Compound pound Extract of Eucalyptus is a preparation combining all the value ite medicinal properties of the Eucalyptus which is cultivated in nearly every California garden for its medicinal utility, having become the household remedy for all disenses of the kidneys, biadder and urbary canal, and seminal weakness. It seems to lince a disrect admiry for the genito-urbary organs and their surroundings, and cures them by its alterative, healing and buseauic properties more effectually than any other known remedy.

It is also an invalactive for all disenses of the mucous and serous membranes, such as:
Bromehitis, Eaching Cough, Naucly for all diseases of the nucous and senors membranes, such as:

Bronchitis, Hacking Cough, Nausea during Preguincy, Dyspepsin, Leuchorrhoza, 14c.

This preparation is the result of Dr. Coleman's experiments with the medicinal properties of the tree in the U.S. Marine Hespital in San Francisco, in 1871 and 1872, where he had unusual facilities for testing the various methods of preparing the remedy, and its uses. It can be relied upon as certain to give the promised results, and hundreds of testimonials of its efficacy can be seen at his office, 45 Kearney St., San Francisco.

Coleman's Double Extract of Enemlyphus is a poverful, yet harmless, febritage, and is a special preparation for the treatment of the maintions fevers of our interior values, and is warranted to cure any case of Fever and Agneticated with it according to direct recanation for the resument of the mala-rious severs of our interior valleys, and is warranted to care any case of Fever and Agneticated with it according to direc-tions, while the baneful results of the use of the usual quintine and tursonical remedies for those diseases are entirely avoided. Beware of limitations, and take none but Coleman's.
