INSTALLATION.—The following named persons were installed as officers of Western Starr Lodge No. 10, I. O. G. T. for the ensuing term, by Mr. W. B. Carter, of Corvallis:

- D. E. Taylor, W. C. T.; Miss Lina Rideout, W. V. T.; W. Beach, W. S.; Miss Alice Griffin, W. A. S.; R. Fox, W. T.; Miss Lissie Williams, W. F. S.; Mrs. E. H. Griffin, Chap.; Miss Minnie Allison, W. M.; B. F. Purdon, W. D. M.; Miss Ella Rideout, W. L. G.; A. T. Arnell, W. O. G.; Miss Emma Cartwright, R. H. S.; Miss Emma Doncaster, L. H. S.; A. N. Arnold, P. W. C. T.

LUCKY ESCAPE.—Yesterday morning about 8 o'clock Mr. Stevenson had saddled his horse preparatory to taking a ride in the country, and had left him tied while he was in at breakfast. The horse from some cause commenced pulling backward and got down. The stable was small and in his struggling knocked a good portion of the sliding off one side of the stable and got one of his hind legs down between the floor and sill.

BEEF CATTLE.—Messrs. Hackleman and Davis, a few days ago brought over a fine lot of beef cattle from Ochee, co—seventy-nine head in all. Mr. John Althouse, who came over with them, reports a very pleasant trip across the mountains, the road being in fine condition.

TEMPERANCE LECTURE.—The condition of many of our sidewalks furnish a strong admonition to night rambling pedestrians to practice the precepts taught by the Good Templars.

RECORDER'S COURT.—Judge Hannon on Wednesday evening and Thursday morning dispensed justice to the following named persons for their lack of a proper regard for city regulations. Wm. Noble, drunk and disorderly, fined $5 and costs; Longfellow, $5 and costs; C. Williams, $5 and costs—in all amounting to $33.

SPLendid VIEWS.—Mr. Crawford, artist of Harrisburg, has sent us a number of photographic views of Oregon scenery, all beautifully executed, and perfect as representations or copies of nature. Several of these views are on sale at the post-office book store, where they can be purchased.

LUCKY.—Mr. Isaac Conn, while repairing a money drawer, asked the proprietor what he would take for its contents. He was answered that he could have all he found for a quarter of a dollar. On removing the tin covering of the lock Mr. Conn found a twenty dollar piece, four half dollars, a bogus half and a one cent piece.

FESTIVAL.—The festival of the Erodelphians was indeed a festive occasion. The young ladies of Albany are unequalled in getting up a pleasant entertainment. Cakes, nuts, nicknacks, notions and nonsense, numerically speaking, were numerous, and everybody seemed to be happy.

LUNCH.—Persons who are bunkering merrily after good things will find the Opera House a good place to go to appease their appetite, as the young ladies of the Erodelphian Society will serve up a first class lunch from eleven to two o'clock to-day.

PERSONAL.—Mr. J. Evans, of Pond, Reynolds & Co., San Francisco, called yesterday. Our old friend, Mr. Miller, started for the Yakima mines yesterday. We wish he may strike it rich.

The first cargo shipment of wheat made from Columbia river to New York, direct, was made by A. S. Mercer, in conjunction with several farmers, of Yamhill, in 1888. First shipment of Oregon wheat made direct to Liverpool was also made by Mercer and several farmers and citizens of Marion county, early in 1889.

THE UMATILLA HOUSE.—At Dalles, under the charge of Handley & Sennott, still keeps up its reputation as a home for the weary traveler. The house has been raised, rebuilt, and refurnished, and is now very comfortable, capable of conveniently accommodating a large number of guests.

HOTELS.—The American Exchange, at Portland, kept by Quimby & Perkins, is one of the best conducted hotels in Portland. The fare is excellent, the prices reasonable, and the proprietors the most gentlemanly, polite and accommodating of hosts. Their great popularity is shown by the fact that they have been feeding three hundred people per day for weeks past. As they have not been able to find beds for all who required them lately, the proprietors are about to furnish rooms in the two brick buildings, one on the west and the one on the south of the Exchange, which will be furnished in the best style, with new furniture, carpets, bedding, etc., making the accommodations superior to any hotel in the city.

WOOD'S HOUSEHOLD MAGAZINE.—For November, is one of the best for the year. The printing is especially elegant, the reading matter more than usually entertaining, and the editorials racy and pointed. The engravings, "Past, Present and Future" and the "Yosemite," are first class. It is the cheapest magazine at the price published in the United States. Published by S. E. Shutes, at New York city and Newburgh, N. Y., at $1 per year.

BLANKS.—We have just printed a quantity of blank deeds and mortgages—new and improved forms—which we will sell at low rates.

WHEAT.—Some wheat still continues to come to town. No change in market rates.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

Gold in New York, 108 1/4 @ 108 3/4. Legal tenders 90 1/2 @ 91 1/2. Wheat in Liverpool 12s 5d @ 12s 8d; club, 12s 9d @ 13s.

LUMBER.—Although there is apparently little building going on here, and our sawmills are run to their utmost capacity, the demand for lumber is greater than the supply.

On Thursday the Grand Jury returned a true bill against Dr. C. G. Glass and Chas. Mealey, charged with manslaughter.

REMOVAL.—Mr. Walter McFarland has removed his extensive stock of stoves and tin ware to the opposite side of Main street, and will hereafter occupy the brick building adjoining Mr. Connors Bank.

FOUND.—A gold locket and gold stud, which the owner can have by addressing post-office box No. 77.

The Oregonian of Thursday says: James R. Farrish, whose prosecution in the Circuit Court for the crime of forgery has elicited much comment, and concerning which such a diversity of opinions exist, was adjudged insane yesterday by the Court, and remanded to the asylum. He was conveyed there yesterday afternoon.

ALL WHO SUFFER from coughs, colds, bronchitis, croup, whooping cough, and the most to be dreaded of all, Consumption, can find sure relief in Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, which always cures when other remedies fail.

SEED WHEAT.—Howell, Harper & Co. have for sale a choice article of Wheat for seed, such as Fall or White Winter. Click and Chila Club, Sonora, &c., &c., all of which they will dispose of by exchanging for other wheat, or on other terms which will suit.

Living Advertisements.

A medicine that has done more than all the prescriptions of the pharmacopoeia to protect the human system against the bodily ills superinduced by unhealthy surroundings, is certainly worthy of universal confidence. It is mainly on account of its extraordinary preventive properties that Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is so exceedingly popular in localities subject to the visitation of miasmatic fevers and other diseases produced by impoisoned air. A family that has escaped sickness during a sickly season in consequence of using the Bitters as a safeguard, is a living advertisement of the virtues of the preparation. The whole neighborhood realize the fact. "I couldn't believe it," says one. "I scarcely credited the advertisement; but one must believe what one sees," says another. "It is the very thing we need in this unwholesome section of country," remarks a third. And the result is that the instinct of self defence, the first law of nature, induces three-fourths of that community to obtain a supply of the great vegetable antidote before the next sickly season sets in. In the winter, when the system requires extra vigor and elasticity to enable it to battle the effects of damp and cold, the Bitters will be found particularly serviceable. Rheumatism will not be apt to fasten upon muscles and nerves that have been braced up by this excellent invigorant and nerve; nor will the severities of the season, which have such a disastrous effect on the pulmonary organs of the feeble and delicate, be likely to exercise the same untoward influences in cases where the stomach and the external surface of the body (which always sympathizes with the digestive organs) have been toned and stimulated by a course of the restorative. The fits of indigestion and irregularities of the bowels which proceed from sudden changes of weather may always be averted by a timely use of the Bitters.
