Grange Items.

The grange mill at Janesville, Wisconsin, has just received an order from Kentucky for the shipment direct to a grange in that State of a car load of flour.

Patrons at Lowell, Henry county, Iowa, have been sent circulars from Chicago swindlers proposing to forward "English sewing machines" for $25, which are worth $60 or $70.

The Kansas Executive Committee warn those who organize granges in occupied territory that they will have to consolidate with other granges or surrender their charter.

The Kansas farmer objects to the order taking so much money out of the State, and shows that if the dispensation fee were $5 instead of $15 the sum of $14,000 would have been retained in Kansas.

Agents for a Chicago "grange store," are selling coffee by sample in Monroe county, Indiana, thirty pounds for $2, where a club of sixty are made, one-half cash, balance on delivery of goods. The goods have not been delivered, as a matter of course.

The Patrons at Farhault, Dodge Center, and Cherry Grove, Minnesota, have adopted the plan of taking tenders for their trade, which is given to the merchant making the least advance on cost, the invoice being open to inspection. Eight per cent is the present rate, which represents an immense saving. Of course, the Patrons will see that the merchants don't get two invoices, one to trade on and one to pay by.

The spirit of all secret orders is too often lost sight of—mere form taking the place of that purer, higher and more noble sentiment of fraternity upon which all secret orders, and especially the Order of Patrons, are professedly founded. The moral instead of the mental faculties—the heart instead of the head, should guide and govern the thoughts and actions of Patrons in a far greater degree than they do. We do not fulfill all our solemn obligations, voluntarily taken, when we go through with the forms and ceremonies of the Ritual; there is or ought to be, a holier motive for our actions than the too common one of sordid gain or excellence in prescribed formality.—Our Home Journal and Rural Southland.

About 7,000 of the Patrons of St. Joseph, La Porte and Elkhart counties, Indiana, together with a few from the neighboring counties of Michigan, met for the purpose of having a good time at South Bend recently. The principal event was an address by Henley James, the State Grange Master, who stated that, though a year ago they only numbered twenty-eight granges, the whole number of subordinate granges is now 2,100 and rapidly increasing, so that by July 1st he expects to see Indiana ahead of any other State in the Union. He estimates the membership of Indiana to exceed 100,000. He gave a sketch of the doings of the Order, among which he mentioned that it saved $1,000,000 to the Indiana farmers in the year in the purchase of goods and implements. A Patron gives this advice to his brethren: "Do not meddle with any business you know nothing of. Have order, system, regularity and promptness. Do not kick every stone, unless they lay directly in the path. More miles can be made in a day going steadily on than stopping by the wayside. Endeavor to avoid all hard words and personalities. Learn to say "no." No necessity for snapping it out dog-fashion, but say it firmly and respectfully. A grange of honor respect their word as they do their bond. They aid, but never beg. Pay as you go. Never fool in business matters. Have no confidants; at least, the fewer the better. Learn to think and act for yourselves. Thoroughly investigate before going into any business of great importance. Keep your tables and stands well spread with journals of scientific matter."

Farmers have long been aware of the folly, and worse than folly, of going to law, but the lack of business and social intercourse with their neighbors, often prevents a proper understanding of right and mutual interest, encourages suspicion and jealousy, and too often leads them to rush into the Courts, and sometimes dividing the whole neighborhood into active partisans. But, thanks to the influence of the Order of the Patrons of Husbandry, this disturbing element in farm life throughout the county generally is rapidly disappearing. The Order has brought farmers into closer communion with each other, and has developed mutual confidence and respect; and without the assistance of any secret charm has produced a change which is now substituting arbitration for law. Arbitration is one of the grand principles of the Order, and is already producing important material results, as well as promoting peace and harmony in many neighborhoods.

The Sandusky Register contained no editorial and only one local item for four days, on account of repairs in the office. The "repairs" consisted of putting a lock on the door and washing the windows.

At a picnic down the river a chap got his eye punched for speaking to another fellow's girl, and when he tearfully explained that he'd "known her these thirty-five year," he got all his hair pulled out.

Cochise, the late Chief of the Apaches, is credited with having slain twenty-seven Americans, four Apache Indians, three Germans, one Frenchman and forty-nine Mexicans and half-breeds; in all, eighty-seven persons.

The Rev. Dr. Doodrich, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Cleveland, Ohio, died recently at Lausanne, Switzerland, where he had gone on account of his health.

Tooele county has got her Foote in the Utah Legislature.
