POP CORN PUDDING.—Soak 2 quarts of freshly-popped corn in 3 pints of sweet milk, over night. When ready to bake, add 3 well-beaten eggs, a little salt, and sugar to taste.

FRENCH CAKE.—3 eggs, 1 1/2 cups of flour, 1 cup of sugar, 1 teaspoonful of baking powder, 2 tablespoonfuls of cold water; take in two pie-pans, split while hot, and spread between the following enstard: 1/2 pint sweet milk, 1 tablespoonful of corn-starch dissolved in a bit of the milk, 1 egg well beaten: when it comes to a boil add 1/2 cup of sugar, 1/2 cup of butter. Lemon to suit the taste.

To COOK RICE.—The following is the method recommended by the French Academy for cooking rice during the siege of Paris: Take one cup of rice and one-fourth of a cup of water in a saucepan, cover, and place over a good fire; after an hour the water will be evaporated, and the rice cooked tender, but dry, with grains distinct, not in paste.
