Advertisers and others will please remember that the REGISTER is now issued Friday morning.

Peters & Speidel are turning out an immense amount of work—they are running a shop-full of employees.

Our mechanics are all busy, improvements going on in all directions.

The dusky forest maiden and the still more dusky buck, still recline on stairways and door-steps, whiling away the fleeting summer hours.

So far as harvest has progressed we hear no complaint of a falling off in the yield. Thirty bushels per acre seems to be the average to date.

The committee appointed to secure subscriptions for improving the Willamette are meeting with good success, and a large subscription will doubtless be obtained.

Judge Baber informed us Thursday morning that his wife, who is suffering from paralysis, remains about the same, no improvement manifest. Her disease so far defies the best skill of the physicians.

For the past week our physicians have been kept busy—Harvest times, with its green fruit and over-work, generally gives the doctors plenty of driving.

Judge Powell and Chris Finlayson returned from Yaquina Bay on Wednesday, bringing Miss Mary Finlayson with them. She is pronounced much better since her arrival here.
