REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.—The Republican voters of Albany assembled in mass convention on Wednesday evening at the Court House.

THANKSGIVING SERMON.—The sermon of Rev. Isaiah Wilson, at the U. P. Church on Thanksgiving day, is spoken of as a fine effort.

THE THANKSGIVING DINNER.—Given under the auspices of the ladies of the U. P. Church, at Pacific Opera House, on Thursday, was, as predicted it would be, a grand success in every respect.

GOOD TICKET.—The ticket placed in nomination by the Republican Convention on Wednesday night is a good one, and meets with more general approval than any ticket nominated since we have been acquainted with the city.

READ THIS.—Owing to the crowded condition of our school, no scholars who reside outside of the District will be admitted.

DEATH OF AN OLD CITIZEN.—The mail brings intelligence of the death, a few days since, of Mr. Samuel Blain, an old resident of Linn county.

PERSONAL.—Sheriff Schultz, of Wasco county, and lady, were in the city Thursday and Friday.

Mrs. Ben. Cohn starts East in a few days. Ben. is making preparations to go to Europe in the Spring.

THANKSGIVING SERMON.—The sermon of Rev. Isaiah Wilson, at the U. P. Church on Thanksgiving day, is spoken of as a fine effort.

LEBANON CONCERT.—The Brass Band at Lebanon is to give a grand concert on the evening of December 19th.

FAREWELL SERMON.—Rev Mr. Oakes preaches his farewell sermon at the Opera House to-morrow morning at 11 o'clock.

MARKETS.—No change in the price paid for butter and eggs, but a change in the quality of the first-named article is loudly called for, even if the price is advanced.

A POOL.—For the twenty-five thousand bushels of wheat pool at the Farmers Warehouse, $1 05, we believe, is the highest offer yet made.

RELIGIOUS.—Rev. Dr. E. R. Gary will hold divine services in the Court House at 11 A. M. to-morrow—Sunday. All are invited to attend.

OPERA HOUSE SERVICES.—Rev. Mr. Oakes will preach at the Opera House to-morrow at 11 A. M. All are invited.

OREGON GRANGER.—Issued yesterday, is a neatly printed, well filled sheet, which bids fair to fill the niche it has elected to occupy.

RAIN.—"Just as we expected," it rained yesterday in the old-fashioned style—just as easy.

LUNCH.—At Pacific Opera House, was petronized liberally yesterday.

THE CITY ELECTION.—At Harrisburg transpires to-morrow.

Mrs. Blackwell believes that women should live to ninety years. "But how are we ever to know if she does?" asks the Commercial Advertiser.

Apalachicola, Florida, has lost $250,000 by the tornado, and is unable to replace one-tenth part of it.

A Christian church has been organized at Tokyo, Japan. They acknowledge Christ as the Savior, but hold themselves independent of all foreign churches.

Two thousand one hundred bags of wheat went into the ocean at San Francisco the other day, because a man had sawed off a spile to use for firewood.

"Galliarium" is St. Louis for hen-house. Next we shall have Equinarium and Bobinarium and Asnorium.

The eager anxiety with which girls rush to the seaside suggests the first stage of a rubber at whist. They cut for partners.

An old man named Scovill made an attack on J. J. Daly, a lawyer at Dallas, last Monday. The Statesman says: "Daly, some time ago, became responsible for a board bill for one Ezra Scoville, which he was obliged to pay.

Wm. O. Bruen's safe was robbed of $235, on Monday in Portland, and Henry Morton went to jail charged with having done it.

"Miss C—," said a gentleman, one evening, "why are ladies so fond of officers?" "How stupid!" replied Miss C—; "is it not natural and proper that a lady should like a good offer, sir?"

This is from the Augusta, Ga., Chronicle: "Delinquent subscribers should not permit their daughters to wear this paper for a bustle. There being so much due on it, there is danger of taking cold."

A gushing, but ungrammatical, editor says: "We have received a basket of fine grapes from our friend—, for which he will please accept our compliments, some of which are nearly an inch in circumference."

A Memphis reporter who parodied the prevailing weather without even once alluding to "the beautiful show," was promptly ejected from the fourth story window, as unworthy a position on a first-class journal.

A paper called the Interior is published at Stanford, Ky., and a correspondent says that from his knowledge of the editor, he is "unable to state positively that he will throw a great deal of spirit into his Interior."

A French writer has described a young lady as a creature that ceases to kiss gentlemen at twelve and begins again at twenty.

Michigan moonlight is dangerous, we should judge from the statement that "two men were robbed in Manchester, Mich., by moonlight."

In a letter to a friend, a young lady of Illinois states that she is not engaged, but she sees a cloud above the horizon about as large as a man's hand.

The Congregationalist has seen this item in a late invoice of fashionable New York furniture: "Elegantly upholstered kneeling benches for the weary and heavy laden."

Mayor Pierce, of Boston, has resigned.

The Republican Convention of Salem nominated John G. Wright for Mayor, James Coffey for Recorder, Joseph A. Barker for Marshal and J. H. Haas for Treasurer.

A medicine that has done more than all the prescriptions of the pharmacopoeia to protect the human system against the bodily ills superinduced by unhealthy surroundings, is certainly worthy of universal confidence. It is mainly on account of its extraordinary preventive properties that Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is so extensively popular in localities subject to the visitation of miasmatic fevers and other diseases produced by empoisoned air.

The Cuban accept the situation, and are preparing for war, should it come.

SHED WHEAT.—Howell, Harper & Co. have for sale a choice article of Wheat for seed, such as Fall or White Winter, Click and Chila Club, Sonora, &c., &c., all of which they will dispose of by exchanging for other wheat, or on other terms which will suit.
