A GENTLE HINT .- This is how they do it in Alabama: Large posters are put up along the roads so that he who runs may read. The picture of a coffin heads the sheet, then comes the following pleasing announcement: "The invisible monarch rules in Sumter, and watches the doings of his people from a little star above you. All niggers, white and black, will take warning from the fate of Billings and Ivey. They were killed by nnknown hands, which will never be known. Those hands will destroy Colored men who want to live in peace and be protected can do it by inquir-ing where they can sign the white 'Inquire,' and man's constitution. our monarch will send a man to you who will have the 'roll.' Never vote the Radical ticket again. Sign, and live. Refuse, and die. Signed at the spirit land, at the hour of death, and by the graves of the dead.

We desire to say that if Uncle Sam can get his hands on this "invisible monarch" it will be his duty to make him wish he had remained in the spirit land.
