In the Democrat of Friday, May 15th, we find a communication headed, "Will the Slanderer Respond?" signed by J. F. Hendrix, charging that an article in the REGISTER of May 2d accuses one of the Democratic candidates for Senator of Linn county with "getting away with another man's wife, and living with her in open violation of law and decency," and thereupon Mr. Hendrix assumes that he is the man referred to, and pronounces "the whole thing as a willful and malicious falsehood, and challenges the proof." If the Dr. is certain sure he is the man referred to as having caught the hippling idea, let him prove it. He shall not carry off all the attractive features of his ticket without positive proof that he is entitled to them.

About one half of the Vancouver House, a portion of Weden's barn and 17 feet of the sisters block, as fenced, is found to be on the reserve.

Buckskin, Alex. La Buff's celebrated race horse, met with a severe accident on Saturday last at Union, that may prevent his running in the spring races, soon to take place over the Union Race Course.

Saturday night, Judge Boise's little girl Nellie, aged six years, fell down stairs at Mr. Parmenter's house, in Salem, and had her left arm broken, one bone being fractured one inch above the wrist.

Late revelations go to show that Kahlow, who killed Downey at Tacoma, a few days since, was justified in the act, in order to save himself.
