DR. GAMBLE-Has returned to this city after a short absence in the southero part of the State, with the intention of settling here for the practice of his profession. Luring a previous res-Idence here he was very successful as a physician, and will be welcomed back by a large circle of friends and admirers.

LEBANON LODGE NO. 47, I.O.O.F. -Was instituted at Lebanon, Linn county, Oregon, on the evening of the 17th inst., by Grand Secretary, C. N. Terry, assisted by Past Grand, Miller, of Salem, with the following named brothers as charter members: E.S. Withers, A. B. Griggs, W. G. Harris, 8. T. Miller, W. C. Foren and E. S. Carter. The election of officers resulted as follows : E. S. Carter, N. G.; A. B. Griggs, V. G.; W. C. Foren, Secretary; S. T. Miller, Treasurer. The following new members were enrolled the same evening; C. H. Ralston, P. H. Farrell, C. F. Moist, John W. Bell, John B. Miller and S. H. Claughton. The Lodge starts out under the most favorable auspices, and will no doubt soon take rank with the first Lodges in the State in point of efficiency and numbers. Success to No. 47.

FROST .- Heavy frosts are the order, nightly, these days, resembling young snow-storms. Just the kind of weather to ripen persimmon*.

Senator Mitchell sailed by the steamer John L. Stephens, last Saturday afternoon, for San Francisco, whence he will proceed in a day or two to Washington.

Delaware papers give sad reports of the condition of Ex-Senator Saulsbury's health. His once robust constitution has yielded at last, and is now very much shattered.

The saying "It's too thin," is not a vulgarism. Sheridan Knowles puts it in the mouth of Alasco, in the play of "Rose of Aragon."

£93,000 were shipped to New York from London and Southampton on the 18th. The Bank of England has fixed the rate of discount at 7 per cent.
