THE APPEARANCE AT THE FAIR GROUNDS.—Thus early in the week (Monday), a day before the opening of the Fair, the Fair grounds present a very animated appearance. All the houses, stalls, etc., are fitted up and occupied, while a large number of people have spread tents, in which to "keep house," during the week. The big circus will spread its tent to-day. Two large boarding houses, where hungry mortals may obtain a "square meal," are in full blast. All the improvements suggested by past experience as necessary for the convenience and comfort of exhibitors and visitors, within the means of the society, have been made on the grounds, making them more attractive and lessening the complaints of former years. Judging from the expression one hears on every side, the show of products of the soil, of blooded stock, of machinery—and in fact everything that goes to make up a Fair, the present will be the greatest success ever achieved by the Linn County Agricultural Association. The attendance will certainly be much larger—probably double that of any former year—if we are to judge from appearances to-day, and from what we hear on the streets.

DUST.—One of the greatest inconveniences attendant on visiting the Fair, should no rain fall during the week, will be the dust. The roads, owing to the protracted dry weather, are covered with dust to the depth of several inches, and as it is kept in continual agitation by the passing and repassing of all kinds of vehicles, the visitor may expect to get his regular "peck of dirt" going out and coming in.

REED'S PANORAMA.—Is an Oregon institution, painted in Oregon by an Oregonian, and consists of Oregon scenery; and as the work is well conceived and well executed, Oregonians should not fail to show their approval of it by attending the exhibition of the paintings at the Court House. It will pay you to throw your eagle eye on to them every evening of its exhibition, which you will be enabled to do, as the admission is but 50c. Certainly no one will fail to attend the exhibition of Reed's Panorama.

W. H. DODD & Co.—Have established themselves in business on corner of Ferry and First streets, Register Building, where they offer to the public a fresh stock of groceries, all kinds of hardware, iron, steel, cider presses, agricultural machines, Mitchell wagons, etc., at fair, living prices. A disposition to do the fair thing by all who patronize them, has already attracted a large custom, and we predict for the firm a prosperous and profitable trade.

CROWDED.—Our hotels are already pretty well filled with visitors who are here to attend the Fair. As we write (Monday) there is a much larger gathering of strangers in the city than at any previous annual gathering so early in the week. Should the arrivals continue for the next two days in proportion, our hotels will be taxed to their utmost to accommodate them.

CAMPERS.—Two boarding houses and a large number of campers were on the Fair grounds as early as Monday morning. From the number of houses erected and canvases stretched, the grounds resemble a new and thriving mining town.

PERSONAL.—Mr. Blevins, of Ochoco, called on Monday. He speaks highly of Ochoco as a grain growing and grazing country, and thinks that rich gold diggings may yet be found there. He exhibited some very nice specimens of gold which he obtained about six miles from his farm.

Mr. S. M. Pennington, an old resident of Linn, who removed his family to Butter Creek, Umatilla county, something more than a year since, returned with his family, on a visit, arriving on Thursday of last week. They will remain a week or more visiting relations and friends.

Jerry, the show agent, threw himself in sight Monday. Dodge is the "git up and gitest" agent on the Pacific slope.

Mr. Wm. Morgan is up from Portland, to do the Fair.

Mr. W. S. Parrott, of Salem, has been engaged to paint ten scenes in the late Modoc war for Messrs. Levar and Co.'s Panorama. Mr. Parrott's acknowledged ability as an artist, is sufficient guarantee that the work will be well and faithfully executed.

THE CIRCUS—BALLOON.—Wilson's Grand Parisian Circus is at the Fair Ground, and will give entertainments every afternoon and evening during the Fair. As those will remember who attended the circus in this city not long since, it is the best that has visited Oregon for many years, and deserves better of the people. As an additional attraction, a balloon ascension will be made every day from the Fair Ground, which all may see, without money and without price.

TRAMWAY.—Howell, Harper & Co. have under way, and will soon have completed, a tramway, leading from their warehouse on corner of Ellsworth and First streets, down Ellsworth to the railroad track, which will enable them to transfer grain or other produce from the warehouse to the cars in short order. It is built of heavy timbers, and will cost a deal of money.

LEVAR & Co.'s PANORAMA.—Which exhibited at the M. E. Church on Monday night, was largely attended, giving general satisfaction. A large majority of the pictures are exceedingly well painted, while the whole panorama is an over average production, and as such meets with general approval wherever exhibited.

HIGHER STILL.—Late advices from Liverpool seem to indicate a greater probability of an advance in the price of wheat during the coming month than a fall in price. There are but 175 cargoes of wheat en route for the United Kingdom now, against 225 for the same period of last year.

HAVING RECEIVED.—An invitation to be in attendance at the ceremony of laying the corner stone of the new State Capitol, in Salem, which transpires on the 8th prox., if possible we shall avail ourselves of the opportunity and go. That's what's the matter.

CHANGE.—Twenty dollar pieces are getting pretty thick, but small change is exceedingly scarce. However, those who are indebted to us can pay us in 20's, and if there is anything over we'll give them due credit therefor.

CIRCULATING THEIR MONEY.—C. B. Comstock & Co., through their agent in this city, Mr. W. S. Newbury, have paid out forty thousand dollars in gold coin this season for wheat.

FINE STOCK.—The exhibition of stock, at the Linn County Fair this week, is said to be much larger and of finer grades than at any previous Fair.

LIVELY TIMES.—On Monday last, N. Baum sold about nine hundred dollar's worth of goods, mostly for cash. Baum is doing an excellent business.

CASH MONEY.—On Wednesday N. Baum expects to receive and pay out sixty thousand dollars on his wheat contract—quite a little pile of 20's.

MILLINERY.—Mrs. Allison has opened a new millinery store, in the room lately occupied by Mr. Struckmeyer's tailoring establishment, on First street.

Wilson's Circus exhibits at Dallas Saturday night.

REED'S GREAT PANORAMA.

VIEWS OF OREGON, WASHINGTON TERRITORY AND NORTHERN CALIFORNIA—GRAND SUCCESS OF ITS FIRST EXHIBITION IN ALBANY.

Monday evening the people of Albany were all thrown in a bustle and excitement to witness the Grand Panorama which they had heard talked of for eight months past, and which they were now ready to witness. Every person formed himself or herself into the critic of the evening, and were sure to pass judgment upon the work of art to be presented to them at whatever cost.

Every one, however, was agreeably surprised; we need not particularize. All were good, and all of them showed a softness of touch that we could hardly believe the hand of man was capable of doing with paint and brush. Indeed, the artist must have been thoroughly imbued with the spirit described in the following lines, as each scene was being painted:

"My hand feels skillful, and the shadows lift
From my waked spirit airy and swiftly;
And I could paint the bow upon the benedict heavens, around me play,
Colors of such divinity to-day."

No one present had any one particular favorite. They spoke of this one and then of that one—in fact each individual picture appeared to have been done by Zampieri—and like his paintings:

"He who observes it, ere he passes on,
Gazes his fill and comes, and comes again,
That he may call it up when far away."

This Panorama will be on exhibition at the Court House every night this week, except Saturday; it will then be taken to Hillsboro, where it will be exhibited in the Court House during the Washington county Fair, and from thence to Salem Fair Ground during the State Fair. After the State Fair it will be taken to the Eastern States. We advise our patrons and the public generally, to not let this opportunity pass without witnessing this wonderful work of art.

TO-DAY.—J. W. Nesmith will speak his character-piece to the unerrified in this city.

FINE SHEEP.—One hundred head of fine sheep, just from Vermont, are on exhibition at the Fair grounds.

THE WEATHER.—Has been exceedingly warm, unusually so far this season of the year.

Dates from New York to the 19th show that the money panic is creating the most intense excitement. Bank after bank has closed its doors, and the feeling of insecurity is seriously affecting business. The news from Washington, that the President had determined that the U. S. Treasury should come to the relief of the New York market, had somewhat abated the excitement. Further news is awaited with the deepest interest.

News from Spain to the 20th is that the Republican troops under General Paria have entered Malaga without opposition. The Carlists have raised the blockade of Olot. A force of Carlists made an attack upon Toloso, the Capital of Guipuzcoa, yesterday, but met a general resistance from the Republican garrison and were finally defeated with great slaughter.

The Sioux Indians are officially reported as being on another raid. Runners into Fort Fetterman state that a large party has split off from the main camp which was moving into Fetterman, in consequence of an Arapahoe having killed a Sioux on Tongue River. Two large war parties were also reported as having been seen thirty miles north of Fetterman, going east.

The Deer Lodge Independent says a man by the name of Graves, who has a band of horses on Snake river, recently saw a man crossing that river in his boat. He called to the man several times to come back with the boat, but he paid no attention to the warning. He then raised his Henry rifle, drew a bead on him and fired. The man fell overboard, disappeared beneath the water, and was seen no more. He is supposed to have been Daniel Case, a horse thief, who has just escaped from the Owyhee jail.

In New York, up to the 20th, $28,463,000 in bonds had been accepted at from 9 to 11½. All offers of bonds under 11½ are accepted by the Government.

A fire which broke out in the Yellow Jacket Mine, Nevada, on the 20th, caused the death of six persons. Very little damage done to the mine.

From Buenos Ayres comes the news that an unsuccessful attempt had been made to assassinate Dr. Sarmiento, President of the Argentine Republic.

From Calcutta comes the news of the loss at sea of the Suspendus with 180 Caelles on board.

The failure of Jay, Cooke & Co., together with their branches elsewhere, will affect the northwestern coast seriously, if their failure shall retard the building of the Northern Pacific Railroad. It is understood that the immediate cause of the failure of this great banking firm was owing to the fact that it was attempting to carry forward to a successful and rapid completion this great internal improvement—a burden that proved too much for even their great enterprise and wealth. The result of the failure on the N. P. Railroad will be looked forward to with great anxiety by the people of the Pacific coast.

The San Francisco markets show wheat quotations at our last figures, viz: $2 25@2 35 100 lbs. Oats, $1 75@1 90. Barley, $1 50@1 92½.

From Portland comes the complaint, from prominent exporters, that producers are crowding them, and that more wheat is being offered than they at present can get away with. As soon as wheat went up to $1, everybody was anxious to sell. This has had a tendency to somewhat weaken the price; yet where payments are deferred, buyers are still offering $2@2 05 5 cental for wheat.

Some dissatisfaction prevails among those who sold their wheat to Mr. N. Baum, as we understand it, because the full amount of money is not to be paid down at once. The agreement was, ten per cent. down, forty per cent. in thirty days, and the balance in sixty days—and we have no doubt the money will be paid in strict accordance with the contract. So large an amount of money can not be got together in a day—it takes time. At the lowest estimate, a million dollars will be paid out in this county, during the next two months for cereals. It takes time to get together so large an amount of money, and after it reaches this city it will take some time to pay it out. It is asserted that every steamer, including the one due at Portland yesterday, for Oregon, for some time to come, will bring at least $100,000 in gold, nearly all of which will be used in paying for grain already purchased.

We note no change in our markets. Wheat still continues to arrive, taxing our warehouses and mills to the utmost to accommodate it.

Butter remains at 25c 1/2 lb; eggs, 25c 1/2 dozen. Market fully supplied with vegetables at fair figures.

Undeveloped Vigor.

The feeble and debilitated usually fancy they are in a more hopeless condition than they really are. The resources of nature are not easily exhausted. Even when strength and appetite fall, when the eyes are heavy and listless, the complexion pallid, the nerves tremulous, the body attenuated, and the mind depressed, there is generally a reserve of latent power behind such palpable evidences of weakness. Various modes of treatment are resorted to by physicians in the hope of developing and rendering available this store of sleeping vitality, but the surest, and indeed the only thoroughly safe and reliable means of awakening the dormant energies of the system is a course of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Electricity, shower baths, the flesh brush, sea bathing, &c., may be well enough in their way, as auxiliaries, but they do not reach the source of the evil. All physical debility proceeds either from a derangement of the functions of the assimilating, secretory and vital organs, or from a sluggish constitution. In either case, and also in cases where both causes exist, the Bitters will invariably produce an immediate and salutary change in the condition of the patient, and eventually effect a complete cure. None of the dangerous alkaloids, too often administered as tonics, can be otherwise than deleterious under such circumstances, and to give mercury is positively criminal. The direct effect of the great vegetable specific will be manifested in an improved appetite, a more cheerful frame of mind, a gradual return of strength, an increase of flesh, and a healthier complexion. Meanwhile, however, the constitution, if inert and feeble, will have been roused and renovated by the subtle elements of invigoration contained in the Bitters. sup
