COLEMAN'S No better evidence of the efficiency of Dr. J. S. Coleman's Compound Extract of Eucalyptus can be desired, than the following summary of cases, treated with this remedy alone, by that eminent physician, DR. DAVID WOODS, in the U. S. Marine Hospital, San Francisco, reported in the Abstract No. 1873 Pacific M. Journal: EUCALYPTUS

Table with 2 columns: Remittent Fever, Chills and Fever, Typhoid Fever, Influenza of Kidneys, Diuretic, Incontinence of Urine, Stricture, Hemorrhage, Inflamm. of Bladder, Disease of the Heart, Dysentery, Chronic Diarrhea, Gonorrhoea, Dropsy. Values range from 3 to 27.

Completely corroborative of the above are the reports of the experiments with Eucalyptus by Dr. Lehmann, of Berlin, Prussia, and Dr. Keeler, Chief Physician of the American Railway Co., published in the Am. Med. Jour., July, 1873.

It will be found very efficacious in obstinate cases of Dyspepsia, Bronchitis, Hacking Cough, Chronic Sore throat, Lencocera, etc., and in nausea during pregnancy.

Dr. Coleman's Double Extract of Eucalyptus is a special preparation for the treatment of FEVER and AGUE, and is warranted to cure every case treated according to directions, without the injurious results of the usual Quinine and arsenical remedies for that disease. Also pure fluid extract of Eucalyptus, in one pound bottles, for physicians' use. Beware of imitations, and take none but Coleman's. For sale everywhere, and by Hodges, Coker & Co., Druggists, Portland, Agents for Oregon. v3v39

The standard remedy for Coughs, Influenza, Sore Throat, Whooping Cough, Croup, Liver Complaint, Bronchitis, Bleeding of the Lungs, and every affection of the Throat, Lungs and Chest, including Consumption. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry does not dry up a Cough, but loosens it, cleanses the lungs, and allays irritation, thus removing the cause of the complaint. None genuine unless signed I. Wistar. Prepared by W. W. FOWLE & SONS, Boston. Sold by REMINGTON, HOSKETT & CO., San Francisco, and by dealers generally. 18v59

The attempt of Nellie Smith to commit suicide at Cincinnati the other day came very near being successful. The young man who saw her throw herself into the canal was a good way off, and when he got her out she was insensible and nearly gone. After being taken to a house near by and brought to, she explained that life had become a burden to her because her home was an unhappy one. She said she had prayed before taking the awful plunge, and was ready to go. This desperate little Nellie was just seven years old, and her immediate reasons for being so "rashly impetuous" was a medium sized spanking which her mother had administered that morning. Mrs. Smith had heard her suicidal threat, had seen her take the ear-rings out of her ears and deposit them in the box with the rest of her toys and trinkets; but Mrs. Smith was astonished when Nellie was brought home in a strange suit of dry clothes. She had no idea what precocious desperadoes the modern dime novel makes out of the infants of this generation.—St. Louis Republic.

At Terre Haute, Ind., a man named John Branch in jumping from a car caught his finger-ring on a screw and pulled his finger out by the roots. Mr. Grayler, of Green Bay, Wis., coughed up a peach-stone the other day, which he swallowed fourteen years ago. It has been a good year for coughing up such old relics. Two brothers, named Pollard, of Carlinville, Ill., recently attempted to kill each other with knives. A gentle fanning with a fence-rail by a stranger cooled them off to such an extent that the Abel business was not repeated.
