Linn County Independent Convention.

An Independent Convention for Linn county, Oregon, will be held at the Court House in Albany, on Saturday, the 2d day of May next, at 10 o'clock A. M. (instead of 1 o'clock P. M.), for the purpose of nominating a full county ticket, and to transact such other business as may come before the Convention.

The various precincts in the county will hold their Primaries on Saturday, April 23d, at 1 o'clock P. M., for the purpose of electing delegates to the County Convention.

By order of the County Central Committee,

G. H. BABER, W. S. ELKINS, J. R. SMITH.

Albany, April 9, 1874.

A NEW STORE—On the corner of First and Washington streets, has been opened by Mr. J. Bloom, of Portland, where a large stock of staple and fancy dry goods, &c., &c., are offered to the public at very low rates. Under the supervision of the gentlemanly and polite Manager, Mr. M. Wise, this establishment is sure to receive a large share of patronage.

THE SINGER.—Messrs. Titus, Bourgardes & Co. have a new column advertisement in this issue, setting forth the excellencies of the Singer sewing machine, and asking attention to their splendid assortment and styles of jewelry, watches, clocks, etc. A better set of boys than those composing the above firm don't hang out a sign on the coast.

LEG BADLY TORN.—On Wednesday a fifteen year old son of Mr. Jenks, who lives just beyond Tangent, while plowing, stopped his team to arrange the collar or some part of the harness on one of the animals. He stepped in front of the team when the animals started, knocking him down and running over him, when he was caught by the plow and dragged from one hundred to one hundred and fifty yards, tearing and cutting his left leg from the knee up, in a fearful manner. Dr. Rice was sent for and dressed the wounds. The Doctor thinks he has sustained no permanent injury, although the wounds are painful.

SUCCESS.—The announcement that the Odd Fellows of Albany intended to celebrate the fifty-fifth anniversary of Odd Fellowship in this city, and invite their brethren all over the State to join in with them, has met with the heartiest approbation from every quarter, and acceptances of the invitation come pouring in. We are thus assured of a very large and full attendance, and a consequent good time. Rev.

TEMPERANCE.—Thursday evening was stormy, but a very fair audience assembled at the Court House, it being the occasion of the meeting of the Union Temperance Society. A new pledge was adopted, somewhat less restrictive than the old one. Miss Cora Irvine reported having, as one of the committee appointed for that purpose, obtained sixty-seven signatures to the pledge. On motion the President of the society appointed Misses Geary and Barrows, who circulated the pledge for signatures among the audience, getting a large number of signatures. The President, Rev. S. G. Irvine, and Dr. Raymond, of Douglas county, made entertaining speeches. The Society will meet at the Court House on Thursday evening next when a good programme, consisting of music and speeches, will be offered for the entertainment of the audience.

A DREADFUL ACCIDENT.—A dreadful accident occurred recently, near the Calipooia, a short distance above Boston Mills, whereby a promising young man doubtless received injuries that will prove fatal. The son of Widow Thompson, who lives up on the Calipooia, was engaged in hauling hay, which had been purchased from a neighbor named McMichael. About enough hay was left in the loft for one more load, and young Thompson had gone into the mow or loft to pitch the hay on to the wagon. The floor of the loft was made of round poles, some distance apart, a fact the young man seems not to have been aware of at the time. As there was barely sufficient hay over these poles to cleverly cover them, the moment Mr. Thompson jumped into the loft the hay gave way under his weight, precipitating him to the floor below with such force as to break his back. Dr. Crawford, who was called in, sent for Dr. Rice, and last Monday, after a critical examination, the physicians could see very little hope of the patient's recovery.

EXCELLENT.—Messrs. Harper & Co. have been receiving during the week their new Spring and Summer goods—a much heavier stock than usual, and selected in San Francisco by Mr. Harper, a gentleman of superior taste and discernment in such matters. In the line of silks, fancy dress goods and calicoes, probably their stock has never been excelled in this city before. In domestic and other staples they have exceedingly full lines; in boots and shoes, of all grades, an unusually full assortment; in crockery they have added many new features; in clothing they have probably double the usual stock, and of a much better grade. They have also a very large quantity of stock salt, a superior article, which they can sell at remarkably low figures to those wishing to buy in quantities. Don't fail to call at Harper & Co.'s.

MISTAKE.—Elsewhere in this issue it is stated that Robt. Constable pleaded guilty to the crime of bigamy and was sentenced to three years imprisonment. We were misinformed—he was fined $300, which was immediately paid.

100 Kegs of Syrup.—Just received, by schooner Oregon, direct from the San Francisco & Pacific Sugar Refinery, one hundred kegs of Syrup. For sale low by SAMUEL E. YOUNG.

Report of School Clerk.

At the annual school meeting, at the school house in School District No. 5, Linn county, Oregon, held April 6th, 1874, the report of the Clerk for the year was read and adopted, as follows:

Table with 2 columns: Description and Amount. Includes INCIDENTAL FUND, TEACHER'S FUND, and Total receipts from all sources.

Cash on hand, April 6, 1874. $127 82 A. B. Morris was elected Director for the term of three years. A. N. Arnold was re-elected Clerk for the term of one year.

On motion it was ordered that a new school-house be built, and Messrs. A. N. Arnold, A. Baltimore and J. D. Price were appointed a committee, to report at a future meeting, the plan, cost, and place selected for the said new building. A. N. ARNOLD, Clk.

GONE UP THE FLUME.—A telegraph dispatch reached this city on Thursday, conveying the intelligence that Gus. Wheeler, of Salem, had just gone and done it—committed matrimony. This was so unexpected, it took us so by surprise, that we didn't know what to say—and we ain't agoing to Wheeler, Gus.

COMING.—The great Vivian is playing at Corvallis this week, but will give entertainments in this city probably next week. Look out for him.

PARAGRAMLETS.

The school election was well attended on Monday. Charley Harper returned from San Francisco last Wednesday. Circuit Court adjourned Monday evening, having used up the docket. The Taxpayer's County Convention on Saturday last was well attended. New carpets at P. C. Harper & Co.'s. Slossins of new goods at Harper & Co.'s. Go and see 'em. Bart. H. Allen, of Halsey, called on Tuesday. Bart. is a brick—call often. Dickens was placed on board the cars at noon on Sunday for the insane asylum at East Portland. Quite a number of our citizens went down to Salem on Wednesday, to attend the Republican State Convention. Mr. Jas. Riley, of Harrisburg, was in the city during a portion of the week. Messrs. Kirk, Ellis, and Rev. Mr. Bishop, of Brownsville, called on Saturday. A. Carothers & Co. manufacture a better article of soda now than they ever did, and their new brand of cigars is perfectly splendid. Mr. Gray and lady, of Syracuse, New York, arrived in this city on Wednesday. Mrs. Gry is the sister of our worthy townsman, Mr. J. Z. Crouse.

On the first day of May next, Bart. H. Allen will sell, as administrator, at Halsey, a number of fine horses, cattle, farming implements, and household furniture, at public sale. Look out for bargains. Martin Coryell, residing near Halsey, died of consumption Thursday of last week. Deceased was about 40 years of age, one of our best farmers, an upright, honest citizen who possessed the respect of the entire neighborhood. He leaves a wife to mourn his loss. Mrs. Mart. Taylor got a divorce and the custody of the child, last week. A large number of new comers in the city.

General Tristally is reported to have captured a detachment of 600 Republicans near Calaff, forty-six miles from Barcelona. The surprise was complete; the Republicans surrendered without firing a gun.

Congressman Kendall, of Nevada, and Crouse, of Nebraska, had an argument yesterday, before the House Committee on Public Lands, in advocacy of Kendall's bill providing for State taxation of lands heretofore granted by Congress to railroads. Poppleton, es counsel for the U. P. R. R. Co., argued against the proposition. Crouse's remarks had special reference to U. P. land grants, and Kendall's to Central Pacific.

A young lady of Lyons, Iowa, recently said: "Some men are always talking about patronizing their own town—always harping on that duty—and yet they go abroad to get married, while we all stand waiting! I do hope that some of these men who marry Eastern women will get cheated."

MARRIED.

At Salem, April 9th, 1874, at the residence of Mrs. A. A. Wheeler, by Rev. S. C. Adams, Mr. A. F. Wheeler and Miss Laura Nealey, of Polk county, Oregon.

The Singer Still Triumphant.

AT THE VIENNA EXHIBITION THE Singer received the Medal of Merit, the Medal of Progress, and three other Medals for superiority of productions.

These are the Highest Sewing Machine Awards at Vienna. The Singer received all the MEDALS awarded to either of the competing Machines, and two Medals more than any other obtained. Then, in the name of truth, what is it that prompts people to claim recommendations for the Diploma of Honor! The fact is no Diploma of Honor has been given to any Sewing Machine Company. But immeasurably more valuable is as shown by sales—proved by sworn returns to the owners of the principal Sewing Machine Patents—which last year amounted to two hundred and nineteen thousand, seven hundred and fifty-eight (218,758) machines, nine out of ten of them being for Family Use. This is over 45,000 more Sewing Machines than were sold by any other company during the same period and over One Quarter of all the machines sold in 1872. These enormous sales are owing to the long-tested merits of the SINGER machines, which meet the wants of the public in superiority and simplicity of construction, and capability for great variety and excellence of work. That the users of Sewing Machines find these desirable qualities in the SINGER, beyond all others, is shown by the sales above given, aside from the awards of International Juries, either at home or abroad.
