Statement of the Shaw Matter.

SHEDD, Ogn., June 3d, 1874.

The committee in the case of Rev. C. W. Shaw, with Rev. J. H. Rook and the presiding officer added, after prayerful consideration, in the fear of God, state that they are sorry for any difference of opinion that has grown out of what was considered a misappropriation of the one hundred and twenty-five dollars due the church at Albany; and believing that the misappropriation was not the result of evil intention, yet believing that the honor and credit of the church demand that funds raised for specific purposes should be sacredly devoted to the purposes for which they were raised, have, of our own means, (others assisting), and according to our ability, contributed the said sum of one hundred and twenty-five dollars, to be applied on the debt of the Albany Church, and here engage to settle all past difficulties and pray God's forgiveness for anything wrong, either in feeling or action, toward each other; and also state that all the past differences and difficulties in regard to matters at Albany and elsewhere, are included in this adjustment, the pastors at Albany and Salem concurring.

JOHN W. YORK, CH. P. M. STARR, A. C. FAIRCALD, N. CLARK, J. L. MCCAIN, JOHN H. ROOK, WM. MCPHEETERS, ISAIAH WILSON, I. D. DRIVER, P. E.

At the meeting of the Business Council of the Patrons of Husbandry for this county, in this city, on Tuesday, a committee of three was appointed to confer with other Granges in the valley, in reference to securing the immediate survey of the obstructions in the Willamette river. Messrs. A. S. Powell, E. E. Fanning, and J. Wheeler constitute the committee. The Council adjourned to the second Tuesday in July.

The new sewing machine offered by Mr. Eli Carter has so many desirable points over most all the other first class machines, that it is bound to have a big sale just so soon as the people are made aware of its merits. It is simple, strong, durable and cheap, and will do any kind of work. Go and see it for yourself.

Smith has started in with his penman's ice cream saloon, which he is making pay very well.

IN MEMORIAM.

HALL OF ALBANY LODGE No. 4, I.O.O.F., ALBANY, June, 3d, 1074.

The fiat of the Omnicient is, dust thou art and unto dust thou shalt return. It has been said there is but a span from the cradle to the grave. These truths have been brought vividly to our minds by the death of our dearly beloved brother, P. G., WILLIAM COLWELL. It seems but yesterday that he sat with us within this council chamber. To-day he sleeps the sleep that knows no waking. He is gone, and the place that knew him shall know him no more forever. In respect to the memory of our beloved Brother, we, the members of Albany Lodge No 4, I.O.O.F.:

Resolved, That the members of this Lodge wear the usual badge of mourning for the period of four weeks, and that this hall be draped in mourning for the same time.

Resolved, That we tender our sincerest condolences to the bereaved family of our departed Brother, and commend them to the care of Him who tempers the wind to the shorn lamb. Resolved, That these resolutions be furnished to the papers of this city for publication, and that a copy, under seal of the Lodge, be presented to the family of our departed Brother.

M. M. THOMPSON, R. SALTMAISH, Committee.

There was a grand picnic near Turner, on Saturday, May 30th. The Presbyterian Sunday School, of Albany, was present, and participated in the day's pleasures with a hearty good will. There were present, in all, about 500 persons. A part of the programme consisted of a well appreciated lecture by Professor Warren, of Albany.

The fire on election day caused the only excitement we noticed during the day. The building received slight damage—probably $15 would more than cover it. Damage to furniture very slight. The fire boys deserve great credit for the energy with which they went for and extinguished the fire.

The Independent Champions of the Red Cross, of Brownsville, are making extensive preparations for having a Temperance Fourth of July celebration at that place, to be participated in by all the temperance organizations of the county.

Indian Tom got away with ten dollars net from Thursday night's show. Tyee Pete was door-keeper. Bill Gird talks of taking this Indian troupe to Europe! It was certainly the biggest show Albanians have seen for an age.

As will be seen elsewhere the Independent ticket got away with a goodly share of its candidates in this county on Monday. June '76 will see the entire ticket elected. No mistake about it.

GRANGE PICNIC.—The Grangers in the neighborhood of Robert's bridge, give a picnic on Saturday, June 13th, at that point. Of course it will be well attended, and a good time will be had by those who attend.

RELIGIOUS.—Rev. J. Bowersox, of Salem, will preach in the Congregational Church on Sunday (to-morrow) at 11 o'clock. All are invited to attend.

WRITING SCHOOL.—Prof. Garrison commences a class in the art of penmanship at Brownsville next Monday. As a teacher the Professor has been very successful.

PARAGRAPHS.

Anxious—Candidates. Election is over. Mist on Thursday. Indian show Thursday night. Sheep shearing has commenced. Tame strawberries in abundance. The farmers are anxious for rain. Wool quoted at 25c per pound. Fresh salmon are in the market. Good Templar Festival Wednesday night largely attended.

Fanny Morgan Phelps billed for Saturday night. The universal question—What's the latest from the election? Remember the District School meeting to-day.

A large amount of sugar, at low rates, at C. P. Harper & Co's. Fare between Seattle and Kalama is $7.

Independents get away with part of the ticket. Wool buyers are getting ready for business.

C. B. Montague, of Lebanon, was in the city on Thursday.

Gad. Taylor, of Oakland, came down among us Thursday.

Jos. Hannon was elected Justice of the Peace for this precinct. J. A. McKnight was elected Constable

Jerry Winter is down from the McKenzie, where he has been rusticated all winter.

Mr. Adams and wife, of Dalles, arrived in this city on a visit on Wednesday.

Mrs. Sylvester Cannon arrived home on Wednesday, after a protracted stay in Eastern Oregon.

Lew Stimpson is going to Washington Territory with a band of sheep.

Bill Cannon has put up a beautiful sign for his livery stable. He calls the stable the Northern Light.

Judge Tolman passed this city on the southern bound train on Wednesday.

"Whose elected in Linn county?" was the biggest conundrum of the week.

Subscription to the REGISTER will hereafter be $2 50 in advance—$3 otherwise.

Titus & Co. run out of Singers last week—sell 'em faster than they can get them from the factory.

Morris and Rice, Independent and Democratic candidates for Sheriff, got 1,071 votes each—a tie.

Parties from Salem propose erecting an immense warehouse, for storing grain in sacks, near the depot in this city.

Hank Mendenhall and John Hannon have gone to the springs on the McKenzie, searching for health.

The Good Templar strawberry festival at Opera House on Wednesday night got away with $130—a fair night's work.

Salt river candidates are endeavoring to secure Capt. Wheeler's new boat, Granger No. 2, in which to make their saline trip.

The Presbyterian Sunday School picnic last Saturday was a success. It was largely attended and a good time had.

We expect to be able to give the entire vote of the State next week. At present it is simply impossible to give any reliable figures.

As about one hundred voters who formerly trained with the Democracy, at Seio, voted the Independent ticket on Monday, straight Democrats now claim that there were one hundred illegal votes polled at Seio!

McFarland is furnishing all who call with the Richmond Range—probably the best range manufactured. He has, however, almost any other kind of stove desired.

The contrariness of one of the judges of election out at Brush Creek, kept the poll books from that precinct from being returned several days.

N. BAUM Wants 200,000 lbs. of good WOOL, and will pay the highest market price for it. Pays 16c for eggs, 15 to 20c for butter, $1 37 1/2 for lard in 10lb. cans, and for all other produce the highest market price. He has the largest stock of goods, and sells them cheaper than any house in the city. Call and see for yourself. In Cheadle's brick building, First street.

Harper & Co. are selling vast quantities of goods these days. They have a first rate assortment, sell at the very lowest rates, are accommodating and liberal with customers, and therefore can hardly be otherwise than popular. "Paralyze" their goods.

A. WHEELER, C. P. HOUER, C. H. WHEELER.

A. WHEELER & CO., SHEDD, OREGON,

Forwarding & Commiss'n Merchants. Dealers in Merchandise and Produce. A good assortment of all kinds of Goods always in store at lowest market rates.

Agents for sale of Warrons, Grain Drills, Cider Mills, Churns, &c., &c. CASH paid for WHEAT, OATS, PORK, BUTTER, EGGS and POULTRY.

New To-Day. $5,000,000 ENDOWMENT SCHEME!

FIFTH AND LAST CONCERT In aid of the Public Library of Kentucky.

JULY 31, 1874.

In announcing the Fifth and last of the series of Gift Concerts, given for the benefit of the Public Library of Kentucky, the Trustees and Manager refer with pride and pleasure to the four which have been already given: The first, December 16, 1871; the second, December 2, 1872; the third, July 8, 1873; and the fourth, March 31st, 1874.

Under their charter, granted by a special act of the Kentucky Legislature, March 16, 1871, the Trustees are authorized to give one more, and only one more Gift Concert. With the money arising from this Fifth and LAST Concert, the Library, Museum, and other departments are to be enlarged and endowed with a fixed and certain annual income. Such an endowment, and is desired, as will secure beyond peradventure, not only the maintenance of this magnificent establishment, but its constant growth.

THE FIFTH GIFT CONCERT for the purposes mentioned, and which is positively and unequivocally announced as the last which will ever be given under this charter and by the present management, will come off in the Public Library Hall, at Louisville, Ky., Friday, July 31, 1874.

At this final Concert everything will be upon a scale corresponding with its increased importance. The music will be rendered by an orchestra consisting of one hundred performers selected for their fame in different lands, and the unprecedented sum of $2,500,000 divided into twenty thousand gifts, will be distributed among the ticket-holders.
