CONCERT.—Madame Anna Bishop and troupe delighted the lovers of the grand in music of this city, at the Opera House on Tuesday evening, by one of the most brilliant concerts ever given in the city. The attendance was large, and was composed of the beauty and grace of the city. Of Madame Bishop we need say nothing—her fame is world-wide. Miss Mariner, the soprano, also has achieved a reputation as a first-class vocalist, and she more than sustained that reputation on Tuesday evening. Mr. Wilkie, the tenor, is loud, but Mr. Campbell, the basso, takes the "dilapidated linen from the shrubbery" every whiz. Harry J. Lask, the pianist, gets away with the music box in magnificent style. As a piano sharp, he knows it all—we don't want any better music than he can mash out of a square grand piano. The concert was rare treat, and lovers of music appreciated it to the full.

OUR $10,000 JAIL.—The three prisoners confined in our county jail on Saturday created considerable excitement by a report gaining currency that they had torn down the wall and escaped. The report proved only part true—they had dug quite a hole in the jail, but had not escaped, as, fortunately, they were discovered and their design frustrated. They are now securely locked up in the iron cells, where the Sheriff thinks they are liable to remain until sent to Salem or liberated. But while the rumor of the escape was current, the comments on the projectors and builders of our ten thousand dollar jail were not of the most exorcisingly complimentary character.

CORRESPONDENCE.—Read the interesting correspondence from San Francisco, elsewhere in this issue, from J. P. T., who has promised to write for the REGISTER whenever occasion and opportunity offers, during his sojourn in the East.

ARRESTED.—B. F. BROWN, late Wells, Fargo & Co.'s agent at Salem, was arrested on the afternoon of the 10th, on charge of having robbed the company's safe on the night of July 12th, and held to answer in $8,000.

FAIR FOR ALBANY.—From a circular to agents from the office of Jno. J. Valentine, General Superintendent of Wells, Fargo & Co.'s express company on this coast, dated San Francisco, August 8th, we observe that the whole amount of funds collected and forwarded by the agents of the Company to San Francisco in aid of the sufferers by the overflow of the Mississippi was $5,256 30, but $420 25 of which was in green backs. Of the seventy-seven cities and villages contributing, Albany, with her $75 25, stands eighteenth on the list, seventeen others contributing larger amounts.

CHANGED HANDS.—The Webfoot Market, on First street, has changed hands, Mr. Charles Wilson now being proprietor. Mr. Wilson is thoroughly acquainted with the business, is gentlemanly and accommodating to all, and should, and doubtless will, receive a fair share of the patronage of our people. Read his card in this issue, and then call at the Webfoot and purchase one of those nice, juicy, tender steaks.

STABBED IN THE ABDOMEN.—An affray between Tom Ballard and A. R. Backus, on Monday evening, in Weller's saloon, resulted in a stab and a knockdown, the first named catching the knockdown, and the last the stab—the wound being made by a pocket-knife, in the lower part of the abdomen. Ballard was arrested and placed in jail. Backus is getting along as well as could be expected.

GRUB LAND.—Last fall Geo. Simpson had eleven acres of land cleared of oak gnbs. The ground was then plowed and seeded to wheat. Those eleven acres of sod land have just been harvested, with an average yield of about forty bushels per acre. Two acres of the eleven turned out over one hundred bushels. Fifteen acres of stubble land adjoining yielded a fraction less than thirty bushels per acre.

LOOK FOR 'EM.—N. Baum started for 'Frisco on Wednesday, where he intends purchasing a mammoth stock of dry goods, groceries, clothing, etc., for the trade of this city and county. From his known excellent taste and discrimination in the selection of goods, our readers may expect a "sight feast" when they arrive.

FRANK WOOD—Has been doing a lively business in the blacksmithing line all Summer. Farmers all know where to go to when they want a nice job of blacksmithing. Frank has a good stock of wagons, and various agricultural implements on hand, for sale. Call and see them.

COMPLIMENTARY.—We make our bow to the President of Mechanic's Institute, San Francisco, for a complimentary ticket to the ninth Industrial Exhibition, to be held under the auspices of the Institute, which opens on the 18th instant.

PROF. A. L. FRANCIS—Of Salem, will visit this city next week, for the purpose of tuning and repairing pianos. The Prof. has a high reputation in this line, and will doubtless give entire satisfaction to all needing his services.

THE WEATHER—Has been cool during the week—splendid for harvesters.

HOME MANUFACTURES.—Through the exertions of Mr. Bowie it is announced that the entire amount of capital stock has been secured to establish a manufactory where agricultural implements, wagons, etc., are to be built. The stock has all been subscribed by those directly interested in agricultural pursuits. The first meeting of the stockholders will transpire on the 12th of October, at Salem—the first day of the State Fair—when the company will be duly organized, and probably the place at which the factory will be erected, selected. It is understood that the location of this great business enterprise will depend on the inducements held out to the company. We are inclined to think that Albany is the place where such a factory should be erected. Our farmers need the implements, wagons, etc., to be manufactured; we have in our midst, in full operation, a fine water ditch, affording water-power, the cheapest and best power for propelling all kinds of machinery, to an almost unlimited extent; in fact, location and all the natural advantages are in favor of our city, and if our citizens will look at the matter rightly, and do what they ought to do in the premises, we can secure a manufacturing interest that will exert a powerful influence on the future growth and prosperity of the city of Albany and the county of Linn.

The necessary number of skilled mechanics and laborers necessary to carry on so large an establishment as the one under contemplation, will form quite a community of itself; and the establishment of one great industry is but the forerunner or parent of other creative industries, continually adding to the aggregate wealth and general prosperity. Every citizen is directly or indirectly interested in this matter. If you want property to appreciate, business to increase, population to flow in an almost uninterrupted stream, finding its terminus among us, you must do something to attract that wealth, that business, that population, and in no other way can success be reached so speedily and so surely as by building up and fostering home industries within your own borders.

IMPROVEMENTS.—Mr. A. F. Cherry will immediately commence constructing a ditch and flume, conveying water from the Santiam Canal to his Foundry on First street. He will tap the Canal near Morris & Parker's new warehouse, running the ditch along the river front to the mouth of the big gulch that passes to the Willamette just east of Hurd's saw-mill, pass around the front of the mill to the foundry, the water, after being utilized, falling into the gulch and flowing into the Willamette. The flume across the gulch will require a large amount of timbers and lumber, and of course will cost "like scissors." The ditch when completed will carry a thousand inches of water, affording an immense power. Mr. Cherry will also build an addition to the already large foundry building, on the east side, directly over the gulch, of forty by sixty feet. Mr. Cherry, by his superior ability and skill as a mechanic, by unflagging industry, but above all by the accommodating spirit and generous liberality manifested toward all who have favored him with their patronage in the past, has built up a splendid business, that will increase and expand from year to year just so long as he continues in its management. With more room, new and improved machinery for doing work rapidly and economically, and with a better and less expensive power for propelling the machinery, the Albany Foundry and Machine Shops will soon be prepared to successfully compete with similar enterprises elsewhere on the coast. Success to the men, say we, who are building up our city and county by erecting and carrying on industries that are calculated to benefit our people and keep at home the coin that would otherwise be sent to the East, to be seen no more forever. Our first duty to ourselves, to our city, to the commonwealth, is to aid and encourage all such enterprises of utility, first, last and all the time.

Dr. Haskell, of 'Frisco, will open his crusade against rum at the Court House Sunday at 11 A. M.; also at 7:30 P. M. Twenty-five years with a circus and on the stage would seem to qualify the doctor to "crusade" understandingly at least on the rum question. In fact his rum-inations during the twenty-five years of circus life will enable him to show up well on the occasion. We predict large audiences on Sunday. Every body invited, free of charge.

We are unable to quote the price of wheat in this market, as we can learn of no offers for the new crop. Whether prices will open at high or low figures is at present simply a matter of conjecture. In the mean time our farmers don't seem to be worried over the matter one way or the other.

Warren & Co. have the Collins & Lillie Reversible Bed, made entirely of wood, that looks as though it would fill the bill as a spring bed equal to the higher priced ones. $7 gets away with one of them.

Isaac McClung commenced harvesting yesterday. He has three hundred acres in wheat, all of which he intends to cut and bind, believing it to be less expensive and more profitable than to use a header.

An additional amount of water was to have been let into the Santiam Canal yesterday, to enable the Red Jacket to proceed to Lebanon for a cargo of wheat. Thus we glide.

Mr. Pierce is to have a new ferry built, which will be sixty-two feet in length by sixteen in width. S. R. Smith is to be the builder, and proposes to have it ready in a fortnight.

Tom Ballard, arrested for stabbing Aaron Backus on Monday night, had an examination on Tuesday and was acquitted.

Clay Kuhn is able to be out once more, on crutches, after having been confined to his room for long, weary weeks, with a broken ankle.

Milt. Hale was reported slightly improved yesterday, with hopes of an entire recovery.

The Albany Farmers' warehouse has sent out 59,000 sacks this season.

We learned yesterday that Dr. Alexander was slowly improving in health.

A broom factory is being erected on Railroad street.

See premium list to be awarded at the coming County Fair. It is liberal, and has been shorn of some of the features heretofore objected to.

Prof. Francis' new song, "Beautiful Lena," sung at the concert Tuesday night by Mr. Wilkie, was encored.

The Albany Farmers' Warehouse had received between six and seven thousand bushels of the new crop of wheat up to Wednesday.

No marked improvement in the condition of Mrs. Judge Baber, we are sorry to say.

M. M. Hart's elegant little cottage on Railroad street is about completed.

Fido is dead. She got in the way of a flying club, and sank under the blow. Vale, purp.

Quite a number of horses are in training on the Fair grounds for the coming County Fair.

The last we heard of Bill Tally and his crowd they were at Whisky Springs—a suggestive name.

Wm. Tally, Wm. Miller, Geo. Weller and Geo. Burkhart started for the mountains on Tuesday.

Two prominent citizens of this city "fell out about quarreling" the other evening.

We have had no Summer weather to speak of so far, and now it is too late—Winter will soon be here.

Wheat coming in finely. Farmers busy as bees, reaping, threshing and hauling in the golden grain.

Prof. Francis called on Wednesday. Will return to the city the first of next week.

MARRIED.

In this city, August 13th, 1874, by Rev. S. G. Irvine, Mr. Orion Denny, of W. T., and Miss Elva Coulter, of this city.

August 9th, 1874, at the residence of Benj. W. Redman, Sen., by B. W. Redman, J. P., Mr. Martin Bayley and Mrs. Nettie Taylor, all of Linn county, Oregon.

New To-Day.

SOLDIERS

WAR CLAIM AGENCY.

(No. 24 Montgomery Block.)
SAN FRANCISCO, CAL.

W. H. AIKEN, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW and Commander of the Grand Army of the Republic in California and Nevada, will give prompt attention to the collection of Additional Travel Pay, now due California and Nevada Volunteers discharged more than three hundred miles from home. Soldiers can depend on fair dealing. Information given free of charge. When writing enclose stamp for reply and state company and regiment, and whether you have a discharge. Congress has extended the time for filing claims for Additional Bounty under Act of July 28, 1866, to January 1875, so all such claims must be made before that time. Original Bounty of $100 has been allowed all volunteers who enlisted before July 22, 1861 for three years, if not paid the same when discharged. Land Warrants can be obtained for services rendered before 1855, but not for services in the late war. Pensions for late war and war of 1813 obtained and increased when allowed for less than disability warrants, but no pensions are allowed to Mexican and Florida war soldiers. State of Texas has granted Pensions to surviving veterans of Texas Revolution. New Orleans and Mobile Prize Money is now due and being paid. W. H. Aiken also has funds to General Law and Collection Agents.
