A letter of May 1st from Independence, Polk county, informs us that Charles, a son of Wm. Thedderow, of that place, aged 8 years, was leading a horse out of an enclosure on Thursday morning of last week, when he fell and scared the horse which started to run. The rope attached to the horse's neck got wound around Charles's foot and he was dragged with such force against the fence that his skull was broken, and he died the following night. Being a bright, intelligent and amiable lad, his terrible death has cast a gloom over the whole community where he lived.

The Register learns that Mr. M. Gibbons' residence, on the Washougal, in Clarke county, was entirely destroyed by fire Thursday, April 23d. The family saved but the clothing they had on at the time. Loss between $800 and $1,000. A house and barn belonging to Jas. Bybee, Esq., the Lackamas Prairie was also burned down on the same day, destroying all the hay and grain on the premises and everything in the house. No one was living in the house at the time.

The citizens of Hubbard station have made arrangements for a grand Fourth of July celebration. There will be many interesting features introduced on the occasion, and every one is anticipating a pleasant time. Besides the usual oration, reading the Declaration of Independence, etc., there will be sack races, climbing greased poles, etc.

The Oakland Call learns that a son of Rev. Mr. Todd, of Douglas county, was killed last week. It is supposed that the boy had alighted from his horse to put up some fencing, when the animal took fright and ran away with him, as he was found with the rope around his wrist, his skull broken and life extinct.

Prices of stock in Douglas county: Cattle, yearlings, $7 @ 8; two year olds, $12 @ 15; milk cows, $18 @ 27; beef, on foot, 4c @ hogs, 5 @ 5 1/2c on foot; sheep, $2 @ 3 50 @ head.

The Dallas paper learns that the recent frosts have damaged the fruit prospects in some localities in that county. Al. Graham, on Salt Creek, reports his plums entirely destroyed.

Mr. R. J. Baker, of Lane county, will in a few weeks, start with 800 head of cattle for the Palouse country. He intends crossing the Cascade mountains over the McKenzie road.
