vants returned in the morning, they found Madame Lucca seated on the veranda, in front of a little table. on which lay a cocked revolver, quietly reading.

The would-be thief and murderer was secured and safely transferred

The gentleman who related the above, and vouches for its truthfulness, is very enthusiastic over the bravery of Madame Lucca, and declares that Moltke never conceived as brilliant a strategic movement as this of Madame Lucca in catching the thief.

Albany Register,

INDIAN NEWS.

The following dispatches came by the O.S. N. Co.'s telegraph to the Portland dailies on Monday :

UMATILLA, May 5, 1873.—The mail carrier from Yakima reports that Father Wi.bur, on April 30th, was at Miller's ranch on his way to Simcoe from Spokane, having with him fifty Indians that belonged to his reservation. He was taking them home from Spokane. He reports everything quiet. He says that the Indians that were at Priest's Rapids have all left, being divided up into small bands, and are going out to the camas grounds to dig DALLES, May 5, 1873 .- Father Wilbur is here in town, He does not believe in any Indian troubles.

The Owyhee Avalancie says Mr. Hill informs us that old Winnemucca, the chief, and about twenty warriors. have for some time past been in Jor-dan valley and vicinity, principally engaged in catching fish. They came up to Wagoutowa a few days ago on a trading expedition—swapping furs for flour. Mr. Hill only saw one gun with the party, and they complain of not having any ammunition. The less powder and lead they have in their pouches the better we are suited, at ast until the Modoc difficulty is set-

A gentleman just in from Green River, W. T., informs the Dispatch that the Indians are buying all the powder they can get from the country stores. No one Indian buys a large quantity, but there is an unusual demand for the article by many of them, far beyond their individual wants. All far beyond their individual wants. All the straggling bands of Indians about the Sound should be closely watched, for they are all evidently well in-formed as to what is going on in the infected districts, and are being used to procure supplies of ammunition for those contemplating hostilities.

The correspondent of the Record at the Lava Beds in his dispatches of April 28th says : You do us grave injustice in your remarks about killing squaws. They were killed in the fight, the one, at least, and the only one killed by the soldiers. They fight like devils—load guns and are as dangerous as the bucks, and should share the same fate. No squaws have been killed except in battle. Four are now fed and protected at the camp—taken since the fight was ended. They will not be harmed, though at the first chance they will flee to the Modocs with arms and ammiliation if they can get a chance to steal away, and in the event of another fight they would return to our lines to do the same thing over again. Remember they are not white women, but flends guilty of torturing and murdering every one of the wounded soldiers who fell in their hands, and horribly mutilating the dead. Remember the fate of the soldiers. dead. Remember the fate of the sol-dier of the Twenty-First Infantry, wounded and left on the field of battle on the 17th of January. The squaws tortured him in every conceivable way all night long until death put an end to his suffering. This they ad-mitted to be so during the interval employed in futile peace efforts. Do not waste any sympathy on such fiends; for it will be impossible to ex-pect a soldier to scare one of them on pect a soldier to spare one of them on the field.

Day before yesterday, in searching the Lava Beds, the body of the private of troop F. First Cavairy, wounded and taken prisoner, in the battle of January 17th, was found buried under a pile of rocks. The body bore evidence of the tortures inflicted on the poor fellow. It was scalped, the finand toes cut off, and otherwise gers and mutilated.

WASHINGTON, May 5. - General Washington, May 5.—General Sherman, in conversation on Modoc affilirs, shows he fully appreciates the situation. He has entered on the subject with his characteristic energy. All reinforcements required will be sent to Schofield without delay, to the last man that can be spared. A regiment will be conveyed to Omaha, to be in readiness for prompt movement. A body of 400 Indian acouts will be relead.

Samstor Casserly has had several in-serviews with General Sherman, and a milished no effort will be spared at antiquesters to enable General Scho-lett to inflict on Captain Jack and his fellow savages a blow that will not soon be forgotten by them or the tribes on the Pacific coast.

General Sherman has no fears of a general Indian war.

President Grant and family were expected to arrive at Chicago from Galena, May 3d, to spend a few ONIONS IN A SICK ROOM .- A correspondent commends onions as a specific against epidemics, not as an esculent, but sliced and kept in a sick room, where they will absorb any atomospheric poison. They should be replaced by fresh ones every hour. It is noticed that in the room of a small-pox patient they will blister and decompose very rapidly, but will prevent the spread of the disease. Their application has also proved effective in case of snake bites.

COMFORT FOR WIDOWERS .- A negro minister who married rather soon after the death of his wife than some of the sisters thought proper and becoming, excused himself as fellows: "My dear brethren and sisters, my grief was greater than I cold bear. I turned every way for peace and comfort but none came. I searched the Scriptures from Ginisee to Riverlations, and found plenty of promises to the widder, but nary one to the widderer. And so I took it that the good Lord did't waste sympathy on a man when it was in his own power to comfort himself; and having a first rate chance to marry in the Lord I did so, and would do so again. Besides, brethern, I considered that poor Patsey was just as dead as she would ever be."

The chameleon, who is said to feed upon nothing but air, has of all animals the nimblest tongue.-

"Did you not enjoy the sermon?" said her husband, thankful to see her in his pew again.
