The ice cream festival on Thursday night was a successful success. The Pacific Opera House was well filled. Our people are beginning to lay in their winter's supply of wood. Soda is the beverage that catches 'em during the heated term.

LAWS.--Next issue will wind up the laws, when we shall have more space and time to devote to news, etc.

PACIFIC COAST NEWS.

Minnie Myrtle Miller will soon return to Oregon. The police of San Francisco made eighty arrests on the 4th, between 9 A. m. and 12 m. A Chinaman, of Frisco, cut a Chinawoman's head off with an ax on the 5th. Some parts of Idaho smile in the prospect of a good crop. A second mate of the bark Jenny, lying at Port Ludlow, broke the captain's jaw-bone in two places, with a blow of his fist, a few days since. The mate was arrested. On the afternoon of the 4th, ten houses were burglarized at Marysville, Cal. They obtained two gold watches, a quantity of jewelry and $200 to $300 in coin. A correspondent of the Oregonian says Polk county will produce one third more grain this year than ever before; that stock of all kinds is plenty; that work hands are in demand at $1 50 and $2 00 per day; that times are improving. The Pantograph office has a young lady compositor. Corvallis merchants gave 22 1/2 cents per pound for wool last week. Lieutenant D. B. Boswell has been assigned to duty as Military Instructor in the State Agricultural College of Oregon, at Corvallis. The twenty-first anniversary of the organization of the First Congregational Church of Salem, will be celebrated on the 10th inst. Mr. Chalmers, of Washington county, was rather seriously hurt by having an infuriated cow run one of her horns in the fleshy part of his leg and give him a lift in the air, last week. John C. Arnold, of Lane county, the other day cut a crop of volunteer oats which would average about seven feet in height, though it was not uncommon to find stalks measuring nine feet. The Military Commission to try Capt. Jack and his Modoc braves, met at Fort Klamath on the 1st, and was called to order by Col. Elliott, President. All the members were present. Major Curtis, Judge Advocate, not being ready to proceed, the Commission adjourned until Saturday. Among the advertised amusements at Visalia, Cal., on the 4th, was a bull and a bear fight. Two children of Mr. Elster, living about 15 miles east of Visalia, Cal., were bitten by a rattlesnake on the 2d. One died in about six hours; the other was not affected up to the 3d. At Merced, Cal., on the 3d, Wm. McCluney, ex-policeman of Stockton, but now proprietor of a saloon at Merced, shot his wife with a double-barrel shotgun, loaded with buckshot, in the left side. If she died there was danger of his being lynched by the excited people.

At Fallsade, Nevada, a stranger named Lewis Dollinger committed suicide on the 3d by casting himself in the river at that place.

The coach drove for the St. Charles Hotel in Portland was fined $35 the other day for inhumanly maltreating a horse.

During the month of June, 1873, there were fifteen arrivals of sea-going crafts at Astoria, and twelve departures.

During the thunder and lightning of a recent Friday, the residence of Hon. H. A. Straight, near the Clackamas river, was struck by a bolt which passed down through the bath-room, hit a rifle which was loaded, tearing off the stock, but not discharging the gun. No other damage was done. The family were all out in the yard at the time.

James Williams, of San Francisco, was fined $200 on the 7th, for driving a horse, named Shoo Fly, to death.

A son of W. P. Kirkland, of San Francisco, 11 years old, had his face disfigured and eyes blown out by the explosion of a Chinese bomb, July 6th.

Unrequited love caused a colored gent, named John Maxwell, to suicide with strychnine at Eureka, Nevada, on last Sunday night. A soiled dove, called Crazy Jane, attempted suicide also.

At Astoria last week $6,000 were subscribed to build a wharf and warehouse at that place.

J. N. Matheny has been elected Chief Engineer of the Salem Fire Department. J. H. Haas was elected Assistant.

Two hoodlums caught a Salem lad bathing a few days ago, tore his clothing to pieces and then gave the bather a severe choking.

The following particulars of the death of Isaac Henshaw, of Polk county, are published: He tied a rope around his neck, then fastened it to one of his legs, in such a manner, that when he should struggle the rope would tighten around the neck, then fastened it to his arms so as to prevent himself from relief after he got into the water, then rolled himself off the bank into the stream and died.

A steer was slaughtered in Washington county a short time since which had been fattened in Yakima county. On skinning the beast several small pieces of gold were found imbedded in the fatty tissue near the flank. How did the gold get there is the question.

Salt Lake is shortly to be lighted with gas.

A man in Baker county is soliciting subscriptions for a monument to Robert E. Lee.

The Republicans of Eastern Oregon have proposed Rev. Thomas Condon, State Geologist, for Congress. Good man.

The Indian Superintendency of California as well as Oregon, has been discontinued.

The son of J. S. M. Van Cleave, of East Portland, aged nine years, was run over and seriously injured by the Salem bound train on last Friday evening. He was walking on the trestle work when the train overtook him. Instead of stepping one side and allowing the train to pass, paralyzed with fear he crunched down and clung to one of the ties, leaving a portion of his body exposed. Every effort was made to stop the train, but the locomotive and part of the caboose passed over him, cutting a gash above the left eye, slightly fracturing his skull and injuring him in other ways. On Sunday he was resting easy.

On the night of the 4th, the severest storm that ever visited Hannibal, Mo., and vicinity broke over there. Several houses were blown down and others unroofed. Much damage was done to fences, etc.

Walworth, the New York parricide, while on his way to the Tombs on the 5th, after his sentence remarked, "I am glad I did not have to endure a long lecture, which I had anticipated Judge Davis would inflict upon me. I thoroughly understand my position, and did not desire any instructions relating thereto. I simply wish time to arrange my affairs. I shall then submit myself to my fate with all the equanimity I can command."

At Winchester, Va., on last Sunday, while a family named Little were at breakfast, a fowl broke out. Two sons, Oscar and Lycurgus, commenced firing at the four other sons and their mother, and the firing was returned by the other sons. Oscar was wounded, captured and sent to jail. Another son named Clinton was wounded, and the mother. Clinton afterwards died and the mother was expected to die.

Prof. La Montane, of Brooklyn, Michigan, ascended in a balloon at Ionia on the 4th. After he had attained an altitude of five or six hundred feet, the balloon collapsed, causing the Professor to fall to the ground. It is needless to say that he was instantly killed. Ten or twelve thousand spectators were in attendance. On the 4th inst., two gentlemen, two ladies and a boy, sailing in a boat at Chippewa, on the Niagara river, got into the rapids and were carried over Niagara Falls. The names of the parties were not known. Pieces of the boat were found.
