FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

Gold in New York fluctuating; last quotations 113 1/2.

Legal Tenders, 88@89c. Wheat in Liverpool—Average, 12s 5d@12s 6d; Chb, 12s 10d@13s 1d.

From the Bulletin we learn that the British ship Whittington was towed to Astoria on Wednesday, to receive balance of cargo. The Barcoouta had commenced loading wheat, and the Felix Mendelssohn would be ready for the reception of outward cargo on Thursday or Friday.

Telegrams from San Francisco in relation to the markets are meagre and unsatisfactory. We can but give the quotations as sent by the Associated Press:

Flour—Quiet; extra, $5 75@5 25. Wheat—Choice shipping, $2 07 1/2; small lots dull at $2@2 05 @ 100 lbs.

In Portland prices continue to fluctuate, but the general average price of wheat seems to be $1 70 @ cental. Oats continue in good demand at $1 55@1 60 @ cental. Barley is a scarce article in the market, and is quoted at $1 40@1 45 @ cental. Feed—Middlings, $30@33 50 @ ton; bran, $16@18 do. Flour—Best brands quoted at $5 50, while common range from $3 75@4 75 @ bbl, large shipments being made to San Francisco, where Oregon brands stand higher than any other, and are quoted at $5 75@6 25 @ bbl. Butter—Ordinary, slow sale at 18@20c; fair country, 25@30c; fancy dairy in demand at 42@45c @ lb. Eggs—The supply exceeding the demand, prices are 20@25c @ dozen. Fruit—Apples in good supply at 50@75 @ box; pears scarce, at $1@1 50 @ box. Potatoes—Full supply, at 35@37 1/2c @ bushel delivered in the city. Poultry and Game—Scarce at good figures; chickens, $1 50@5 50; geese, $10; mallard ducks, $2 50; small do, $1 50; pheasants, $2 50; quails, $1 50@2 @ dozen; turkeys, 16c @ lb. Hay—Timothy firm at $15@18; wild, $8@11 @ tmn. Hides—Green salt, 7 1/2c; green, 6c; dry, 16; dry salted, 12 1/2c @ lb.

Since our last report, our farmers have assembled in their several districts, and organized Clubs, associating themselves together not only for the interchange of ideas on the best modes of farming, etc., but for mutual aid and protection. So far as reported to us, these Clubs, some four or five in number, embracing among their members the most experienced and wealthy farmers in the county, have resolved with hardly a dissenting voice, to erect their own warehouses in which to store their grain. There is, we believe, a proposition on foot for the several Clubs in the county to unite in the erection of a mammoth warehouse and wharf at Astoria, ground having been offered them at that point on the most advantageous terms. The completion of the Locks and Canal at falls of the Willamette, will enable them to ship grain direct to Astoria, thus saving immense sums heretofore paid for livery, etc. Our farmers have gone to work with an apparent determination of making themselves masters of the situation—placing themselves in a situation to demand and receive the highest attainable price for their products for the future. Whatever is intended to benefit the farming community will conduce to the general welfare, and we are at all times willing to aid, with all the power we may possess, the furtherance of such objects. Plans for the attainment of desired ends should be thoroughly and completely canvassed and fully matured, so that when the actual work is commenced there will be no lingering doubts or questions of feasibility to retard the vigorous prosecution to a successful issue. We shall refer to this matter as often as occasion may require.

Albany markets remain in statu quo. We quote:

Wheat—We have heard of no sales in excess of 80c @ bushel, and therefore quote at that figure. Oats—Nominally 46c @ bushel. Eggs—20c @ dozen. Butter—25c @ lb. for best quality. Meats—Beef, 4 1/2c @ lb. net; pork, 6c do.

Weather cloudy but pleasant. Business still dull. Money a shade easier.

A paragraphist has puzzled us again. He asks: "Why do women always carry their pocketbooks as though they considered them on exhibition?"

TIME POSTPONED.—The time for drawing, in the Omaha Gift Enterprise, has been postponed to March 31st, 1873, as we are informed by circular from the office of Mr. J. M. Pattee.

MODOC LECTURE.—Sam Colver, Esq., lectured at the Court House in this city on Tuesday night; also, at Good Templar's Hall, on same evening. Sam made one of his characteristic speeches, we learn, no doubt making the hair fly.

AT REDUCED RATES.—Wheeler & Co., at Shedd, are selling Winter goods of all kinds at reduced rates, to make room for a large Spring stock. Call and see.

RUMORED.—It is rumored on the street that the opposition steamboat company intend erecting a new wharf in this city and at Salem for their purposes. This is rendered necessary by the fact that the old company has control of all the other wharves at the points mentioned.

The following is taken from the Oregonian of the 14th inst: "In the course of the interesting remarks made by Judge Bonham in the Supreme Court on last Saturday, upon the death of the late Mr. Cranor, he said that the latter had often said to him that the best guide a Christian man could take for his conduct in this world was to be found in the following stanza from Pope's universal prayer: "What conscience dictates to be done, Or warns me not to do, This teach me more than hell to shun, That more than heaven pursue."

The Corvallis Gazette of last week has this: "Mr. Jack Allphin, of "Chop House" notoriety, with his family, came up on the Alice last Wednesday, and has leased the old Eagle Hotel. Mr. A. informs us that he is out of the whisky business, at the request and desire of his family, and intends to stay out. He will keep a first-class Restaurant or Chop House. Meals at all hours, day or night. Corvallis greatly needs just such an institution as this, and we bespeak for Mr. A. a liberal patronage.

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.—The penetrative and healing action of this potent salve is a marvel throughout the world. Nothing else should be relied on in scrofula, cancer, salt rheum, erysipelas, and external injuries. Sold 78 Maiden Lane, N. Y.—Price, 25 cents per pot. Ask for new style; the old is counterfeited.

SAVE YOUR DOCTOR'S BILLS.—When Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry will cure coughs, colds, bleeding at the lungs, and arrest the fell destroyer, Consumption. It does more than most physicians can do. A single trial will satisfy the incredulous. 22

A fire at the residence of the late Edwin Forrest, in Philadelphia, destroyed a portion of his library, consuming nearly all of his valuable Shakespearian collection, including the famous original folio published in 1623, and valued at $5,000. The fire did not extend beyond the library.

The uprightness which is occasioned by a malignant boil, is not sought after near as much as the other kind. However, some men would not consent to be upright very long, but for one of 'em.

A special telegram to the Chicago Times says that the verdict in the Stokes' case was a surprise to no one in the crowded court, more than to the prisoner himself. He was ashy pale, and fainted; but the fact of his fainting was not known but to four or five persons.

Onslow and Whalley, Eng., have been fined £100 each for publicly accusing Sir John Duke Coleridge of conspiring to deprive the Tichborne claimant of his rights.

J. J. Moulton, Postmaster at Mobile, is reported defaulter for $30,000, which, it is said, however, has all been recovered. The assistants have all been arrested for embezzlement.

Right Hon. Stephen Lushington, Q. C., England, died on the 20th.

John Wise, the balloon man, is constructing a large air vessel in which he proposes to sail across the Atlantic.
