HAPPY NEW YEAR TO ALL.

NEW YEAR'S EVE BALL.—Given by our Fire Company, was a perfect and brilliant success.

LEBANON GRANGE.—The following persons were elected, last Saturday, for the ensuing year at Lebanon Grange.

DROWNED.—Harry Gardner, a deck hand on the Shoshone, was drowned, last Sunday, about three miles below Wheatland.

STATE TEMPERANCE ALLIANCE.—The fourth annual meeting of the State Temperance Alliance will be held in Salem, commencing on Wednesday, February 18th, 1874.

PENMANSHIP.—Prof. E. P. Connor, of California, will commence a class in penmanship, at the District School-house in this city, on Monday evening next at 7 1/2 o'clock.

MUSICAL.—Mr. Albert Bartsch, piano maker and tuner, of Portland, will visit this city on Monday, January 5th, 1874, when those requiring his services, or wishing to purchase a new piano, will throw themselves in sight.

PERSONAL.—Mr. Leo Fox, merchant of this city, starts for Germany in a few days, to visit relatives and friends.

Wallace Mauzey, of Salem, was in good spirits on Wednesday when he called on us.

Col. Joe Teal was in the city the front part of the week.

Mr. Hale, late of Chicago, gave us a call yesterday. He proposes to go into the furniture business.

Rev. Dr. Hill will probably reach Oregon on the next steamer. The Dr. has been making an extended visit East.

A MISTAKE.—A local editor says there's not a girl in Page county, Iowa, who will marry an editor. As he is the only editor in the county, and he not celebrated for his beauty, it isn't astonishing that he should think and express himself as he does.

WHEAT SHIPMENTS.—Wheat has been leaving our warehouses at the rate of thirteen thousand bushels per day since the rise in the Willamette river is at present in good boating stage as far up as Harrisburg, at least, and freights will move rapidly with a river full of steamboats.

PUBLIC INSTALLATION.—On Wednesday evening next, at their hall in this city, the new officers elect of Albany Lodge No. 4, I. O. O. F., will be publicly installed.

MARRIED.—Our friend Mr. Isaac Conn, one of Albany's best mechanics, has gone and done it. It happened Wednesday evening, and Miss Alvira Brown was the happy bride.

NEW FURNITURE SHOP.—Fred. Graf is finishing up a new furniture shop adjoining Althouse & Co.'s planing mill. As a furnitureist Fred can't be beat in the State.

ENLARGED.—As soon as we can complete arrangements now under way, the REGISTER will assume its old size. For a few weeks we shall be compelled to issue but once a week with present size.

AGENT.—Mr. A. S. Powell is agent for the Astoria Farmers' Company, and is now collecting moneys due the Company on the last assessment.

COYOTES.—The festive coyote has thrown himself in sight quite frequently since the snowfall in the hills, on nearly every occasion exhibiting a morbid appetite for mutton.

HU CHICKAMIN.—Sheriff Parker reports plenty of coin and no trouble to collect taxes. He reports to the Democrat as having collected at Seio $3,200, at Brownsville $4,850, at Halsey $3,900.

COPIOUS.—Rain fell in copious showers pretty much all through the first day of the new year. A good stiff breeze also prevailed.

CLOSH.—On the 30th ult., 15,000 bushels of wheat were shipped from this city to Portland—a very fair day's work, certainly.

SNOW.—Enough snow fell early Friday morning to cover the ground with a sheet of white.
