AN OLD PIONEER GONE.—Father Altree died at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon of paralysis, after a lingering illness of many weeks.

A POOL.—The farmers talk of putting up a pool of 20,000 bushels of wheat as a market opener.

COMPLIMENTARY.—We find the following in Tuesday's Oregonian: "Prof. A. S. Abernethy, well known in Portland, has accepted a position as teacher in Albany College Institute.

FUNERAL SERMON.—The funeral sermon of E. S. Altree will be preached at the M. E. Church on Sunday morning at 11 A. M., by Rev. Isaiah Wilson.

RETURNED.—Messrs. Tally, Miller, Weller and Burkhart, returned from the mountains on Tuesday. They killed twelve deer and one black bear.

SWITCH CHANGED.—The railroad company have taken up a portion of the switch and replaced it so as to be more convenient to the Farmers' warehouse, and extended it east to Morris & Parker's new warehouse.

EXCURSION.—On Tuesday Messrs. Dave Thompson and wife, Ans. Marshall, wife and three children, Perry Raymond and wife, Allen Parker, wife and son, Mrs. Samuel Althouse and four daughters, took the southern bound train for Pass Creek, where they intend to enjoy camp life among the mountains.

Ben Simpson was in the city yesterday.

CAMPMEETING AT LEBANON.—A campmeeting will be held at Lebanon, commencing on Friday, September 18th, by the Cumberland Presbyterians.

OPERATION PERFORMED.

Some two weeks ago, in San Francisco, Miss Laura, daughter of Dr. Tate, of this city, who has been threatened with blindness, had an operation performed upon her eyes by an eminent surgeon of that city.

FALSE.—Last fall, Dr. Boughton, of this city, removed a tumor from the right side, over the region of the liver, of Mrs. Powell, who resides about six miles from this city.

NEW FIRM.—Clair Stewart is now one of the proprietors of the Democrat, as we see by the last issue.

PLUMS.—Last week Mrs. E. B. Purdom presented us with a little branch, cut from a plum tree in her garden, not longer than your hand, on which was clustered near a quart of luscious plums.

A GOOD INVESTMENT.—The stockholders in the Albany Farmers' Warehouse, last season, cleared over twenty-five hundred dollars—a profit of twenty-one per cent. on the capital invested.

New goods at Sam'l E. Young's, and more coming.

Mr. Comstock, of Pass Creek Mills, was in the city Tuesday.

Harvest still progressing, and grain pouring into our warehouses daily.

No change in market quotations since our last. Butter, fresh roll, 26@30c; eggs, 20c.

California peaches, grapes, sweet potatoes, etc., in full supply at the grocers.

The Farmers' warehouse has received over 25,000 bushels of wheat to date, and still it comes.

A new frame business house has been commenced for Dr. Plummer on First street, next to Weed's grocery store.

On Sunday last a dashing widower, undertaking to show the girls how to walk a plank thrown across the Canal, fell in ker splash, nearly ruining his good clothes.
