

Albany Register.

LOCAL MATTERS.

POST OFFICE REGISTER.

MAILS ARRIVE: From Railroad (north and south) daily at 12.30 P. M.

VOLUME FIVE.—This number closes volume five of the REGISTER. If we have deserved the patronage of the public in the past, we hope to make the REGISTER still more deserving of a liberal patronage in the future.

ONCE MORE.—There are quite a number of persons in Linn county who are indebted to us for the REGISTER from the first number issued, to number 17 of volume 5—four years and four months.

REPUBLICAN PRIMARY.—The attendance at the Republican primary in this city last Saturday was the smallest within our knowledge, seventeen being the highest vote cast for any Delegate.

NEED REPROOF.—We have some boys in this place, youngsters about half way along to a monstache, at that age when they have the least sense and the most impudence.

PINE CREEK, W. T.—We are in receipt of a note from Mr. J. M. Propst, dated Pine Creek (W. T.), August 18th, in which the writer informs us that their health in that country is excellent, and all Oregonians thereabouts doing well.

FIGS.—We are indebted to Mr. Star Mealey for two of the largest ripe figs-grown in the garden of his father in this city, we have ever seen.

FIRE.—A frame building on the corner of Sixth and Ellsworth streets, caught fire and was burned to the ground on Sunday evening. The fire occurred between eight and nine o'clock in the evening.

SHOOTING SCRAPE.—On Tuesday at Jefferson, a man named Miller shot another named Slater. Drs. Smith, of Jefferson, and Rice, of this city, were called in and made an examination of the wound.

DRY GOODS.—N. Baum is expected up from San Francisco on the next steamer with an immense stock of dry goods of every description, among which will be found the latest in ladies dress goods, trimmings, etc.

NEED REPROOF.—We have some boys in this place, youngsters about half way along to a monstache, at that age when they have the least sense and the most impudence.

SHEEP.—Stock sheep are selling at from $1 25 to $1 75 per head.

EXCURSION TO LATHAM.—The Odd Fellows of this city and their friends will have an excursion by rail to Latham, on Pass Creek, at the head of the Willamette Valley—some twenty miles beyond Eugene.

BROWNSVILLE ITEMS.—A correspondent at Brownsville writes as follows: A few nights since a valuable horse belonging to Mr. Wm. Templeton was kicked by another horse that had succeeded in breaking his halter during the night.

SPANISH MERINOS.—Peter Saxe has on exhibition at Montgomery's stables, several pure blooded Spanish Merino bucks. They furnish very fine silky wool, and lots of it. See them.

DRY GOODS.—N. Baum is expected up from San Francisco on the next steamer with an immense stock of dry goods of every description, among which will be found the latest in ladies dress goods, trimmings, etc.

RUNAWAY — ARM BROKEN.—Mr. Chas. Barnes, an old citizen of this county, was thrown from a wagon on Wednesday, causing the breaking of his left arm in two places, at the elbow, and between the elbow and shoulder, and bruising his head and body considerably.

AS DESIRED.—All of our subscribers who wish, can receive the REGISTER, on the first floor of the Register Building, in the store-room now occupied by Mr. W. H. Dodd, thus saving postage.

"WHY! YOU KEEP EVERYTHING" —A remark very commonly made by persons paying their first visit to the complete and well arranged store of A. Wheeler & Co., at Shedd.

PERSONAL.—Mr. Goldsmith, President of the W. R. T. Co., was in the city on Monday. Layton Blain, Esq., of Blain, Young & Co., started for Frisco and new goods on Monday.

Rev. Mr. Butcher and family leave us next week for their new home at Dalles. Mrs. Cranor is slowly recovering from her late illness.

Mr. J. M. Metzler, of Jefferson, the great chair builder, was in the city on Tuesday. J. R. Moors, Esq., Land Agent of O. & C. R. R. Co., beamed upon us Wednesday—the same jolly, genial Ike.

Mr. Chas. Cartwright, of Salem, has been in the city during the week. Mr. G. B. Blood, insurance agent, returned to the city, after a long absence, on Wednesday.

Mr. W. O. Palmer will engage in merchandising at Tangent. He's a brick, and deserves patronage. Mr. Thomas Hannon, brother of Archimedes Hannon, a former resident of Linn county, arrived in this city from America a few days since.

SICKNESS.—A great deal of sickness prevails among those of our citizens who fled to the mountains for health and sport. Diarrhea seems to be the general "ail."

SPANISH MERINOS.—Peter Saxe has on exhibition at Montgomery's stables, several pure blooded Spanish Merino bucks. They furnish very fine silky wool, and lots of it. See them.

REED'S PANORAMA.—This beautiful piece of art, consisting of thirty paintings of Oregon scenery, will be exhibited in this city during the coming County Fair.

COLLEGIATE INSTITUTE.—With R.K. Warren as President, and an efficient corps of assistants, commences the school year on Monday next, with flattering prospects for a large attendance.

DISTRICT SCHOOL.—Will open next Monday, under charge of Mr. T. J. Stites, assisted by Mr. John Kitchen and Mrs. Adla Mansfield.

HARVESTING.—Has been seriously impeded by the heavy rains of the forepart of the week, and no little wheat damaged, we fear.

THUNDER STORM.—We were visited with quite a storm of thunder, wind and rain on Monday night.

CAUTION!—In our changeable climate, coughs, colds, and lung diseases will always prevail. Consumption will claim its victims.

We pledge our reputation on the assertion that any educated physician, after a careful examination of the recipe, will say that Parsons' Purgative Pills possess more merit than any other pill now offered for sale.
