MUTATION.—The business changes come on us so rapidly and suddenly that we hardly get used to one before another is announced. As will be seen by card in this issue, the old firm of Blain, Young & Co., composed of L. E. Blain, J. Barrows and S. E. Young, dissolved on the 5th inst., Messrs. Blain and Barrows retiring and leaving Mr. Young sole boss. This was the oldest and most popular dry goods firm doing business in this city. By close application to business, strict integrity, and a display of genuine liberality and accommodation, they had built up a splendid business—a business surpassed by no other house in the city. Mr. Young, who will hereafter conduct the business, understands the wants and desires of this community in the line of general merchandise thoroughly, and pursuing the old course of the late firm, will spare no pains to accommodate and please all. The business hereafter will be conducted on the ready pay system, and goods can and will be sold much cheaper under the new "lay out" than could possibly be afforded by the long credit system. We commend the new management to the patronage of this community, and wish him the fullest success.

CHANGES.—R. Cheadle will remove his goods to the old corner store, now occupied by Gearheart as a butcher shop. N. Baum will move into the brick store left vacant by Cheadle. W. C. Tweedale will move his grocery establishment into the room left vacant by Baum—next door west of the REGISTER office. J. Gradwohl has moved into the Burkhardt brick, one door west of Broadalbin, on First street. Montgomery & Reed have rented the "Gradwohl corner," where they intend opening a saloon.

DISSOLVED.—The partnership heretofore existing between W. H. Kuhn and Jas. C. Van Rensselaer, in the hardware business, has been dissolved, and the notes and accounts due the late firm of W. H. Kuhn & Co. placed in the hands of Jas. B. Wyatt, of the firm of Clark & Wyatt, doing business at the old stand of Kuhn & Co., for collection. We are not apprised of the future intentions of our old friend Harry, but wish him the fullest success in any future business venture.

EXTRA GOOD.—The Vivian Troupe gave two pleasant entertainments at the Opera House in this city last week. We were in attendance on the Saturday evening entertainment, and pronounce it the best we have had in the city. Vivian never came on to the stage without "bringing down the house." He is not only a splendid mimic but a vocalist of the first class. He has promised to visit us soon again, and we think we can safely promise him a full house every time.

The postoffice at Lebanon has been removed to the store of L. E. Elkins.

PHONOGRAPHY.—Prof. A. B. McCaw has opened a school, in the brick building near corner of Broadalbin and First streets, where he proposes to teach short-hand writing. We believe the Professor to be well qualified, and our young people could not put their leisure time in to better advantage than by attending the school. A good short-hand reporter always commands large wages. See ad. elsewhere.

DENTAL CHAIR BRACKET.—Dr. Geo. W. Gray, of this city, has invented a handsome and convenient little implement which he calls a "Dental Chair Bracket," a model of which he exhibited to us a day or two since. We should think it was a most valuable article for a dentist, and we are certain it shows a large inventive faculty on the part of the Doctor. Dr. Gray has applied for a patent, and we hope he may obtain it, and that it may prove a valuable one to him, financially.
