinguished professor at the Forest Grove University.

The late rise in the Willamette compelled the Salem flour mills to suspend operations.

Lycurgus Vineyard, of Polk county has fallen heir to $100,000 left him by his grandfather.

It is reported that Mr. Trullinger is building a warehouse at Center-ville in Washington county, and also a small steamer to ply on the waters of Dairy creek.

A man in Polk county raises fifteen pound turnips.

The youngest daughter of Rev. Thomas Condon died at the Dalles a few days ago.

The Yreka Journal says the Modoc news published by the San Francisco Chronicle from its correspondent, is entirely sensational and false.

The editor of the Baker City Democrat saw smoke issuing from Mount Powder on the 18th ult., thirteen miles distant.

Mr. George Swift, living on Little Birch Creek, Umatilla county, got his feet badly frozen a few weeks ago in the mountains.

A lady fainted in the theater at Portland last Saturday night.

The burning of the old University building at Salem the other day, involved a loss of some $300 in doors, timber, etc.

Chinese have been jailed in Baker county for robbing sluices.

Mr. Baldwin, of Yaquina Bay, has raised a cabbage weighing 56 lbs. What a cabbage head!

W. W. Dennis left Jacksonville without paying his bills. Though absent, he "still lives" in Jacksonville's memory.

The epizootic can have a chance on 64,625 horses in this State—the number given by census.

Two panthers were killed and one wounded at a single shot by an Indian on Rogue river the other day.

It is singular that the true source of the great Snake river, Lewis' Fork of the Columbia, was discovered only last summer.

It heads in Madison Lake, which was hitherto supposed to be the source of Madison river. The lake lies behind the "Tetons" (pronounced tee-tows), to your right as you go up the overland road from Salt Lake to Montana.

A postoffice has been established at South Mountain, Owyhee county, Idaho, and T. J. Vinton appointed postmaster.