Linn County Independent Convention.

An Independent Convention for Linn county, Oregon, will be held at the Court House in Albany, on Saturday, the 2d day of May next, at 10 o'clock A. M. (instead of 1 o'clock P. M.), for the purpose of nominating a full county ticket, and to transact such other business as may come before the Convention.

The various precincts in the county will hold their Primaries on Saturday, April 25th, at 1 o'clock P. M., for the purpose of electing delegates to the County Convention.

By order of the County Central Committee,

G. H. BABER,
 W. S. ELKINS,
 J. R. SMITH,
 Albany, April 9, 1874.

CAUSE WHY.—None but Odd Fellows in good standing, and their lady friends, are invited to the Sociable on Monday evening, and no others will be admitted, the Sociable being entirely distinct and separate from the ball, and having no connection with it. The reason for not extending the invitation to outsiders is, that the guests of Albany Lodge, members of the Order from a distance, will fill their hall to its utmost capacity. We were requested to say this much by the Lodge to the public, so that there might be no misunderstanding in the matter.

GAY TEAM.—Messrs. Titus, Bourgardes & Co., jewelers of this city, have one of the neatest taro cuts we have seen for a long time. The carriage, built specially to order, by Messrs. Peters & Spindel, of this city, is a neat, strong and serviceable vehicle that any mechanic might be proud to point out as his workmanship. The painters have also done a good job, and it shines like a new dollar. A pair of fine young bays get away with the wagon in good style. Wherever Jack drives through the country with that showy equipage he is sure to attract the fullest attention. We wish the firm the fullest success in this attempt to increase their business. Native talent in conjunction with good business qualifications and perseverance, is bound to succeed.

Theodore Canwright expects to start for the Sitka gold mines the first of next month. Several others are talking strongly of taking stock in the same country.

Odd Fellows' Celebration.

On Monday next the Odd Fellows of this city, and their invited guests from other points in the State, will celebrate the fifty-fifth anniversary of the Order in the United States, as per programme elsewhere printed in this issue of the REGISTER. The procession will form at Odd Fellows' Hall, on First street, at one o'clock P. M., and, preceded by the Albany Brass Band, will march to Hackleman's grove where the members of the Order will partake of a basket picnic, provided by members of Albany Lodge No. 4, after which an oration suitable to the occasion will be delivered by Bro. D. K. Nesbit, of Corvallis, one of the most talented and popular public speakers on the Pacific coast. Music, both vocal and instrumental, will be furnished on the occasion, lending an additional charm to the celebration. There will probably be three or four brass bands with the procession, in addition to the band from this city, brought by Lodges from other portions of the State. It will be the endeavor of Albany Lodge to entertain all members of the Order who may feel inclined to attend, in the best possible manner. After the exercises of the afternoon at the grove, the procession will re-form and march back to the city. In the evening a Sociable will be given at Odd Fellows' Hall, especially for Odd Fellows and their lady friends, and for them only. The Daughters of Rebekah give a grand ball at the Opera House the same evening, dancing to commence at 7 1/2 o'clock P. M. All those securing tickets from the Managers, whether members of the Order or not, will, of course, be admitted to all the privileges of the ball-room. As the door-keepers have no authority to admit any one not a member of the Order without a ticket, those who wish to attend should provide themselves with tickets at once. Supper will be called at 11 o'clock P. M., and we can promise in advance that it will be the most complete and elegant affair in the "grub" line ever placed before hungry humanity in Oregon. The celebration promises to be largely attended, probably not less than four hundred Odd Fellows participating in it, and, should the weather prove agreeable as at present, there may be a still larger number.

METZLER'S CHAIRS.—The enviable reputation obtained by Mr. Metzler in the manufacture of his raw-hide bottomed chairs, has induced parties in this city and elsewhere to offer a chair for sale every way inferior to the Metzler chair, claiming it to be the Metzler chair, thereby demanding the public and injuring the reputation of the Metzler chair. Mr. Metzler asks us to say that there are but two places in this city where chairs of his make can be obtained, to-wit: At Messrs. Graf & Collar's, and at his old shop near the west end of First street.

ACCOMMODATING.—Good goods and accommodating, gentlemanly proprietors, always attract custom. While every man expects to get goods at the lowest possible living rates, he also wishes to trade with generous accommodating men, who are always ready to do the fair thing. P. G. Harper & Co. have the goods, and possess an accommodating spirit that is attracting a large and increasing trade. Try them.

THE BREECING BROKE.—A friend of ours and his wife, on a visit to this city, one day recently procured a horse and buggy in which to take a spin and glance at the surroundings of our city. The horse was lively, but everything went along smoothly until, unfortunately, the rear portion of the "gears" broke, when the animal became unmanageable. Then it was that our friend brought into play all his courage and coolness; he entered into the contest with spirit, and by the use of good judgment, a quick eye and a firm rein, he held the demoralized animal in the right track, which led to an enclosure for chickens. Having reached the enclosure, that demoralized animal went through boards, pickets, etc., lighting among the birds in rather a tangled up mess, most of the shed being on top, and holding the animal level until he could be secured. It was a very well engineered runaway, and the scare over, was rather a laughable occurrence—to non-participants.

POLICE COURT.—On Monday Mr. John Petty was arrested by the City Marshal and brought before Recorder Herren on charge of assault and battery. It seems that on Saturday night last, Petty and Bill Brown had an old-fashioned knock-down, in which the latter was pretty severely punished. The jury failed to agree on the first trial, and were discharged, and a new jury empaneled. The second jury found that Petty acted in self-defense, brought in a verdict of not guilty as charged in the indictment, and Petty was discharged from custody on Wednesday. The trial occupied three days, and foots up quite a bill for the city to pay. Judge Powell for the city; Judge Helm for the defendant. A warrant has been issued for the arrest of Brown, charging him with assault with a dangerous weapon, and as soon as he is able to leave his bed, he will be put through a course of judicial investigation.

STEAM WASHER.—The Climax Steam Washer is the latest and, we think, the best institution yet offered the public in the way of a labor-saver in the drudgery necessary in "keeping house." There is no labor performed by the housekeeper that is so much dreaded as clothes washing. By the use of the above-named washer the drudgery becomes a pleasant pastime, as no washboard is needed, the clothes coming from the boiler clean and white, ready to be run through the wringer and hung on the line. This saves a great deal of wear and tear of fabric; is especially noticeable in washing lace curtains and other fine fabrics, which a little rubbing, by unskilled hands, will often ruin. We have tried the Climax, and know it to be the best washer we have ever seen. Read the advertisement elsewhere, and call on the agent, Mr. Eli Hazel, at McFarland's stove store, and get full particulars as to price, &c.

DEAD.—The painful news reached us on Thursday evening of the death of Mrs. George Patterson, at Teal's ranch, about eight miles east of Harrisburg, on the morning of that day. Her funeral was to take place on Friday, next, at Harrisburg. Another victim of consumption.

SAD ACCIDENT.—Late on Monday evening Mr. C. C. Kuhn had the sad misfortune to break his right leg between the ankle and knee. He had just ferried his team across the Calipoia, and was in the act of pulling the boat up as close to the bank on this side as possible, to enable the team to be driven to the shore, when his foot slipped and he fell in such manner as to break his leg as above described. Drs. Broughton & Harris were called in and administered to the immediate wants of their patient. It will be some time, we fear, before Clay will be able to attend to business.

We issue on Friday, this week—one day earlier than usual.

At Hackleman's grove on Monday afternoon, croquet grounds will be arranged, and everything prepared for the comfort and pleasure of the guests. Let everybody come, bringing baskets of grub, of course.

As Clay Kuhn was driving along the street, probably the same day he was so unfortunate as to break his leg, his little dog, in attempting to jump from the wagon, fell between the wheels and was crushed to death. They say misfortunes never come singly.

On Tuesday the jury in the case of the City vs. Petty, assault and battery, could not agree and were discharged, and a new trial set for Wednesday. Judge Powell prosecuting, Judge Helm defending.

New To-Day.

The New Patent Climax Steam Washer!

WILL DO THE WASHING FOR AN ordinary family in from thirty minutes to one hour! Requires no attention while the process of cleaning is going on; much less soap than by the old process; the clothes requiring no rubbing. It is especially adapted to washing Lace Curtains and all fine fabrics, and for Flannels is most desirable, as it will not frill them as a Machine or hand-rubbing does. For full particulars as to price, &c., call on the agent, ELI HAZEL, at W. H. McFarland's stove and tin store, First street, Albany, Oregon. April 25, 1874.
