FOURTH OF JULY.—The glorious 4th comes in on Saturday, and our folks propose to celebrate it in good style this time. At an adjourned meeting, on Tuesday evening, at the Court House, a committee of fourteen citizens was appointed to make the necessary arrangements. We suppose the programme of the celebration will be ready for publication next week. Well, if all go to work in earnest, there's nothing to prevent our having a good old time on that day. Let all enter into the scheme with a hearty zeal, and prove that Albanians are not lacking in patriotism nor liberality. How would a grand old-fashioned barbecue fit the occasion?

OUR BROWNSVILLE LETTER.

BROWNSVILLE, May 8, 1874.

MR. VAN CLEVE: Dear Sir—

The great political battle of Linn county has been fought, and the Independents of Linn county have gained a grand victory over the Democratic party. The Democracy claimed the county by two hundred majority, but the result of the election shows that we captured four of their candidates for the Legislature, and sent them up Salt River. Mr. Rice had forty majority in Brownsville precinct over Morris. There were just six Democrats in this precinct who voted for Morris, and over thirty Republicans who voted for Rice. The Democrats have voted all the negroes and all the paupers and all the blind for Rice, and then did not get any more votes in Linn county than Morris. It is my opinion that Morris is elected by a majority of the legal voters of Linn county.

There is one thing certain: we will carry this county in 1876; and we are confident of a sufficient majority in the Legislature to elect an Independent as our next U. S. Senator. Yours Truly,

R. W. HENDERSON.

A RUNAWAY.—On Tuesday, as Mrs. Luper was driving a pair of spirited animals attached to a buggy, accompanied by her daughter Jennie, and when nearly opposite the residence of Mr. Hiram Smeed, she discovered that some part of the buggy gearing had become loose, when she stopped the team and got out to see what was the matter. Upon search she found that a nut had dropped from one of the bolts, and Jennie, wishing to aid her mother in fixing the vehicle, handed her the lines preparatory to alighting. The ribbons had scarcely left her hands when the horses became frightened, jumped forward, throwing Miss Luper back on to the seat, and drawing the lines out of the hands of Mrs. Luper. The team ran on past Mr. Burkhardt's to where the road turns sharply to the south, when the buggy turned over and the team stopped. Miss Luper was pretty badly hurt, but no bones were broken, and as she was perfectly cool during the entire race, was not as badly injured as she otherwise might have been. However, considering the circumstances, it was a miraculous escape. The buggy and team received but trifling damage.

THE RATTLED CHALLENGED.—The "Rattlers" of this city have got work before them, and no mistake. They have received a challenge from a Portland base ball club, from the Brownsville club, and to-day are to play a match game with the Monmouth boys. We see from the Salem Statesman that the first nine of the College Base Ball Club, Jr., have decided to challenge the Rattlers to play a series of games. This begins to look like business, and if this thing keeps on, our boys will have little time to attend to anything else than base ball, provided they accept all challenges that come. However.

Mr. James Sherrill, of Halsey, was in the city the first of the week. Mr. Sherrill has got a big thing in the way of a cultivator, and he intends proving this fact to the farmers of Oregon this season. It is a splendid implement.

FINE STOCK.—Mr. W. C. Myer informs us that he has extended the time of his departure from this county with his splendid Percheron horse, White Prince, to the first of August next. A number of his full blood and high grade Percheron mares passed down the O. & C. Railroad to Salem on Thursday, where they can be seen by those who like to look at well-shaped, fine looking animals of the horse kind, that have great size and strength combined with perfect action. The Percherons are the animals to get away with huge loads and at a rapid gait. It is certainly the stock our farmers want.

SPECULATIVE?—We see that parties in Portland have paid as high as 30c per pound for wool, while as high as 32 1/2c has been paid in Salem. Whether these sales indicate the ruling prices of wool for the season, or whether they are "speculative," we can only conjecture. We are inclined to the opinion, however, that they were extra lots, and therefore brought extra prices. We quote wool at 27c as the ruling price here, although we have heard of 28c being offered for special lots.

The inquiry now is for Dr. Young, who levanted from Louisiana, something over two years ago, and when last heard of was in Oregon. His young wife, whom he left behind him, wishes to know what has become of him—that's all. She seems to be fearful that he will fool some other woman, as he did her, and therefore wishes to warn the public against him. Throw yourself in sight Dr.—what is the name you have assumed since your arrival in Oregon?

BURNED.—On Monday the little daughter of Wm. Vance, 3 months old, who lives about eight miles south of this city, fell into the fire, and before assistance could be rendered, badly burned one hand and side of the face. At last accounts the little sufferer was getting along bravely.

On Wednesday Luther Elkins, President of the A. & S. Canal Company, brought up several thousand dollars in coin, and deposited it in Conner's Bank, for the use of the Company. The Canal Company is now "flush," and can pay all verified accounts on presentation.

If you want a good quality of stock salt cheap, go to C. P. Harper & Co. For the Gem Fruit Jars, the very best article you can get in which to put up your fruit, go to Harper's. Go there, also, for choice lines of dry goods, fancy goods, groceries, boots and shoes, clothing, cigars, tobacco, double barreled shot guns, fish hooks, crockeryware, cutlery, glassware, etc. It's the place to trade.

ATTENTION.—The newly elected Justices of the Peace and Constables for this county must appear and qualify on or before the first Monday in July, or their fresh honors will avail them naught. A failure to qualify within the time specified creates a vacancy, which will be filled by appointment by the County Court.

CIGARS.—At the drugstore of A. Carothers & Co, lovers of a good cigar will find a new brand, for this market, which we pronounce extra good. Try a gabble.

COMMITTEES APPOINTED.—The committee of fourteen for managing the celebration on the coming fourth are: Rev. S. G. Irvine, Chairman, J. F. Baekento, Jo. Webber, S. Montgomery, D. B. Rice, J. Z. Crouse, N. Baum, P. C. Harper, Fred. Hill, Jo. Liggett, J. H. Hackleman, D. M. Thompson, A. N. Arnold and Ike Conn. The general committee has appointed the following sub-committees: Finance—Harper, Baum and Hill. Liberty Car—Arnold and Webber. Lady Committee—Mesdames Baekento, Thor. Monteith, Crouse, J. Parker, L. Miller, J. H. Foster, Senders, Colver and Montgomery. Oration—Thompson and J. H. Hackleman. All the children to represent the States and Territories in the car are to be under twelve years of age. The Finance Committee pitched right in, and have secured quite a large amount of cash in donations. If the celebration is not a success it will not be the fault of the Committees, "certain sure." We prophesy that it will be a buster.

Since the above was written the Committee of Arrangements have appointed the following additional sub-committees: Committee on Fare—Dr. Rice and N. Baum. On Salutes—Jas. Herren, Rich'd Powers and Louis Miller. Grounds Crouse, Webber and Montgomery. Printing—J. H. Hackleman, Webber and Harper. Music—Wyatt, I. Conn and Prof. Warren.

CATTLE FOR OCHOCHO.—Mr. R. Calloway, of Benton, crossed the Willamette at this point on Wednesday, en route for Ochocho with some four hundred head of cattle, the larger part being yearlings.

The Grangers are preparing for a grand good time at their picnic at Roberts' bridge to-day. A very large turnout is expected. There is nothing like these picnics for promoting sociability.

RELIGIOUS.—The services of the Protestant Episcopal Church will be held in the Congregational church of this city on Sunday morning next, 14th inst., at 11 A. M. All are invited to attend.

To-day is the time set for launching the "Red Jacket" on the bosom of the raging Santiam Canal. The "Red Jacket" is eighty feet in length, and is intended as a freight boat on said Canal. Capt. Jase Wheeler, builder.

See that elegant silver plated ware at the jewelry establishment of Titus, Bourgardus & Co. It is not only beautiful but is selling very low.

Mr. Luther Elkins will forward a band of over two hundred young cattle to the grass fields of Ochocho towards the close of the present month.

By the breaking of the driving wheel at the Farmer's Warehouse on Tuesday, the Company are damaged about $25.

We hear that Judge Boise will lecture at the College, to the Literary Societies, on Wednesday evening next.

Parties from Walla Walla, W. T., were here during the week, purchasing horses for the cavalry arm of the U. S. service.

James Elkins started for Ochocho on Tuesday, with a band of cattle.

The fellow who ran away recently from Douglas county, taking with him another man's wife, has been seen in this vicinity. He is caged, together with his stolen goods, not far from this city.
